Dr. Harris I. Folk and Dr. Paul G. Stapan, 1484 State St., Salem, Oregon, are Chiropractic doctors.
The Abrams method of Electronic Diagnosis and Treatment is not taught by Dr. Chiropractic doctors by Dr. Abrams or any of his colleges. These doctors, at 1484 State street, have removed the words Abrams' Method from their sign, but instead use the E. R. A. on their sign and advertisement. This is misleading and has caused persons to start treatment with them, thinking they were receiving the real Abrams treatment. The letters E. R. A., with periods after them, stands for Electronic Reactions of Abrams. While these doctors, who use the imitation machine, use the E. R. A. without the periods, this is misleading and has caused persons to be misled and to take their treatment. For facts address and familiarizing themselves with songs in the new books, business men interested in the John J. Evans Bible class, which meets at the Bligh theater every Sunday morning, will meet at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Not only members, but anyone interested in the class is invited tonight. Sunday morning the class will convene at 9:30 o'clock, 15 minutes earlier, in order to permit an extra song period. Frank Jue of Portland, Chinese tenor, will be the soloist of the day and it is expected that the theater auditorium will be well filled in order to hear him. Mr. Jue, who is a student at the University of Oregon, is also soloist with the university orchestra and has been on professional vaudeville tours during the summer months, when he receives much favorable press criticism.

Work on Camp Grounds—
Some progress is being made on the tourist auto camp grounds as a result of the state highway department's grader and tractor having been used for several hours this week. A considerable area has been leveled. Lights will be strung through the grounds in about a week, Homer Smith, chairman of the park board, said yesterday. All the work is being hand-capped as a result of a lack of funds, he said, but progress was being made as fast as possible.

PERSONALS

W. L. Bruce of Jordan Valley was a business visitor in the city yesterday. Mr. Bruce is planning an irrigation project in his district.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hard of Eugene are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto H. Hoppes. Lloyd Rigdon was a Silverton business caller Tuesday morning. Charles Willman, clerk at the Terminal hotel, is again on duty after a week's absence due to illness.

W. F. Lyons and family of Springfield were recent visitors in Salem.

A. N. Pierce, manager of the Marion hotel, is expected back today from a short business trip to Medford.

H. W. Hartman and wife and William Bennett, who are interested in the Hartman Shale Oil company of Ashland, stopped in the city for a brief time yesterday while on their way to Portland.

ANCIENT ORDER OF UNITED WORKMEN

Grand Recorder to Be in Salem This Evening, and a Big Time Expected

C. R. McKee, district deputy of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, has been paying Salem a visit. He has been working up considerable new interest in the order. As many people know, this is the oldest fraternal insurance order in America. It has gone through all the various experiences and ups and downs, and is now as solid as the Rock of Gibraltar.

D. C. Herrin, grand recorder for the order in Oregon, is going to pay the Salem lodge. Protection lodge No. 2, a visit this evening. This is the second oldest lodge in this state, as its number indicates.

This evening there will be an entertainment of about two hours, followed by refreshments, and possibly a hop for the oldest and youngest who like that kind of an entertainment.

Mr. McKee reports the Salem people generally very receptive to his missionary work for his order, and he is frank to say that he thinks Salem is one of the cleanest and best ordered and most progressive cities on this coast.

CLUBS TO TALK OF AUDITORIUM

Salem Federation to Consider Monument to Soldiers at Meeting

Open discussion of the question of a public auditorium to be built in Salem next spring will be a feature of a meeting of the Salem Federation of clubs at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium Friday night. Representatives of each of the 33 organizations which comprise the federation are expected to be present. Dr. Henry E. Morris, president, will preside.

Several short talks are scheduled on the program, including "A Monument for Our Soldiers," by Mrs. J. A. Carson; "Good Homes" Week, by Mrs. Winnie Jettyjohn; "County Health Nurse," by Mrs. Lyda King; "Why I Invested All My Savings in Salem," by Rev. U. S. Crowder. Other questions that will be open for general discussion are signboards on the public highways, the wading pool for children—should it be on the state house grounds, Marion square, or where? and the question of an auditorium.

ANTI SALOON MAN BEGINS SENTENCE

Former Head of League Now Prisoner With Number at Sing Sing

OSISING, N. Y., March 25.—William H. Anderson, former head of the state Anti-Saloon league, once a powerful figure in the political life of the empire state, today became "No. 75,745" in Sing Sing.

Convicted of third degree forgery in altering the books of the league, his application for a certificate of reasonable doubt denied yesterday, the former dry crusader surrendered in New York this morning to Sheriff Dooling. He was brought here by train to begin serving his term of from one to two years.

Anderson was far from downcast. "I am a prisoner of war in the hands of the enemy," he said in a statement handed to the sheriff.

"After the damage I have inflicted on the liquor traffic," said the statement, "I shall not begrudge the wets and their defacto allies any satisfaction they can extract kicking when he is down the one they could not whip in a fair fight."

When the former dry leader arrived he was whisked away to the prison in a taxicab. As he saw the prison walls, Anderson smiled grimly. He walked with a firm step, head erect, lips compressed, eyes flashing angrily.

Water User Says Taste Like Embalming Fluid
"Can you please tell me why they have put embalming fluid in the water?" a voice from East Salem queried The Statesman office.
"How do you know it is embalming fluid?"
"Well, it tastes just like it," was the retort.
Never having tasted embalming fluid, the person who answered the phone was unable to make much headway.
