JOINT-EASE

For Stiff, Swollen Joints

Rheumatic or Otherwise

Says: "When Joint-Ease Gets in—Joint Agony Gets Out."

It was a high-class pharmacist who saw prescription after prescription fail to help hundreds of his customers to get rid of rheumatic swellings and stiff inflamed joints.

And it was this same man who asserted that a remedy could and would be compounded that would make creaky, swollen, tormented joints work with just as much smoothness as they ever did.

Now this prescription, rightly named Joint-Ease, after being tested successfully on many obstinate cases, is offered through progressive pharmacists to the millions of people who suffer from ailing joints that need limbering up.

Swollen, twingy, inflamed, stiff, pain-tormented joints are usually caused by rheumatism, but whatever the cause Joint-Ease soaks right in, through skin and flesh and gets right to and corrects the trouble at its source.

Remember Joint-Ease is for ailments of the joints, whether in ankle, knee, hip, elbow, shoulder, spine or finger, and when you rub it on, you may expect speedy and gratifying results.

It is now on sale at all druggists for 60 cents a tube.—Adv.

T. I. Harris and little Jean Anunsen served a light luncheon. Mrs. Paul Hauser will entertain the club on the third of April.

Mrs. Minna C. Budlong of Boston was the guest-speaker of the woman's alliance of the Unitarian church which met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy Burton. A business meeting preceded Mrs. Budlong's informal talk. Mrs. Martin Pereshetian sang "Chanson Provencale," and "The Song of India."

To honor Miss Marjorie Harbert, bride-elect, Misses Margaret and Geraldine Collins were hostesses earlier in the week for a miscellaneous shower which was given in the nature of a surprise. Guests gathering for the occasion were Frances Pluv, Golda Wheeler, Alma Englebart, Anna Ward, Margaret Collins, Geraldine Collins, Dortha Douglas, Hester Hilpot, Myrtle Beecroft and Carrie Edge. Miss Harbert's marriage is to be an event of April 11.

The Oregon products dinner, sponsored last night at the Elks temple by the Salem Woman's club may well be pronounced a splendid success. Mrs. Bishop made the announcement that plans would be made for holding such a banquet each year. About 300 guests were served during the evening. The three long tables were decorated with carnations and daffodils. Mrs. W. I. Staley was in charge of the dining room preparations. When all was in readiness Mrs. Seymour Jones, president of the local woman's club, took her place as toastmistress for the occasion. The program which followed included toasts by Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Harley O. White, E. A. Brown, R. J. Hendricks, O. B. Gingrich, Edith Tozier Weathered, Ora F. McIntyre and Dr. Carl Gregg Doney.

The menu, from napkins and floral decorations to the candies and relishes, represented local companies and markets—the McDowell market, the Knight Packing company, Pickens & Haynes, Carl & Bowersox, Dixie Bakery, Cherry City Bakery, Marion creamery, Weller Brothers, Salem Cheese factory, P. "The way to lower taxes is quit voting unnecessary appropriations" is his slogan. His platform says: "If nominated and elected I will

PEACE TALKS GIVEN HERE

International Questions are Treated By Hamilton Holt and Boynton

Advocating a world court and the League of Nations, Hamilton Holt, former editor of the Independent and a noted publicist and Dr. Nehemiah Boynton, former national moderator of the Congregational church, addressed a large crowd at the First Presbyterian church last night. Dr. Carl Gregg Doney, president of Willamette university, presided at the meeting and introduced the speaker. The two speakers are touring the coast in the interests of the League of Nations Non-Partisan association. Dr. Boynton pointed briefly to the importance of internationalism and how it is woven into the affairs of America. Intimacy Needed "Isolation is not the principle on which the great God founded the universe; not isolation but intimacy," Dr. Boynton declared. "There is an increasing intimacy and fellowship in world affairs. We are now in the presence of new phases of internationalism. The three great applications of internationalism today are the world court, the League of Nations and the new alliance for the spread of internationalism through the churches." The importance of America joining the League of Nations was emphasized by Hamilton Holt, who has spent much of his time since the organization of the league at Geneva at the councils of the league. He urged that America join that body and work toward the political organization of the world from which justice and peace may be expected to follow. Organization Necessary "Peace comes out of justice; justice comes out of law; law out of political organization, and it is the political aspects of internationalism that interest us primarily in a search for world peace,"

Mr. Holt declared. "A political organization is needed for the world. In the words of Lincoln, things are not settled until they are settled right, and so must it be with the world."

Mr. Holt described the court as a parliamentary and executive procedure necessary if the world is to have justice and peace on an international basis. According to the speaker 54 nations at the present time are organized into the League of Nations and after mentioning those out of the league he stated that he deplored the company that the United States now found itself in.

Busy Day in Salem Both men spent a busy day in Salem Friday. Mr. Holt spoke twice, during the morning, first at the high school and later at chapel services at Willamette university. Both men were guests at the all-Oregon products dinner given by the Salem Women's club at the Elks' temple prior to speaking again last night. In view of the excellent material offered by Mr. Holt in his address, the Statesman, on Sunday, will publish his address in full.

Multnomah Grangers Partly Indorse McNary Bill

PORTLAND, March 21.—After considerable discussion, Multnomah Pomona grange yesterday refused at first to indorse the McNary Haugen bill specifically, but lent its support to the general idea of farm relief legislation. The grange first tabled a resolution pledging support to the McNary-Haugen measure. Later it indorsed the bill along with "any other measure that will accomplish the purpose." Some speakers supported the Sinclair-North bill.

According to R. W. Gill, named as delegate to the state convention at The Dalles in June, the grange, as a result, will be able at this convention to throw its support toward any measure that may seem more advantageous. The grange also passed resolutions opposing all tax exemptions on securities.

It decided to invite the state grange to meet in Portland in 1925. It invited the other eight granges to participate in a joint initiation in June, at which the four degrees will be exemplified by Columbia, Fairview, Pleasant Valley and Multnomah grange, one degree being put on by each. The date of the annual field day at Gresham was set as July 19.
