solo of Mrs. Ward Willis Long, with a violin accompaniment by Miss Iva Claire Love. The brass quartette furnished excellent music of a different nature and was much appreciated. Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn gave one of her readings and was forced to respond with an encore. Prof. T. S. Roberts, well known Salem musician, delighted the audience with his pipe organ selections. The male quartette made a decided hit, and with Scotch selections, sung by James Smart, rounded out the program.

Two Silverton Women Escape Serious Injuries

SILVERTON, Or., March 19.—(Special to The Statesman)—Only a miracle saved Mrs. A. A. Engbretson and Mrs. E. M. Erickson from meeting with a serious accident Tuesday when the steering wheel of the car driven by Mrs. Engbretson came off and the car left the road, tearing down over the steep bank of East Hill and crashing into the chicken house belonging to Amos Corhouse. Both women escaped injury, but the car was very little damaged, and the house was shoved two feet from its mooring and otherwise badly wrecked. A peculiar incident of the affair was that neither the windows in the car nor in the hen-house were broken.

A NOVEL PLAN INDEED

Here's a Silverware "Buying Club" that's entirely new

Pomeroy & Keene, jewelers, who have just announced the organization of their Silverware club, has a novel idea which we believe will create wide spread interest. There is definite need of such a "Club," says Pomeroy & Keene. "Not every woman can afford at one time to purchase as much silverware as she would like and the quality she may feel the need of. The "Silverware Club" makes it possible for the housewife to come in to our store, make a small initial payment, and choose whatever she needs to complete her table equipment. She is actually paying no more than she would pay if she bought the silverware in the regular way and she is certain of getting the finest silverware on the market. This is the first time that it has been possible to obtain such high grade silverware in so convenient a way. Pomeroy & Keene extends an invitation to every woman in Salem to visit their store during the week of 15-22.

SALEM BOYS' CHORUS PRESENTS PROGRAM

Concert Under Auspices of Auxiliary of YMCA—Many Take Part

From the four numbers by the Salem Boys chorus to the last strains of the male quartet encore, O Sole Mio, the concert program given last night at the First Methodist church under the auspices of the auxiliary of the YMCA was enthusiastically received. Ninety voices united under the baton of Dr. H. C. Epley for two lively numbers, "I'll Stand By," by James McCranabam, and "Old Mother Hubbard." The chorus responded to two encores, "Smile a While" and "Throw it Out the Window." The boys, all wearing white blouses with red ties, were led in the encore numbers by O. H. Hull. Next, Professor T. S. Roberts played the plaintive beautiful "Meditation" from Sturgeons; the operatic "Miserere (Il Travatore) from Verdi; and the encore, "Memories," from St. Clair.

The Willamette Men's glee club sang "Gospel Train" and "Heaven," both negro spirituals from Burleigh, and Mendenhalls "Jolly Students."

An outstanding beautiful number on the program was Evangeline Burlette Long's contralto solo, A. Goring Thomas' "A Song of Sunshine." The audience insisted on an encore, and were not satisfied until she had repeated "Rock-a-by Train" (Akers) the second time. Miss Iva Claire Love played the violin obligato, and Professor Franklin Launer the piano accompaniments. James Smart announced for two numbers, was not allowed to leave the platform until after a third. He sang "Im Wearin Awa, Jean" (Arthur Foote); "The Wee Hoose Among the Heather (Lauder); and, as the encore, "Wee Dooch-An-Doris" (Lauder.) Byron Arnold played the accompaniments for the numbers. Cadman's "A Chinese Love Song" and MacDowell's "At Parting were chosen for rendition by the Mac Dowell club group. The double quartet singing included: Mrs. Grant Bonnell, Mrs. Phil Newmeyer, Miss Nellie Schwab, Mrs. E. J. Richie, Mrs. J. E. Law, Mrs. Earl Simpson, Mrs. Merle Rosecrans, Mrs. George H. Allen. Mrs. Arthur Rahn completely won the audience with her reading "The Spelling Bee" (Dunbar). Her encores likewise, were thoroughly enjoyable. She gave as response numbers, "The Gossips" and "Wood-ticks." Three quartet numbers by Messrs. A. H. Robertson, R. D. Barton, T. L. Williams, and F. S. Barton concluded the program which was pronounced a success. The quartet sang "The Bells of St. Mary" (Adams), "Croon, Croon" (Adams), "The Moon (Clutsara); and, as an encore, the much-loved number, "O

Ruple's Ford Sedan Is Destroyed By Flames

SILVERTON, Or., March 19.—(Special to The Statesman)—The Ford sedan belonging to O. A. Ruple was entirely destroyed by fire Tuesday night as Mr. Ruple was on his way home. He had got about four miles east of Silverton when the car stopped. Mr. Ruple lit a match to see what time it was, and threw the match back of the car. It seems the gas had Dr. H. C. Epley for two lively numbers, "I'll Stand By," by James McCranabam, and "Old Mother Hubbard." The chorus responded to two encores, "Smile a While" and "Throw it Out the Window." The boys, all wearing white blouses with red ties, were led in the encore numbers by O. H. Hull. Next, Professor T. S. PORTER FILES IN RACE FOR OFFICE

Silverton Mayor Formally Enters as Candidate for Commissioner

John H. Porter of Silverton, yesterday filed his declaration as a candidate for the republican nomination as county commissioner to succeed J. T. Hunt, whose term will expire January 1 next.

Mr. Porter states in his platform that he will use his best efforts to secure economy in county expenditures and favors carrying out the present road building program as laid out by the late Judge Bushey. He wishes printed on the ballot, following his name, his slogan as follows: "Strictest Economy in County Expenditures."

Mr. Porter is a native of Marion county, and is descended from Oregon pioneers of the early fifties. He lived in the same neighborhood in the vicinity of Silverton, for 53 years. Mr. Porter is a farmer. About three years ago he removed from his farm to the city of Silverton. He still retains his farming interests and is one of the heavy taxpayers of the county. Shortly after taking up his residence in Silverton Mr. Porter was elected councilman, leading his ticket for that office. Afterward he was unanimously chosen as mayor of the city and still holds that office. Mr. Porter served as school director for twenty-one years, and has been deputy assessor in Marion county for three years. He feels that he is fully conversant with the needs of all sections of the county, and his friends declare that he is one of the best qualified men who has been mentioned for the office of commissioner in many years, and they confidently predict that he will be nominated and elected by a large majority.

Courts to Decide Tenure Of Mr. Myers in Office

Governor Pierce said yesterday that he will leave it to the courts to decide whether Jefferson Myers, whom the governor appointed state treasurer to succeed O. P. Hoff, shall serve only through the present year or through the entire unexpired term of Mr. Hoff.

The governor deliberately made the appointment until 1927, he said, although the constitution of the state provides that appointments to fill vacancies in cases of death, resignation or other inability to serve shall hold only until the successor to the appointee is elected and qualified through the next general election.

Attorney General Van Winkle declares that the law has been held by the state supreme court to mean that the appointee can not hold through the unexpired term. This was the case of Baker vs. Payne when Governor Penney appointed George E. Chamberlain as attorney general. The court held that Chamberlain could hold only until his successor was elected and qualified through the next general election.

Blessed are the peace makers. They have it soft in a world full of deficits.

SAFETY TALK BY SNELLING HEARD

Motorists Urged to Be Careful and Avoid Serious Gutter Fire

Possibility of a gutter fire that would seriously damage all automobiles parked in one Salem block is seen by R. O. Snelling, manager of the Associated Oil company, who urged motorists to take greater precautions when handling gasoline. In a short talk at the Rotary club luncheon Wednesday. He pointed out that it is a common habit of motorists to fill their gasoline tanks too full, leaving a tiny stream running to the pavement. Some time a careless smoker will drop a lighted match or cigar butt with dangerous results, he said.

"Now that the camping, motorist and fishing season is near, motorists should take more care with their gasoline, for in spite of the popular belief of many people that the quality of gasoline has deteriorated, it is still highly inflammable," Mr. Snelling said. "The common gasoline stoves used by campers are dangerous unless proper precautions are taken. Many campers are also very careless about building camp fires close to the rear of their automobiles. Even when handling gasoline out in the open it must be remembered that the fumes are heavier than the air and often settle in pockets, remaining long after the cause has been removed."

Mr. Snelling said his remarks were caused by the recent tragedy at Albany which resulted in the death of Dr. Arthur Leininger. Mr. Snelling said he has investigated the accident and believed it to have been caused by a leak in the container. Dr. Leininger used a two-gallon tank and blow torch. After using this for soldering, the hose was hung back on the tank before all flame had been extin-

Musical Program Heard At Methodist Church

An exceptionally fine and well-balanced program, featuring some of Salem's best known musicians, was offered at the First Methodist church last night by the women's auxiliary of the YMCA. Proceeds from the concert will be used to further the boys' work being carried on by the YMCA.

Two large musical organizations made their initial appearance of the season in Salem, the men's glee club from Willamette university, under the direction of Prof. E. W. Hobson, and of the Salem boys' chorus, numbering approximately 100 voices, under the direction of Dr. H. C. Epley. Both of these were very much enjoyed and the recipients of many compliments.

The MacDowell club, a double quartette number, was enthusiastically received, as was the vocal
