

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Traffic Violators Fined—Speeding cost A. A. Jasper, 724 North High, $10 in the police court yesterday. He was arrested by Officer Cannon. A. D. Herbster was fined $2.50 for failure to dim his headlights.

Dance—Schindler hall, Saturday night, m-3

Flower Vandals Active—Every year vandals steal his flowers and tear the bushes, R. H. Corey, 145 South Fourteenth, complained to the police yesterday. Mr. Corey is 86 years old and takes great pride in his flowers, which are a hobby. The specimens stolen are from a certain variety, of which there are only two plants in town, one owned by Mr. Corey and the other in the Bush gardens. Mr. Corey would not mind it so much if the common varieties of flowers were stolen, but when it comes to breaking the branches of this rare species he thinks it is time to call a halt. Mr. Corey is so anxious to put a stop to the practice that he is ready to offer a substantial reward to the person who discovers the identity of the vandals.

Sees Railroad—The Southern Pacific company is made defendant in a damages suit filed yesterday by Rosa L. Browning. The plaintiff charges that a contract was made June 9, 1923 with the defendant whereby it agreed to ship her, ferris wheel and merry-go-round, from Lebanon to Portland and deliver the rides on June 12. The rides were loaded on June 10 but were not delivered in Portland until June 12 which caused loss of business to the plaintiff inasmuch as it was the time of the annual Portland Rose festival. The amount of business lost for one day is estimated at $400 and the cost of extra help needed to get the rides ready for use June 13 is placed at $66. Walter Winslow is attorney for the plaintiff.

spector, met yesterday with the county court to discuss the coming campaign against the pest. The men are keeping in close touch with the Portland campaign and as soon as earwigs are observed there, efforts will be redoubled in Salem. A few specimens, mainly old males, have been found in earwigs, and it is expected the earwigs will not be noticed in any number until June, as the young are believed to be in the egg stage at present. Through the degree court, poison will be available again this season and will be used under the direction of the county inspector.
