

Society

AUDRED BUNCH
Photo 108

TO LIVE AGAIN

Dedicated to
DONALD GREGOR BLIGH

You came, but e'er you saw the brightness all,
You went away,
We grieve, for you were innocent and good,
And could not stay,
What tho, the little heart of you had naught
It could repent,
We grieve, that you must take from us the joy
That it had lent,
What tho, you have not seen the brightness all,
Nor yet the sorrow,
You've passed; you've seen the evening, night and dawn
Of the Tomorrow,
'Tis given to souls, so pure and good as yours
His Face to see,
To go with Him, and live and dwell with Him,
Eternally.

—By ATHALIE PRIME.

The third birthday of little Miss Betty Renfro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Renfro, 2050 N. Capitol street, was very delightfully celebrated Thursday, April 3, when a happy group of friends came for a party. Birthday refreshments were served. The group included Katherine Brassfield, Mildred Rickman, Ellen West,

Dainty New Frocks Meadowbrook Hats

The Season's Smartest Models and Vogues in Ladies' Wearing Apparel
Look Your Best This Easter.

The French Shop

MADAME BUFFE MORRISON

115 N. High.

Masonic Temple.

Jewelry Takes on New Forms

COME see the big shipment we just received. Jewelry keeps pace with the tailored mode. Rich colorful glass beads, some are quite large, oblong and slightly uneven in shape, some are round, others square, the colors are so rich and sparkling that one fairly wants one of each string they see.

Rich colorful glass-bead necklaces of every kind and description hold a foremost place in our store at the present time.

Buy now for Easter Gifts
49c, 69c, 79c, 98c, $1.25 to $2.98.

Lovely Earrings of all kinds, a pair
49c to $2.25.

Rhinestone Bracelets and Lovelink
Bracelets 39c to $3.75.

Colorful Barrettes, new shapes
25c to 49c.

Bobette Combs on cords
49c to $1.00.

Peggy Fobs for your tailored suit
49c to $1.25

Bar Pins set with white or colored stones, 49c, 89c, 98c, $1.25.

Pearl Bead Necklaces
25c to $7.95.

Beaded Bags, $3.98, $4.95, $5.95.

Leather Bags, $1.49 to $15.00.

FOBS dangle from every possible angle. They adorn hats, suits dresses, blouses and bags, and even take the form of watches receive prompt and careful attention. We prepay the postage or express within a radius of a hundred miles.

YOUR MAIL ORDERS

Satisfaction Guaranteed
on your purchase or your money cheerfully refunded.

Salem Store
466 State St.

Portland Silk Shop
888 Alder St.

ARTISTS WHO WILL APPEAR IN JOINT CONCERT WITH WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY GLEE CLUB, FRIDAY

Marguerite MacManus String Quartet

Johanea Van Cleave, Luella Dubosh, Lela Runcorn, Robert Runcorn, George Thompson and Edith Gallagher.

Sarah E. Oliver, department president of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, entertained the leading officers of the department of Oregon at her home at 334 South Winter street April 3. Those present were: Lucy C. Beck, department counselor, of Milwaukie; Myrtle Eggman, department senior vice president, of Springfield; Mollie Syron, department junior vice president; Ella G. Himes, department historian, of Dallas; Mary Curtis, department patriotic instructor; Diva E. Rounds, department inspector; Nora E. Lindsay, department assistant inspector, and Anna Guild, who entertained the department president when she visited the Portland circles, all of Portland, and Ardel K. Lawrence, department secretary of Salem. Grace A. Worden, department treasurer of Portland, was too ill to attend and sent a letter of regrets.

After a mid-day dinner, a conference in regard to the department convocation to be held in June, was held. In the late afternoon, the guests departed, expressing themselves as delighted with the visit and entertainment provided. Variegated spring tulips were used in the decorating.

Mrs. William C. Taw of Portland returned home yesterday morning after spending a week here as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Tallman.

The state board of vocational education is planning to start classes in the study of foods and nutrition. These will be conducted by Mrs. Orpah Benson, a specialist in this subject, who has been employed by the board for this purpose. Classes will meet in McCornack hall on the third floor of the Miller building on Wednesday afternoon, April 9th. Persons who are interested may consult with Mrs. Benson or Mrs. Neff at the same place on Monday afternoon if they so prefer.

New classes in millinery and sewing are being organized by Mrs. Blanch in the same rooms heretofore occupied in the Miller building. Up to date a total of over two hundred women have been enrolled in these classes in Salem during the past winter, which proves the popularity of the work.

The Willamette men's glee club which sings locally next Saturday night will appear in joint concert with the Marguerite MacManus string quartet. This quartet has been a pioneer in the chamber music field, and has received unbounded praise from many critics. The quartet gave a concert in Salem two years ago at an evening program of the Oregon state fair.

Marguerite MacManus, whose name is readily recognized by those interested in music, is a well known soloist and teacher. She comes in the capacity of director of a quartet which is nearly equally famous. Among other things which were included in her preparation for her station in musical circles of today are several years study under Caesar Thomson of the Royal Conservatory of Music at Brussels, Belgium. Miss MacManus has been trained from her earliest childhood to become an eminent violinist, as her ancestors before had studied under such masters in the music world as David, Massart and Joachim.

The fact that chamber music all over the United States is having a renaissance is notable. The Marguerite MacManus string quartet, further has the distinction of being the first professional quartet organized in Oregon. It has been playing constantly before the public for the past three seasons with the personnel unchanged, this department of the high school next Friday evening in the high school auditorium. A selected chorus of sixty voices will be used. The story of "Pinafore" has as a background the clever satire on the British navy, which was so effectively written by Gilbert. The tuneful music was written by Sullivan. The melodies are known almost the world around and have never grown old.

Clever lads and lassies are busily engaged with the character studies and interpretations. Sir Joseph Porter, ruler of the queen's navy, will be impersonated by Charles Anderson, bass, whose voice is unusually rich and deep. "Captain Corcoran" of the "Pinafore" will be sung by Gene Parmentier. Josephine, the captain's daughter, who is in love with a humble sailor lad, will be effectively sung by Mary McCrone, whose soprano voice, is unusually sweet. Maude Gwynne sings the part of "Buttercup" with vocal ease and displays splendid characterization. Peter Foelki is impersonating Dick Deadeye, the treacherous and hated sailor with unusual understanding and talent. The boatswain's part will be taken by Manning Boss. One of the finest voices to be heard will be Ronald Craven, the humble sailor lad, who has a tenor voice of beauty and promise. Minor parts will be taken by Helen Marcus, William Sippell, and others.

The opera is under the direction of Lela Belle Tartar.

The wedding of James Watson Crawford and Miss Sue Truby was an event of social note taking place yesterday in Portland. The ritual was read in St. Michael's church, a reception being held afterward at the Hotel Portland. Among those who motored from here to attend the ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. William Mullen, Mr. and Mrs. Justin McEachren, Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, Fred Magnus and James Young. Mr. Mangus is to be best man, and Mr. Young as usher for the occasion. Mr. Crawford is the son of Judge and Mrs. A. M. Crawford.

Mrs. J. H. Baker, 545 Court street, will be the hostess for the meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford will be the leader, assisted by Mrs. C. A. Downs and Mrs. J. E. Purdy. Mrs. E. J. Swafford will have charge of the devotions. Miss Margaret Fisher will give a piano solo.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock Miss Winifred Byrd, Salem's distinguished pianist, will play at the Hotel Plaza on Fifth avenue in New York City. The following program is announced for the recital:

- "Rondo Capriccioso".....Mendelssohn
- "La Cathedral Engloutie".....Debussy
- Prelude.....Debussy
- Desir.....Scriabine
- Concert study.....MacDowell
- II
- Valsa A-minor.....Chopin
- Prelude B flat minor.....Chopin
- "Mazurka".....Chopin
- "Study on the Black Keys".....Chopin
- "The Hardy-Gurdy Man".....Chopin
- .....Eugene Goossens
- "March of the Wooden Soldiers".....Eugene Goossens
- "ephisto Valse".....Liszt
- III
- "Sonetto del Petrarca".....Liszt
- Hungarian rhapsody No. 10.....Liszt

The Woman's Republican Study club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. M. Brown, 1940 Center street, for the regular meeting. Mrs. Brown, vice president, is in charge of the meeting in the absence of Mrs. C. P. Bishop, who left Wednesday for Pendleton.

The popular comic opera, "Pinafore," will be given by the music perfection of the ensemble. With an almost daily practice, the quartet keeps in the finest of trim. The program offered is an especially attractive one, as is that offered by the glee club.

The club has just returned from a successful concert tour in western Washington, arriving as far north as Vancouver, B. C. The local program will be substantially the same as that given on the two trips.

It is also interesting to note that the Willamette glee club has been asked, together with the ladies' glee club, to give the dedicatory rendition of "The Circuit Rider" on the 19th of this month.

very thing meaning much for the perfection of the ensemble. With an almost daily practice, the quartet keeps in the finest of trim. The program offered is an especially attractive one, as is that offered by the glee club.

The club has just returned from a successful concert tour in western Washington, arriving as far north as Vancouver, B. C. The local program will be substantially the same as that given on the two trips.

It is also interesting to note that the Willamette glee club has been asked, together with the ladies' glee club, to give the dedicatory rendition of "The Circuit Rider" on the 19th of this month.

department of the high school next Friday evening in the high school auditorium. A selected chorus of sixty voices will be used. The story of "Pinafore" has as a background the clever satire on the British navy, which was so effectively written by Gilbert. The tuneful music was written by Sullivan. The melodies are known almost the world around and have never grown old.

Clever lads and lassies are busily engaged with the character studies and interpretations. Sir Joseph Porter, ruler of the queen's navy, will be impersonated by Charles Anderson, bass, whose voice is unusually rich and deep. "Captain Corcoran" of the "Pinafore" will be sung by Gene Parmentier. Josephine, the captain's daughter, who is in love with a humble sailor lad, will be effectively sung by Mary McCrone, whose soprano voice, is unusually sweet. Maude Gwynne sings the part of "Buttercup" with vocal ease and displays splendid characterization. Peter Foelki is impersonating Dick Deadeye, the treacherous and hated sailor with unusual understanding and talent. The boatswain's part will be taken by Manning Boss. One of the finest voices to be heard will be Ronald Craven, the humble sailor lad, who has a tenor voice of beauty and promise. Minor parts will be taken by Helen Marcus, William Sippell, and others.

The opera is under the direction of Lela Belle Tartar.

department of the high school next Friday evening in the high school auditorium. A selected chorus of sixty voices will be used. The story of "Pinafore" has as a background the clever satire on the British navy, which was so effectively written by Gilbert. The tuneful music was written by Sullivan. The melodies are known almost the world around and have never grown old.

Clever lads and lassies are busily engaged with the character studies and interpretations. Sir Joseph Porter, ruler of the queen's navy, will be impersonated by Charles Anderson, bass, whose voice is unusually rich and deep. "Captain Corcoran" of the "Pinafore" will be sung by Gene Parmentier. Josephine, the captain's daughter, who is in love with a humble sailor lad, will be effectively sung by Mary McCrone, whose soprano voice, is unusually sweet. Maude Gwynne sings the part of "Buttercup" with vocal ease and displays splendid characterization. Peter Foelki is impersonating Dick Deadeye, the treacherous and hated sailor with unusual understanding and talent. The boatswain's part will be taken by Manning Boss. One of the finest voices to be heard will be Ronald Craven, the humble sailor lad, who has a tenor voice of beauty and promise. Minor parts will be taken by Helen Marcus, William Sippell, and others.

The opera is under the direction of Lela Belle Tartar.

Mrs. Otto Hoppe was a charming hostess at bridge and afternoon luncheon on Thursday, inviting guests to make up four tables of bridge. The decorative scheme was pink and white, the flowers used being roses and narcissus. Mrs. J. H. Evans and Mrs. J. P. Mollentop assisted about the rooms. High score for the afternoon went to Mrs. William Perlick. Mrs. Gerge Nelson won low. Mrs. Oscar Zellar assisted the hostess in the serving. Mrs. Hoppe's guest-group for the afternoon included: Mrs. George Nelson, Mrs. Oral Lemmon, Mrs. Earl Paulsen, Mrs. Reed Rowland, Mrs. Ascar Zeller, Mrs. Armin Berger, Mrs. Earl Daue, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. J. H. Jennings, Mrs. D. C. Ramseyer, Mrs. William Perlick, Mrs. Herbert Plank, Mrs. Merrill Ohling, Mrs. Eugene Eckerlin Jr., Mrs. Carl Mason, and Mrs. Lawrence Imiah.

Miss Mildred Gill was hostess on Thursday evening for the pleasure of Mrs. Whitney Gill (Ruth Schultz), who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Schultz, for several weeks. The middle of April Mrs. Gill plans to join her husband at Willows, Calif. For the informal evening bridge and mah jongs were played. The guests were: Miss Bernice Bright, Miss Dorothy Patterson, Miss Jeannette Meredith, Miss Grace Huphreys, Mrs. Karle Becke, Miss Ruth Gill, and Miss Mildred Gill.

The Civic Music club concert to be given by the winners of the competitions will take place during Music week, the date and place to be announced later. The professional programs will be heard early in May.

A program of outstanding interest was heard Friday afternoon at the Presbyterian church when more than a hundred and twenty-five women of the Foreign Missionary society gathered to hear Mrs. Fred Neal speak on her experiences as a medical worker in West Africa. Mrs. Neal is now home on furlough. Mrs. Robertson contributed musical numbers for the pleasure of the afternoon. A tea hour followed the program. Mrs. Roy Klein, as head of the hostess group, was assisted by Mrs. A. O. Condit, Mrs. G. E. Allen, Mrs. H. E. Barrett, and Mrs. E. A. Kelly. A large number of out-of-town women were in attendance.

Mrs. and Mrs. R. P. Boise left yesterday from Portland for New York. They plan to sail for Europe next Saturday, taking passage.

Table de Hote Dinner $1.00

Sunday, April 6

Fresh Orange Cocktail or Chicken a la Sontag, Consomme' Au Celery

Choice of

Cauliflower Salad, French Dress'ng, Fresh Shrimp Salad en Mayonnaise, Waldorf Salad, Whipped Cream

Choice of

New York Sirloin Steak Mushroom Sauce, Chicken Fricassee with Steamed Dumplings, Baked Sugar Cured Ham Robert Sauce, Roast Leg of Spring Lamb Fresh Mint Sauce, Stuffed Baked Young Chicken Currant Jelly, Prime Ribs of Eastern Steer Au Jus, Snow Flake Potatoes or Southern Sweets, Creamed Fresh Asparagus

Dessert

Choice of P'e, French Pastry, Jello, Pineapple, Nut Sundae, Ice Cream or Sherbert

Tea Coffee Milk or Chocolate

Also a la Carte Service for those who do not care for a full-course Dinner.

SMART WRAPS AND SUITS TO WELCOME SPRING WEATHER

Entirely new and generally becoming are these Distinctive Coats and Suits

COATS

Of the new Teddy Bear cloth cleverly made in three-quarter lengths lead the parade for afternoon wear.

Dressy Poiret Twills featuring the back ripples and side panels trimmed with silken braid and colorful embroidery is the very latest in evening coats.

SUITS

Tailored on mannish lines from mannish materials such as unfinished worsteds, tweeds, basketweaves, velours and poiret twills. Two button, three button and double breasted four button models. One's wardrobe is hardly complete without one of these suits for afternoon wear.

Shipley's