Nutritious? Doctors say it is!

The business of food is body building. The better food is the bigger builder, and right here we think of bacon—Frye's "Delicious" Brand Bacon.

Doctors tell us that this delightful breakfast dish is rich in nourishment and is easily digested. Because of this they especially recommend that bacon be served to school children.

Look for this label when you go to your grocer's or market. You'll see it on the wrapper and burned into the rind—it's a safe guide to uniform quality. And Frye's "Delicious" Brand Ham is just as good as the Bacon. Both are prepared only from tender young grain fed porkers, and the special Frye process keeps in all the goodness while the curing is so mild that parboiling is unnecessary.

Buy Ham and Bacon by this Brand Name. You'll find them "Everything the Name Implies."
