his exemption he pays a progressive tax. The non-resident stockholders pays nothing, and the plaintiff is penalized in the sum of $130 for having non-resident stockholders. Put it another way. Suppose the corporation is a very large one with mostly non-resident stockholders and its taxable income exceeds $12,000. It will be punished in the sum of 6 per cent on all of its income in excess of $12,000 paid to non-residents. If, however, its stockholders are all residents, it pays no tax. If the corporation is a non-resident doing business in the state it may deduct dividends paid residents, but not non-residents. This is a discrimination against a corporation's having non-resident stockholders and violates the federal constitution.

Contentions of Plaintiff

The plaintiff in the case contended that the act was void in that it violates section 1 of the 14th amendment to the constitution of the United States, in that it abridges the privileges and immunities of citizens of the United States; that it deprives plaintiff of its property without due process of law, and operates so as to deny to persons within the state equal protection of the law; that it violates article 9, section 1, of the state constitution requiring all taxes levied and collected under general laws to operate uniformly throughout the state. It was also alleged that the act violates article 1, section 32 of the state constitution, requiring taxation to be uniform upon the same class of subjects within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax. It was averred further that the act is an attempt to levy a direct tax on property outside the state.

Kelso Timber Wolves Play Here Week-End

Saturday will see the official opening of the Salem Senator's baseball season, when the all-salaried Kelso, Wash., team plays the first of a two-game series with the locals, with a possibility of a third game on Monday. This will be decided upon after the second game. The Senators give promise of being the best team that has ever represented the city.

Completion of the entire schedule will be made in the next few weeks, Biddle Bishop, manager, announced Wednesday. Only first-class teams will be brought to Salem this year, and the partial schedule includes the Fulton Athletic club of Portland here April 30; the Meiji university team of Japan the same day, with the possibility of a double-header for Easter, and the Eastern & Western team of Portland here May 4.

Inner Working of Army Is Not Generally Known

Little is known of the inner workings of the Salvation army or of the vast amount that is done that is not brought to public notice on account of its delicate nature and the hope that the victims of their own weaknesses may be made to see the error of their ways and like the prodigal, "come to themselves." The prison work of the Salvation army is far-reaching in that it brings hope to mothers when their wayward children are being ministered to by the faithful workers of this organization. At a big prison conference in the east when nearly all the different church workers were represented the question was asked of the Salvation army officer regarding its prison work: Does the Salvation army have for its object the changing of the men's religion?

The answer was clear and plain. "The Salvation army does not want to change men's religion, but it wants to make men's religion change them."

Ensign Holbrook further says that having the men's industrial home at Portland has been a fine thing for the work of salvaging these outcasts to society, as when a man has paid the penalty for his crime many times he claims he is forced into it again by having no place to go. Staff Captain Paul Heisinger, who has the social and industrial divisions under his direction, has cooperated in every way possible with the Salem corps of the Salvation army.

Two-Act Satire Will Be Student Play Friday

With a chorus of 60 of the best voices in high school, "H.M.S. Pinafore," a two-act satire on the English navy, will be presented under the auspices of the student body at the high school auditorium Friday night under the direction of Miss Lena Belle Tartar. Included in the cast are the students who helped Salem win two cups at the state musical tournament at Forest Grove last week. The satire is divided into two acts, both of which are laid upon the "Pinafore." The first is at noon and the second at night.

Leads in the production are being taken by Mary McCrone, as Josephine, the captain's daughter; Maude Gwynne, as Little Buttercup, a bombast woman; Gene Parmenter, as Captain Corcoran, commanding the "Pinafore"; Roland Craven as Ralph Tackstraw, an able seaman and Charles Anderson as Sir Joseph Porter, KCB. Others in the cast are Peter Peck, as Dick Deadeye, an able seaman; Manning Bross as Bill Bobstay, boatswain's mate; Lloyd Arnold, as Bob Beckett, carpenter's mate; William Sipprell, as Tom Tucker, a midshipman, and Helen Marcus, as Hebe, a first cousin to Sir Joseph.

Salem Volleyball Team Will Play in Portland

The Salem YMCA will enter a volleyball team of six at the state tournament in Portland some time in May. It was announced yesterday by R. R. Boardman, physical director at the YMCA. The local team will compete with others from Eugene, Portland, Astoria and Boise, Idaho. An inter-state volleyball contest will be staged during the Rose festival, and probably will be played by teams from Portland and Seattle.

Members of the YMCA are now trying out for positions on the team that will make the trip to Portland. The team will be captained by William Hertzog. Those in the volleyball class who are seeking berths on the regular lineup are Dr. L. E. Barrick, Acton, Carl Wenger, Heilborn, Rev. Blaine Kirkpatrick, F. McIntyre, C. McClellan, Byron Wright, Dr. Moorehouse, Lloyd Rigdon and O. J. Hull.

Pickling Plant Erected in Salem By C. J. Pugh

Organization of a pickling plant for Salem has been effected by C. J. Pugh, former superintendent of the Producers Canning & Packing company, and he is now seeking contracts for the purchase of cucumbers. While it is planned to build this year, if suitable property is not available a lease will be taken upon other property. Negotiations for a plant site are now under way. With Mr. Pugh will be associated several local business men who are putting capital into the venture, but he will handle the business by himself. Dilla and some salt tops will be handled this summer, with the expectations of working up some brands during the winter. Some fruit may also be barreled. Under contracts offered by Mr. Pugh No. 1's will be purchased at $70 a ton; No. 2's $35 and for No. 3's $38. Cash will be paid on delivery.

Willamette Debaters Meet WSC Here Tonight

Willamette will again uphold the world court on the collegiate debate platform here tonight when Robert Notson and Ward Southworth meet the logicians of Washington State college. Although strong opposition is expected from the Washington debaters the local men are confident that their opposition will be overcome. The Willamette victory bell is acquiring new and very satisfactory habits. Last week it rang twice, first to announce the debate victory over Michigan Agricultural college and later to proclaim the victory of Leland Chapin, Willamette orator, in State Oratorical contest. Last Monday it announced the victory of the local debaters over Whitman college.

With considerable argument added to their affirmative case since their last two contests, Willamette will tonight have a formidable case in favor of American participation in the world court. The specific question is "Resolved: That the United States should enter the World Court under the Harding reservations."

One week from tonight the locals are to have their last debate of the season here when they again defend the world court against the criticism of the University of Southern California debaters. The debate, tonight will be held in the university chapel and will begin at 8 o'clock.

It is now possible to get vaccinated against almost everything except golf.

PORTLAND AGAIN LOSES TO SEALS

Eckert and Lennon Mere Batting Practice for Frisco Sluggers

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—The Seals made it two straight from Portland today, winning 12 to 4. Eckert and Lennon proved little more than batting practice for the home team. Eckert was retired in the sixth when he gave three doubles in a row. Portland's four scores came in the ninth when Mitchell eased up and allowed four hits.

SACRAMENTO, April 9.—Ken Penner, former Solon but now drawing his pay check from Eddie Maier, had the satisfaction of turning in a 6 to 4 triumph over his former playmates at Moreing field this afternoon. This, notwithstanding the fact of Penner having been chased from the mound through a belated rally staged by Sacramento in the 8th inning. Costly errors by McGinnis and Rohwer gave the Tiger Cubs three unearned runs in the eighth and clinched the combat.

SENATE TO PROBE MONTANA CHARGES

Wheeler Indictment Ordered Investigated By Solon's Colleagues

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Immediate investigation of charges which led to the indictment of Senator Wheeler, democrat, Montana, by a federal grand jury in his own state yesterday was ordered today by the senate.

Action came after an impassioned address by the prosecutor of the Daugherty committee, delivered before a crowded chamber and galleries and expressions of confidence by his colleagues.

Senator Wheeler denounced the charges brought against him as false and the indictment as a deliberate "frameup." He assured the senate there was not a scintilla of evidence to support them and defied his enemies to produce such evidence.

Then striking back vigorously, the Montana senator declared he was not to be intimidated; that he had fought corruption during a stormy political career in his own state and would continue to fight it in Washington regardless of his own personal fortunes. Announcing that he sought no sympathy from his colleagues and was perfectly able to make his own fight, Senator Wheeler pleaded with the senate to put an end to what he characterized as a "spy" system designed to intimidate United States senators.

NO VOTE REACHED
WASHINGTON, April 9.—The senate failed again today to reach a vote on the question of Japanese exclusion, one of the two big fighting points in the immigration bill. After four hours of debate, it was announced that the measure would be laid aside tomorrow for the consideration of the Norris super-power bill and the independent offices appropriation bill.

PASSENGER TRAFFIC BANNED BY ARIZONA

Persons Entering From California Not Permitted to Enter State

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—No passengers on trains entering Arizona from California on and after April 11 will be allowed to leave the train while it is in the state of Arizona, as a precaution against the spread of the foot and mouth disease, it was announced here today by the Southern Pacific company.

The company said that the order was issued by the state of Arizona and applied to all railroads. The order will mean stoppage of the sale of tickets in California to Arizona points until such time as the restriction is suspended.

The afternoon newspapers published copious excerpts from the report. The extreme nationalist Deutsche Zeitung, is greatly disappointed; it characterizes General Daves' letter as distinctly anti-German, and pro-French.

LONDON, April 9.—(By The Associated Press)—That the plan of the committee of experts should prove unacceptable to Germany is unbelievable to British officials who expressed their opinion on the subject today.

They qualified this opinion, however, with the reservation that one never could tell whether Ger-
