CHAPTER NO. 158

WHY DID DICKY STEAL MADGE?

My little prophecy concerning Katherine was promptly fulfilled. After a few hours of rest enforced by Lillian, she declared herself more than ready to begin the delicate and arduous work planned for her. Accordingly, Lillian, Katherine and I drove to Dr. Pettit's on the very evening of the day she came to us, for the arrangement of the necessary preliminaries to her hospital engagement the next day.

The tall, grave physician welcomed my little friend with more real, unaffected cordiality than I had seen in him for many months. I recalled that in the old days of my first acquaintance with Katherine, I had suspected Dr. Pettit of a tenderness toward her, but I had decided afterward that his feeling for her was simply the admiration and liking of a physician for an unusually capable and gifted nurse, who possessed besides a most attractive personality.

OLD MAN GLOOM DOWN AND OUT

Says Former Sickly Housewife Praising Korex

"The roses are back in my cheeks for the first time in four years," says Mrs. Bertha Kahn of Gadsden, Alabama. "When I commenced taking korex a week ago I couldn't sweep a floor. Last Monday I helped with my moving, handling things like a man. When I see women with that 'worn-out' look I want to say, 'take korex and get full of pop.' Korex makes the world look brighter."

Thousands are now using korex compound the world over for weakness after the flu, lessened vigor, rapid decline, premature old age, aching muscles, stiff joints and poor circulation, and many are the reports made of speedy satisfaction even in cases where other treatments had failed.

Those seeking smaller relief will be interested in learning that the American distributors of korex compound, the Melton Laboratories, at 546 Melton building, Kansas City, Mo., have arranged for korex to be sold in Capital Drug store, at 405 State street, Salem, Or. Just ask the clerk for korex compound.

E. J. ADAMS FOR DELEGATE

Mr. Adams was a delegate to the Republican National Convention of 1920. He appeared before the Committee on Resolutions of which I was a member and made an able and convincing argument in support of federal aid for roads in the states containing forest reserves. As a result of his effort in this respect, the following was incorporated in the Republican National Platform for that year:

"In determining the proportion of Federal aid for road construction among the States, the sums lost in taxation to the respective States by the setting apart of large portions of their area as forest reservations should be considered as a controlling factor."

In fulfillment of the above platform pledge, Congress enacted the Federal Highway Act approved by President Harding November 9, 1921. Since Mr. Harding became president, the following sums have been set aside by the Federal Government for highway construction in Oregon:

1921	91,756.00
1922	593,596.00
1923	1,382,067.00
1924	894,317.00
Total	$2,961,736.00

A part of these moneys would doubtless have been spent on Oregon roads in any event, but the commitment of the party and the Federal Government to the policy announced in the above plank is due to E. J. Adams more than any other man. I hope that he may be elected a delegate to the Republican National Convention this year as well.

JUDGE PETER H. D'ARCY, 1857

ment Park, a tract of 12 acres. There is also the Champoeg Memorial building, which contains many interesting relics. Twelve of the early pioneers, including Judge D'Arcy, purchased the 12-acre tract, each man putting in $100. After endeavoring for 15 years to obtain an appropriation for Champoeg, Judge D'Arcy was able to collect the necessary funds. The money was returned to the donors. In reminiscing upon the fight to obtain the appropriation, Judge D'Arcy said that the bill was the only measure that he had ever lobbied while a member of the state legislature.

Past president of Pioneer Association who presided as chairman of the day at the 81st anniversary of Founders' Day at Champoeg Saturday.

Foster, but the feeling for me which he had so frequently betrayed in the early years of my marriage, and which had caused me so much annoyance, and Dicky many ill-tempered hours. I knew that Lillian believed Katherine to be ignorant of Dr. Pettit's former penchant for me, or she would not have alluded to it, but I was not so sure that the keen intelligence of the little nurse had not perceived more than she had ever betrayed in those old days of close association.

Dicky Goes Riding.

I sent the car along speedily, giving but perfunctory attention to Lillian's instructions to Katherine as to her answers to Dicky's possible questions. And when we had reached home again we found Dicky ensconced on the veranda.

Dicky sprang up as we turned in the driveway and helped Lillian and Katherine out—greeting Katherine charmingly but oddly—then putting me back with a gesture, he climbed to the seat beside me.

"Pardon, girls," he called mockingly, "but I feel like a little spin, so I'm going to steal Friend Wife as a chauffeuse for a few minutes."

He settled himself beside me, and I tried to gather by scrambled wits together, for I foresaw a lengthy catechism on the subject of Katherine.

Mass Meeting at Rickreall To Enforce Prohibition Law

The motion picture film, "The Last Raid of Sheriff Kendall of Linn County," will be shown at a law enforcement mass meeting to be held in Rickreall Evangelical church on Thursday, May 8, at 8 p. m.

The entire state was shocked and astirred by the dastardly and cowardly shooting of this faithful officer. Aside from the portrayal of this scene, the film contains many other interesting and thrilling scenes, specially the raiding of a moonshiner's still.

Rev. R. E. Close, assistant superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon, will deliver an address, taking for his subject, "The Price of Victory."

The following statement has been issued by the superintendent:

Say Goodbye to dull, yellow, stained teeth! For a new harmless treatment—Bleachodent Combination—bleaches away the stains and makes teeth flashing white—often in just three minutes. Treatment consists of a mild safe liquid, which gently and softens the stains—and a new kind of paste, which gently removes the softened stains. Bleachodent Combination keeps teeth white by preventing the formation of new stains. Does not affect enamel as its mild ingredients are especially combined to act only on surface stains—not on the enamel itself. Only a safe, mild preparation like Bleachodent Combination should be used on children's teeth which are naturally soft and sensitive, and which are especially subject to stains and decay. Fine for the gums. Get Bleachodent Combination today, for few cents at all good druggists.

NATURE KIND AT PIONEERS MEETING

By actual count there were 287 automobiles present, all of which bore Oregon licenses with one exception, which was from California. Six horse-drawn vehicles were also counted. Special steamboat service brought many people up from Portland, while several Salem people made the trip to Wilsonville by the Oregon Electric, where the steamboat made connections with the railroad.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—President Coolidge late today received the soldiers' bonus bill from the senate following the completion of legislative action when President Cummins of the senate attached his signature to the measure.

COOLIDGE RECEIVES BONUS LEGISLATION

Possible Veto Forecasted By Action of Chief-Executive On Pension Bill

The measure reached the White House within a few hours after the president had sent a message to the senate announcing he had vetoed the Bursum pension bill because it would add many millions of dollars annually to the cost of government.

A reading of that message strengthened the belief long entertained by a number of senators that Mr. Coolidge will veto the bonus bill.

Whiteside will be in Salem soon. Walker Whiteside will make his fourth annual appearance in Salem on Wednesday night, May 14, at which time he will present the terrific Anglo-Chinese melodrama, "Mr. Wu."

All Fleeing Trusties Are Back in Prison

Twenty cents prevented two inmates of the state prison from crossing into Washington over the Interstate bridge Saturday morning. The pair were Jack Law and Ed Broek, who walked away from the prison farm late Thursday afternoon. They were returned to the prison about 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Law and Broek had stolen an automobile in Portland, and were headed north. The tolltaker on the bridge stopped them. They lacked the necessary cash. Deputy Sheriff Burt and Wilson of Multnomah county became suspicious at their evasive replies to questions. They checked up on the license number and found the machine had been stolen. Unable to explain possession of the automobile, the two men confessed to their identity. The owner of the machine did not know his car had been stolen until notified by the officers.

Ralph Bradley, who escaped from another work gang on April 6, has been apprehended in Nampa, Idaho, and will be returned to the prison early this week.

With the return of these three prisoners, Warden A. M. Dairymple will have all men back who have escaped with the exception of Bert (Oregon) Jones, who is being sought in southern Oregon. Jones was the ringleader in the prison break staged several weeks ago by six convicts. The other five were captured within a few days.
