Mrs. John Brophy, after a period of convalescence following an operation at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, returned home Thursday evening with Mrs. Ralph Glover and Mr. Brophy who motored to Portland earlier in the day.

Mrs. Seymour Jones, according to announcement made from Eugene, has been elected new regent of the state association of the Daughters of the American Revolution for the next two years. Mrs. Seymour Jones is a very prominent local club woman. At present she is president of the Salem Woman's club. Other state officers elected for the two-year term are: Vice regent, Mrs. A. A. Finch, Astoria; second vice regent, Miss Sarah Van Meter, Multnomah chapter, Portland; recording secretary, Mrs. Thomas J. A. Aredus, Multnomah chapter, Portland; corresponding secretary, Miss Edith E. Benedict, Chemeketa chapter, Salem; treasurer, Mrs. Robert C. Wright, Willamette chapter, Portland; consulting registrar, Mrs. John L. Soule, Matthew Starbuck chapter, Baker; librarian, Mrs. P. M. Brant, Winema chapter, Corvallis; historian, Mrs. Lulu D. Crandall, Quenette chapter, The Dalles; chaplain, Mrs. George F. Murch, Coos Bay chapter, Marshfield.

Miss Annie Lang is the retiring regent. The convention which was held at Eugene, brought forth many interesting motions. The progress of the state chapter during the year was reviewed in detail. Committee reports were given in relation to a number of worthy association projects. Plans for the creation of a student loan fund were announced. The appointment of six organizing agents typifies the splendid activity of the association. Many other affairs were attended to. Those from Salem participating in the convention which was the eleventh to have been held, were, Mrs. La Moine R. Clark, Mrs. Elmo White, Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. R. J. Valiton, Mrs. Harry Styles, Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Miss Lillian Applegate, Miss Frances Richards, Mrs. David Looney, Mrs. B. L. Steeves and Mrs. Ed. Jory.

A very pleasant afternoon was planned for the twenty-five members of the north and west divisions of the Presbyterian ladies' aid society, who met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. George J. Pearce, 267 North Winter street. Materials for a unique and dramatic game were provided. Miss Dorothy Pearce gave an appreciated piano solo. Miss Helen Pearce reviewed for the pleasure of the guests her visit to the Pope. The talk was reminiscent of last summer's months abroad. After they had busied themselves throughout the afternoon with their needlework, the guests enjoyed delicious refreshments served by the hostess, Mrs. Pearce, assisted by Miss Dorothy Pearce and Miss Helen Pearce.

Dr. S. A. Bowman was host on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Harbison, at a pleasant dinner party. The mid-March green predominated throughout the menu. Daffodils and flowering currant were used in the rooms. Covers were placed for seven including Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Marcus, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Millard, Mr. and Mrs. John Harbison, and Mr. S. A. Bowman.

Reelecting E. H. Kennedy of Salem president, and O. F. Franklin, also of Salem, secretary, the annual meeting and banquet of the Willamette Valley Cleaners' and Dyers' association was held Wednesday evening at the Spa. The twelve members who met were honored with the presence of the vicepresident of the national association, Mr. Lavine, and of H. Enke of Portland.

Mrs. A. T. Hill of La Grande was the guest of honor when Mrs. R. B. Fleming was hostess late in the week for the members of the Thursday club. Mrs. Richard Cartwright and Mrs. George Bingham were assistant hostesses for the day. An ingenious guessing game precluded the conversation and needlework of the afternoon. Ferns and flowers gave the rooms a spring like touch. Those present for the social meeting were: Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. George Pearce, Mrs. F. A. Elliott and her sister, Mrs. A. T. Hill of La Grande, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. Frank W. Spencer, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. H. J. Bean, Mrs. S. C. Dyer, Mrs. A. N. Moores and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney.

Mrs. Reginald Sanford was the guest of Mrs. Theodore V. Arnelter of Portland during the opera season, attending the Boris Godunoff performance on Tuesday night.

The Salem Woman's club is planning a home products banquet for 6:30 Friday, March 21, at the Armory. This is part of the club's activity for the year. Mrs. C. P. Bishop is chairman of the home industries committee for the State Federation of Women's clubs. At this banquet the club is arranging for the seating of four hundred guests. In so far as possible the products will be those of Marion county alone, and then of the state in general. Mrs. Seymour Jones, president of the Salem Woman's club, will be toastmistress. Good music will be provided and several five minute talks. Every club and organization in Marion county is cordially invited to attend. A small fee will be charged for the banquet to cover expenses. Any manufacturer who wants to put in an exhibit for that evening will be given free space.

Mrs. W. P. Lord will see that a splendid flax exhibit is given. A home products banquet put on recently by the Woman's club was attended by over a thousand women. A "bigger pay roll for Marion County" is the program which the women are starting to put into practice.

Mrs. C. E. Alford of Portland, who spoke Thursday afternoon at the Jason Lee Woman's Home Missionary society, which met at the home of Mrs. C. M. Roberts, 1015 Shipping street, spoke also at McKinley, Lincoln, and Grant schools and at the meeting of the Leslie church missionary society. Mrs. Alford returned to Portland on Friday.

The ladies of the Central Congregational church, meeting in the church parlors last Tuesday for a day of needlework, finished the aprons on which they have been working. On next Tuesday evening, March 18, the society will conduct an apron sale in connection with their chicken dinner.

Miss Mabel Marcus will arrive home Tuesday from Corvallis to spend her ten-day spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Marcus. Miss Marcus is a junior in vocational education at the Oregon Agricultural college.

Mrs. C. E. Alford of Portland, who spoke during the past week at three schools and two missionary societies, was a much appreciated guest in Salem.

The Bon Ami club was pleasantly entertained Friday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Erickson were hosts for the club members and their husbands at the Erickson home in West Salem. The St. Patrick theme was merged with the daffodil and violet decorations. Five hundred at five tables diverted the guest group. High scores went to Dean Schumacher and G. E. Johnson; and low scores to Nile Hilburn and Mrs. Dick Hooker. The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. D. E. Doughton. The evening guests were: Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bartner, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ferrel, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bozell, Mr. and Mrs. George Skeels, Mr. and Mrs. Hilburn, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Cupter, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hooker, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Schumacher, Mr. Fred Collins, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Erickson.

Meeting in the club room, the members of the Three Link club enjoyed a St. Patrick's program on Friday. The St. Patrick atmosphere pervaded the readings which Mrs. W. M. Slegmund and Louise King gave. Elsie Simeral sang an Irish song. The dining room was attractively decorated in keeping with the day. The menu effectively brought out the Irish green. The next meeting of the club will be on the 28th of the month.

The members of the Elite embroidery club met for a pleasant afternoon of needlework at the home of Mrs. Ray Clark, 1541 North Front street, on Thursday. Daffodils were bright about the rooms. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Fred Prince assisting her. On Thursday of this week, Mrs. C. M. Clark will entertain the club.

Returning from an interesting winter in California, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Legge and Miss Margaret Legge arrived home Thursday evening. Kenneth Legge, who left a week ago to look over a group of buildings in San Francisco, joined the party, returning with the coast route, through Santa Cruz, Monterey and Santa Barbara as far south as San Diego and Tia Juana, Mexico. The return itinerary followed the inland route through Bakersfield and Fresno. The large part of the winter was spent at Long Beach and Los Angeles.

Meeting at the studio of Miss Elma Weller, the members of the Salem Music Teachers' association made interesting plans for music week in Salem. The week set apart will be that beginning with Easter Sunday. Mrs. Harry Styles is president of the association and presided during the evening. A number of committees were appointed. The activities of music week will center around programs and concerts to be given at the different state institutions.

"A MARRIAGE HAS BEEN ARRANGED"

A new alliance in the world of fashion has been consummated. Enter a new vogue for summer—the dress with matching coat, owing its inspiration to the popularity of printed materials. Printed dresses, writes Henri Creange from Paris, predominate at the races, and are worn with long coats or wraps of the same material, or if a plain color, lined with the same material as the dress. These coats are straight, lapped way over, and without buttons. They are developed in crepe, Dalpaca, and Drapaca, two new alpaca weaves, or even in printed cretonne. When they are made of a plain material they are most often black or some shade of brown. The frock pictured, of figured crepe de chine in a Persian panel design of Cheney inspiration is supplemented by a long coat of Crepe Cantonese, lined with the same patterned fabric as that of the frock. The design is in black on a beige background—a fashionable color combination, and the coat is black. The dress shows two flounces giving the required fullness in front. The back of the dress, following the laws of asymmetry now in favor in the fashion world is quite plain. Such a costume lends itself to innumerable uses, and the dress and coat combination will be welcomed by women who have felt that a light dress is not the correct thing for town wear in summer and yet have necessitated to burden themselves with a topcoat. These coats can be made at home at no great cost and give an air of chic to even a simple costume.
