HARD-HITTING SENATORS WIN

Oswego Club of Interstate League Defeated by Salem Sunday 7 to 2

After a little threadbare playing in the early part of the game, the Salem Senators got themselves together and registered another scintillating victory Sunday, this time over the Oswego team of the Interstate league. The score was 7 to 2.

Wayne Barham again pitched better ball Sunday than any Coast league hurler has been capable of doing for two or three years past, and after the Senators settled down his support was all that could be asked.

Baird at first and Bishop at third each erred once in his first inning, but the bobbies were not costly.

In Salem's half of the first the Senators made five runs. The onslaught started when Miller, first up for Salem, was passed by F. Jacobberger, the Oswego pitcher. Bishop sacrificed him to second.

Wilkerson was thrown out at first, Miller going to third on the play. Now there occasionally appears in the Salem line-up one Spee Keene.

Keene got a good one, smacked the old apple on the kisser and it dropped over the fence for a homer, also scoring Miller. Baird, next up, drew a pass.

Schackman singled, advancing Baird to second. Proctor whacked a grounder down to H. Jacobberger at second base, who let it go by. The same ball went through B. Jacobberger's right field. Baird scored on Schackman's second, and Proctor to second. Edwards singled, scoring Schackman and Proctor. Barham fled out to H. Jacobberger.

The second inning was scoreless, the Oswego players going out in one, two, three order. For Salem Miller was safe on an error by Garbarino, the Oswego's shortstop, who threw wildly to first, and Bishop singled, advancing Miller to third, but the side was out before a score was made.

Oswego's first score was in the third inning after two were down. B. Jacobberger and F. Jacobberger fled out to Proctor and Wilkerson respectively. Garbarino singled and took second when a Salem outfielder was unable to recover the ball quickly enough when it bounded off the fence. Proctor failed to handle a grounder from V. Jacobberger's bat, and Garbarino crossed the plate. Oswego retired when Shipley fanned. Salem did not score in its part of the third, though Proctor was passed, Barham singled and Bishop was passed.

In the fourth Oswego's first three men up were put out pronto. Gebhardt flying out to Miller, Wessling going out on strikes and H. Jacobberger going down by Baird unassisted. Salem's last two runs came in this inning. After Keene had gone down H. Jacobberger to Gebhardt, Baird singled, when up comes Mr. Schackman and clouts the ball over the outfield wall.

There was no more scoring until the seventh when Headrick, who went into the game in place of Fox in center field for Oswego, celebrated his first trip to bat by knocking the ball over the fence.

Proctor, Miller and Baird pulled two brilliant double plays during the game. In the first inning Shipley was safe on Bishop's error. Gebhardt sent a hard grounder to Proctor who tossed Shipley out to Miller who was covering second. Miller whipped the ball to Baird at first, nipping Gebhardt.

The other double by this trio was in the eighth. F. Jacobberger had singled when V. Jacobberger hit one in Proctor's direction. The Salem second-sacker scooped it up and tossed out F. Jacobberger at second, Miller again shooting the ball to Baird in time to catch V. Jacobberger.

Silverton Hopes to Have Baseball Team in Field

SILVERTON, Ore., April 28.—(Special to The Statesman.)—Only a few baseball fans turned out to the meeting called for Sunday morning at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. This, it is said, was not due to lack of interest as much as to the time chosen for the meeting. According to those who knew: material at Silverton. There are the Lane brothers as batters, Kindall as first baseman, Jensen and Beebe as second and third respectively, with Phil MacMorse as shortstop. The fielders have as yet not been chosen. The baseball men will meet again during this week to complete organization and the team is endeavoring to get a game for Sunday. Due to the lateness of the season many of the teams are already scheduled ahead but the Silverton players state their willingness to take on any of the Willamette valley teams, with the possible exceptions of a few of the large teams, which the Silverton does not, due to lack of practice, feel up to playing at the present time.

The Pickards Sell a Bull in Florida—Great Record

Arrangements are being made for shipping a young bull from the Pickard farm, Marion, to the Southern States Lumber company, Pensacola, Fla. He has been sold for $1750. The Pickards have a small herd of Jerseys, but have the record for prices secured for bulls sold. They sold three bulls, the offspring of one cow, for a total of $20,000. They own the world's highest record Jersey cow.

Not only did they breed this cow, but they bred her mother, her sire, her sire's mother, and her mother's mother. As constructive breeders their record is unequalled.

When the modern speaks of a natural schoolgirl complexion, he is thinking of the fourth grade.

Spring Gridiron Dinner Spares Not Politicians

WASHINGTON, April 28.—For entertainment at its spring dinner tonight, the gridiron club of Washington newspaper correspondents held a national political convention with music. It was replete with a hodge-podge of song and satire in which no political party was spared. The Republican nomination was accorded to President Coolidge but the Democratic standard bearer proved to be the most famous dark horse in history—"the man in the iron mask". The gridiron singers sang the keynote of the dinner to the tune of "sixty seconds every minute: "We do not intend to show a picture done in oil: "We've turned that one to the wall: "We'll display, instead, a good old portrait time can't spoil, "One that smiles upon us all, "Smiling still through all this stricture "Is your Uncle Sammy's picture— "It's a portrait cannot soil."

Billy Confesses!

cult who enter gaily, madly into the worship of each pet selfishness or sugar-coated brutality were shown as falling always to find a worth while object or reward for their devotion to the idolatrous temple worship. Even the worshippers of religious formalism and iron-bound creeds were pictured as having set up man-made idols that were as false and as destructive as the vilest shns, for they drive away the children who should grow up in goodness, and become athletes or haters of the cruel or grotesque gods set up by their parents.

The theater, fashions, the dance, cards, sex, strong drink and all the vicious things that destroy spiritually and take deadly toll of the life that should be normal instead of being crazed with one selfish desire, were pictured in vivid fashion. Even over-eating was characterized as an idolatry that would be punished by death. Dr. Kellogg, the Grand Rapids health specialist, told the evangelist that 95 per cent of the patients who come to him for patching up their wickedly abused bodies come from over-eating.

"So many starve their souls to feast their bodies, like animals for the slaughter," she said. "I don't see how people can call themselves loyal American citizens or Christians and still pride themselves in breaking the laws for prohibition," said the speaker. "One can't be a good Christian without being a good citizen; one can't be a good citizen without being a Christian."

The breaking of the highest laws of sex, and the prostitution of pure, undefiled love to the basis of lewdness and lust, was characterized in the strongest terms as a sin against the children yet to be.

"It isn't the dance itself, but the devilish, unclean fascination of sexuality run riot that is harmful. When the mothers of the next generation have given up their all to the god of unbridled sex, the little children are going to have evil days, indeed."

The evening sermon was on "The Prodigal Son," a study from a different angle than usually preached upon. "He was a fool, a selfish pig, a brutal forgetter of obligations, but he was brave, and he had the courage and the decency to repent," said the speaker. The sermon was the first of two companion addresses, the second being given on Monday night on "The Elder Brother."

VISITS SCHOOLS

Mrs. Mary Fulkerson, county superintendent of schools, visited the Donald and Butteville schools yesterday.

MONDAY NIGHT SERMON DRAWS HUGE CROWD

(Continued from page 1.) getting some delightfully efficient work from them on every occasion. There is little time for practice outside of the regular services, but enough songs were taken up during the first week to spread well through the whole series. The choir now has two violins and a cornet, besides the two pianos and the two trombones, and the instruments have added greatly to the steady carrying power of the music.

Mrs. Demarest is to be the guest of the Rotary club Wednesday noon. This morning at 10:30 she is to speak at the high school. She is to go to the boys' industrial school next Tuesday noon, and will probably visit the Month normal Wednesday of next week. She gives the second of her lecture series to women only, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the tabernacle. This is on the general subject of love and marriage, though she announces that she will discuss a wide range of sub-topics such as divorce, the Poodle-dog woman, flirtation, and other topics that have to do with human and divine relationships. She has some keen humor, a heroic, splendid hatred of hypocrisy and sham, a beautiful love for the things that are lovely and true and trying to be good—and the whole series of sermons, club talks and lectures promise to make a profound impression on Salem.
