OVER two hundred and fifty maids and matrons of Salem society thronged the attractive C. K. Spaulding home, 965 Court street, yesterday afternoon between the hours of 2:30 and 5:30 o'clock, with Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. Roy H. Mills and Mrs. Lewis Griffith presiding as hostesses at formal tea.

Greeted at the door by Miss Roberta Mills and Miss Ila Mills, the guests were received by the hostesses, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. Griffith, Mrs. Walter Spaulding and Mrs. Mills. Mrs. C. K. Spaulding wore a ravishing gown of lavender lace over georgette, ornamented with floral trimmings. Mrs. Mills was most attractive in deep rose with elaborate beadwork. Mrs. Griffith wore a frock of faun lace with fur. Mrs. Walter Spaulding was stunning in a costume of black georgette with cream trimmings. In the living rooms the hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. Frank G. Bowersox, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. Paul V. Johnson, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. Karl Kugel, Mrs. J. C. Griffith and Mrs. Homer Goulet.

The whole magnificent residence was open to the guests. In the lower hall the floral color scheme brought out interesting lavender, white, and lemon tones. A great bowl of plumy spirea stood at the first landing. Purple and white lilies were effectively combined with narcissus and white shrubbery sprays throughout the paneled rooms. A particularly attractive effect was that of a blue bowl containing pink bleeding heart and spirea. Hydrangea, lilacs, geraniums and pansies further decked the calling rooms.

In the dining room Mrs. Henry J. Bean, Mrs. John McCourt, Mrs. S. P. Kimball and Mrs. John H. Albert graciously dispensed tea-table hospitality. Assisting in the serving were Miss Zoe Stockton, Mrs. Henry V. Compton, Mrs. Claude Steusloff, Mrs. William Aahby, Mrs. Allan Jones, Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. Lester Barr, Mrs. Max Page and Mrs. Breyman Boise.

The table with its lovely linen and silver was centered with a wicker basket artistically tied with melrose, containing white and purple lilies, white and purple lilacs, spirea, narcissus and trailing sprays of foliage. Lavender and lemon candles in black lacquer holders were used. All through the rooms the floral appointments repeated the colors of the numberless attractive gowns of the season.

During the afternoon Franklin B. Launer played in fine manner a group of piano numbers, choosing "Crescendo," by Lassen; "Lento," by Cyril Scott, and the "Arensky and Liszt Etudes." Mrs. Martin Fereshetian sang, giving "The Song of India" in a very distinctive manner. Miss Iva Claire Love delighted with pleasing violin selections, accompanied by Miss Anna Howell.

Brown is chairman of the meeting today.
