SHADOW

Why do I think of it now at all, How bare someday will be the wall

Where clematis creeps with purple bloom? Why do I think of this lonely room.

As I saw it last night? And why do I cry At the wistful knowledge that I am I?

Why do I wake in the fitful light And long for the orchard all through the night?

Why do I think of the things that pass Quicker than shadows on the grass,

When the hour is flawless with crystal sun, And I've had this day, this golden one!

ONE of the most attractive affairs of the season is scheduled for this afternoon when Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, and Mrs. Roy H. Mills will preside as hostesses at formal tea at the C. K. Spaulding residence. Three hundred and fifty invitations have been issued for the affair which will take place between the hours of 2:30 and 5 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Kay are expected home today following a trip to southern Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Kay were present at the opening of the Robert A. Booth bridge at Roseburg.

Professor W. E. Kirk is in receipt of a very interesting letter from Miss Mabel Rentfro of Camas Prairie, Montana, announcing that she has just been granted the James A. Woolson Graduate scholarship to Radcliffe college, Boston. Since there were only nine graduate scholarships and fellowships granted, Miss Rentfro counts herself very fortunate to have received this honor. Miss Rentfro, the daughter of Professor and Mrs. J. L. Rentfro, formerly of Salem, graduated from the Salem high school with the class of 1920. She earned her university degree in three years, attending Willamette university and later the University of Idaho from which she graduated last June.

Girls! Say Good-bye to Dull Yellowish Teeth

New Safe Liquid and Special Paste Whitens Stained Teeth — Instantly

Every man admires personal daintiness in the fair sex. But no girl can be truly dainty and charming with dull yellowish teeth. Bleachodent Combination costs only few cents and whitens teeth instantly, at home. Leaves teeth flashing white, lustrous and clean. Contains mild safe liquid which loosens and softens stains—and a special paste which gently removes them. Works instantly. Quicker, surer, safer than old scouring methods which injured enamel. Money instantly refunded if not delighted with first application. WARNING: Don't accept cheap liquid imitations. Always insist on genuine Bleachodent Combination, the SAFE treatment. For sale by all good druggists.

The Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet in the church parlors at 2:30 o'clock, Thursday instead of on Friday. The meeting will be tomorrow in order that the members of the society may attend the lecture at the tabernacle which Mrs. Demarest will give for women only on the subject "Love and Marriage." Mrs. George Brown is chairman of the committee in charge of the Thursday meeting.

Judge and Mrs. Charles A. Johns are expected to arrive tomorrow in Seattle from Manila. They will spend some time yet visiting with friends before coming to Salem.

The meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society of the First Congregational church, which was to have been held this Friday at the home of Mrs. G. G. Brown has been postponed until next week.

Sara Jane Knight, granddaughter of Mrs. B. J. Miles, returned today to her home in Portland following a few days' visit here. Mrs. Miles was the guest during last week at the Will Knight home.

Chapter G of the PEO sisterhood will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. C. Parr on the Portland road.

The Women's society of the First Baptist church, instead of meeting today will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The sudden postponement comes with the announcement of the funeral services for Miss Ruth Cooley.

The Women's Missionary society of the First Christian church will hold an all day meeting on Friday. An interesting group of guests will be present for the occasion including Mrs. M. H. Kendall, of McMinnville, state president of the society; Mrs. Blanche Paul, of Falls City, district secretary; and Mr. and Mrs. Byerlee, returned missionaries from Africa, Mrs. Byerlee having been a former Salem girl. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon. The Missionary trio, including Mrs. Dot Humphreys, Miss Dorothy Taylor and Mrs. Dorothy Taylor, will sing. The main part of the time will be taken up with appropriate talks from the guests. The meeting which opens at 10:30 a. m. will adjourn at an early hour in order that the women may attend Mrs. Demarest's lecture.

Miss Beatrice Shelton last night presented twelve junior piano pupils in delightful recital. The affair was invitational. The Polyhymnal sextet gave assisting numbers.

Miss Mabel Robertson invited guests for an informal supper party at 7 o'clock Sunday evening at her home. Spring flowers were used about the rooms. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Mr. H. B. Tronson, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Colonel W. E. Bartrum and the hostess, Miss Robertson.

Eleven local Daughters of the American Revolution attended the silver tea given yesterday afternoon by the Sarah Childers, Polk

RED PEPPERS END RHEUMATIC PAIN IN FEW MINUTES

When you are suffering with rheumatism so you can hardly get around just try Red Pepper Rub and you will have the quickest relief known.

Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers. Instant relief. Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Frees the blood circulation, breaks up the congestion—and the old rheumatism torture is gone.

Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, costs little at any drug store. Get a jar at once. Use it for lumbago, neuritis, backache, stiff neck, sore muscles, colds in chest. Almost instant relief awaits you. Be sure to get the genuine, with the name Rowles on each package.—Adv.

chapter at the home of Mrs. C. V. Sundburg in Dallas. Members of the McMinnville chapter were also guests of the day. Mrs. Seymour Jones, state regent, gave a talk, following the topic "The History of the Organization of the Daughters of the American Revolution." Mrs. Warren of McMinnville sang during the afternoon. A piano solo was also given. The spacious home was attractive with a profuse arrangement of Portuguese lilies. Those motoring over were: Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Elmo White, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. Harry Styles, Mrs. F. C. Dyer, Miss Applegate, Mrs. J. W. Harbison, Mrs. Holmstrom and Mrs. W. E. Hansen.

The Rappaherian club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elmo White, 1465 Oxford street. Mrs. Otto Wilson will be a joint hostess with Mrs. White.

"Oregon Poets' number" interestingly designates the May issue of the Overland Monthly, which, published in California, was founded in 1888 by Bret Harte. Fourteen Oregon poets are represented in the issue. Almost half of the group are from Salem. The local verse-writers are: Clara Virginia Barton; Gertrude Robinson Ross, Viola Price Franklin, Ruth Fargo, Audred Bunch, Perry Prescott Reigelman, and Jay Roderic De Spain. Others represented include: Mary Carolyn Davies, Grace E. Hall, Ellinor L. Norcross, Emma Bennett Miller, Verne Bright, Eleanor Allen, Mildred Hudson Ammons and Howard McKinley Corning. Mrs. Barton's delightful stanza, "Oregon," appears at the top of the "Page of Verse." Mrs. Fargo is included on the page with "I Love You"; Gertrude Robinson Ross with "A Song for Barbara Blomberg"; and Mr. Reigelman with "The Magic Carpet." Mrs. Fargo is represented with two poems, the second one being "Shadows." Appearing throughout the magazine are: "College Memories," by Viola Price Franklin; "Foreboding," by Audred Bunch, and "The Unforgotten Fool" by Jay Roderic De Spain. Among the department contributions Mrs. Franklin has in the same number an essay of appreciation entitled "With Oregon Writers."

Miss Helen Gatke, Miss Frances Hodge, and Mrs. Paul Todd motored to Portland Monday to attend the concert at the auditorium.

Mrs. J. A. Churchill, chairman of the applied education department of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, will entertain delightfully at luncheon at 1 o'clock tomorrow, inviting the members of her department to be guests. The group will include: Mrs. A. J. French, Carlton; Miss Elizabeth K. Matthews, Oak Grove; Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Salem; Mrs. Suzanne Holmes Carter, Jacksonville; Mrs. G. A. Johnson, Portland; Mrs. George McMathand, Portland; Mrs. Margaret B. Goodall, Eugene; Miss Moselle Hair, University of Oregon; Miss Alice Hanley, Medford; Mrs. W. H. McClain, Hood River; Mrs. C. H. Marsh, Pendleton; and Miss Jessie Newcomb, of Oregon Agricultural college, Corvallis.

The annual convention of the Women's Home Missionary society is in session today at Dallas. The conference opened yesterday at the First Methodist church. A number of local women are taking part in the programs.

An altogether creditable program was given at the Portland auditorium Monday evening when six glee clubs of Northwest college and universities met in contest. Willamette university, placing second, was represented by 17 men. The maximum of 23 sang in the winning club. WSC Professor E. W. Hobson, directed the local group. The program follows:

RICKEY

A very badly needed two-room schoolhouse was voted down Friday night at a special meeting. It was quite a disappointment to those who have moved into the community in recent years as these people are, with almost no exception, progressive and interested in education. The present schoolhouse, when built 58 years ago, was one of the best, if not the best, in the county, but is now too small, not modern, and school conditions are about the poorest in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Harris were Salem visitors Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Nicholson and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Smith and daughter of Scotts Mills were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gray Sunday.

Mrs. C. Gesner visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Binogal celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary last Tuesday with a family party. As an appropriate present Mr. Binogal presented his wife with a Ford coupe.
Mr. and Mrs. D. Fryalle were Salem visitors Saturday afternoon. Auburn school won the ball game from Rickey Friday, 13 to 7, on the Rickey diamond. Both teachers and most of the pupils came over to watch the game.
