BEARCATS LOSE TO IDAHO CLUB

Vandals From Moscow Defeat Willamette in Ball Game 12 to 1

The University of Idaho Vandals pounded the inexperienced Willamette Bearcats nine for a 12 to 1 victory in yesterday's game here, the feature athletic event of Willamette's May festival.

DeSart brought in the lone tally for the locals in the second inning. After hitting a two-bagger into center field he stole third and came home when Gillette, who followed him to the bat, grounded one out past the second base and got safe to first.

Willamette had little to offer in comparison to the speed and teamwork of the Vandal nine. The visitors did beautiful work in the field, permitting only four Bearcat players to land safely on first. The locals, however, played a much better game than against Whitman but are still woefully lacking in the punch that only experience can give them. Errors were frequent.

The lineup: Willamette—Ellis, p; Townner, c; Poling, 1b; Regele, 2b; Fasnacht, 3b; Moore, ss; DeSart, lf; Gillette, cf; Chapman, rf. Substitutes—Robertson for Chapman, Herman for Moore. University of Idaho—Wahl, pitcher; Kenneson, c; Campbell, 1b; Wicks, 2b; Lawson, 3b; Stevers, ss; Kleffner, lf; Cameron, cf; Fiske, rf. Substitutes—Kline for Campbell. Hits—Willamette, 4; Idaho, 11. Umpire—Mike Edwards.

PLAY MT. ANGEL

The Hoppers Colts will open the season for the Mt. Angel city team Sunday at Mt. Angel. By mistake the Colts were booked for Gervais next Sunday, but will play Mt. Angel instead.

COAST AND MAJOR LEAGUE GAMES

San Francisco 3; Vernon 2. SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—A pitchers' duel between Shea and Christian today gave the Seals a 3 to 2 victory over Vernon in 10 innings. Vernon tied the score in the seventh with Deans' home run into the left field bleachers.

Score: R. H. E. Vernon... 2 9 1 San Francisco... 3 9 1 Christian and D. Murphy; Shea and Yelle.

Salt Lake 17; Sacramento 11. SALT LAKE CITY, May 9.—Overcoming a nine-run lead, established by Sacramento in the first and third innings, Salt Lake won today's game 17 to 11.

A curious spectacle, the making of six runs with one hit, was presented by the Bees in the sixth inning. The sole hit was a homer by Witt with the bases full. Another feature was an unusual triple play, made by the locals, the last two outs being off two Sacramento players who attempted to occupy third base simultaneously, and neither succeeded.

Score: R. H. E. Sacramento... 11 14 1 Salt Lake... 17 18 2 Thompson, Vinc, Yellowhorse and Koehler; Stroud, Mulcahy, Kallio and Cook, Jenkins.

Seattle 3; Portland 2. SEATTLE, May 9.—Seattle won from the Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast league today in a pitching duel between Gregg and Leverenz, the score being 3 to 2. It was Elks day and a large crowd saw the game and the field meet between the rival players.

Seattle won in the seventh on a walk, a sacrifice and two errors. Score: R. H. E. Portland... 2 10 4 Seattle... 3 9 6 Leverenz and Daly; Gregg and Baldwin.

Oakland 5; Angels 1. LOS ANGELES, May 9.—Los Angeles dropped its tenth consecutive game, and Oakland made it four straight wins when the Oaks took today's contest, 5 to 1. A home run by Gulisto, Oak first baseman with two on base in the sixth inning, gave his Oakland team a lead the Angels were unable to overtake.

Score: R. H. E. Oakland... 5 7 2 Los Angeles... 1 6 1 Krauss and Reed; Myers, Ramsay and Billings.

Boston 10; Pittsburgh 7. PITTSBURGH, May 9.—(National.)—Five Pittsburgh pitchers were unable to turn back the Boston team in a loose game played on a field made soggy by two days' rain. The count was 10 to 7.

Score: Boston... 10 14 2 Pittsburgh... 7 13 3 Stryker, McNamara, Genewick and O'Neill; Morrison, Stone, Steineder, Lundgren, May and Gooch, Schmidt.

National—No other games scheduled.

American—Three games scheduled; all postponed, weather.

COLLEGE SPORTS

OREGON BEATS USC

EUGENE, Or., May 9.—University of Oregon won the best baseball game of the season here today from the Washington State college team by a 3 to 2 score.

Latham pitched good ball for the Oregon nine, pulling himself out of a number of tight holes with men on bases. The varsity put over the winning tally in the ninth. Cook and Latham both bunted and advanced on a wild pitch and Cook scored when Terrill, left fielder knocked the ball past short.

Score: R. H. E. Oregon... 3 7 2 USC... 2 10 2 Latham and Bliss; Otterson, Welngartner and Mitchell.

WHITMAN WINS

WALLA WALLA, Wash., May 9.—The late arrival of the Gonzaga baseball team which kept the contest from starting until more than an hour past game time apparently had a bad effect upon the fielding of the bulldogs who presented the Whitman lineup with a 4-2 victory on Ankeny field today.

Score: R. H. E. Whitman... 4 2 2 Gonzaga... 2 4 6 Beck and Walther; Gharrity and Hunton.

U. OF W. DEFEATS MONTANA

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seattle, May 9.—In a loose-played featureless nine inning contest the University of Washington team emerged victorious over the University of Montana players, 7 to 3, here today.

Score: R. H. E. Montana... 7 8 1 Washington... 3 5 1 O'Conner and Long; Morgan and Boyd.

Oregon and Washington Track Men Meet Today

EUGENE, Or., May 9.—The track and field teams of the Universities of Washington and Oregon meet Saturday in the first dual meet of the season on the Oregon field. Washington holds an edge over the Oregon team due to its strength in the weight events and the distances. The loss of Tuck, javelin hurler and weight man, has left Oregon without a consistent winner in the weights and it necessitates the placing of less experienced men in these events.

Both teams are weaker in the shorter dashes and hurdles than they were last year and it looks like tossups for the picking of a winner. In the pole vault Spearow, Oregon veteran, ought to have things his own way and with Eby and Spearow in the high jump, Oregon will give the visiting team lively competition. The Washington team arrived today and worked out on a local track for a short time.

Pitching Ruling Voids Idaho Baseball Victory

PULLMAN, Wash., May 9.—A conference baseball ruling against spitball pitching adopted this week will automatically change the victory of the University of Idaho over Washington State college three weeks ago to defeat, J. Bred Bohler, director of athletics at the state college, announced today.

"The game was played with the understanding that if a conference ruling was made on the subject, the teams would abide by the decision," Coach Bohler said.

Bankers Defeat Legion In Game Last Night

The Bankers defeated the American Legion in the Twilight league series yesterday by a score of 5 to 3. The victory was due to Weeks of the Bankers who knocked a home run that was good for two tallies. Weeks and G. Thompson were the Banker batters and Hagedorn and Pearline for the Legion.

LIFE STORY OF EVANGELIST THRILLS

his conversion was terribly genuine. Soon others of the gang followed, and they got to escorting her home after her night meetings, and finally a group came for her each evening. The strange companionship was the scandal of the town. But Graham held off, until one night she found him in a saloon. He repulsed her greeting, but later came to the meeting, where the gang held him until the evangelist could reach him. He raved and stormed, and finally sprang over the railing of the gallery into the main body of the house, to escape.

That night her escort failed her and she started home alone. She found Abraham in a saloon—he had quit the saloon utterly, but now he was discouraged over the loss of Graham. She asked him to take her home, and he did. Hours later, she was awakened by a sound out under her window. It was Graham, Abraham on one side and the peg-leg on the other, urging him that "the lady would see him, sure." She threw open the window to greet him, and quickly dressing, she brought them into the house. "It was a benediction to that clean little house, the home of a consecrated young newly married couple, to have those dirty, sinful men brought there to be converted to God," said the speaker.

When the evangelist went to another village, 18 miles away, Graham carried her trunk, the whole way, and would accept no tip or gratuity, and the woman with whom she lodged ordered who was the charming, godly man he was so courteous and so worshipful.

"Maybe you have no Lumpers here in Salem—dirty-filthy, lawless, leaping men, criminals by choice and a stench to the community; but God says that whenever you are, you must come in repentance for the sins that you have committed, pride, anger, intolerance, greed, jealousy—and lay them at the altar as the Lumpers did. A letter a few months later told that the Lumpers had secured work, and had worked so well that the employer offered them all the whiskey they could drink as gratuity. Graham who had been their ruling devil, said, 'Thank you sir, we have gone and been converted, and we don't drink whiskey any more.' You men of Salem, if you will be converted as the Lumpers did, and turn from all your sins as they did, you will be as good as they."

Such a delightful human story would be hard to equal. It was two hours long, and it would take a book to tell it all. But throughout it breathed the spirit of trust and hope, and conquest over self and sacrifice that brings spiritual riches incalculable.

When Mrs. Demarest was eight years old, her mother took her on an evangelistical tour into Belgium. A woman with a retful baby attended one of the meetings and the baby was just ready to break into a storm as the evangelist reached the crisis of the sermon. The little girl rushed home on her first impulse to get something to quiet the child. She had two playthings, a colored ball and a beautifully carved little Swiss chalet model. "I'll give the baby the ball," she said. "Give him the house," said the holy spirit as a definite command. At last she took the prized toy and gave it to the fretful baby; and the meeting was saved. "If you want to be happy, you must let your idols go," the speaker drove home. Sacrifice, sacrifice, sacrifice; love, peace, joy, were the rewards of sacrifice, as brought out in every illustration.

The tabernacle was crowded to standing room only. A good response was made to the appeal for converts.

Early in the evening a street meeting was held at State and Liberty where 36 young people sang hymns and gave public testimony. A very large crowd gathered, enough to block traffic, and all gave the singers a respectful hearing. Other such meetings are to be held during the coming week.

it up with the interior department. "I wasn't paid one cent," the witness declared with emphasis, "on any transaction before the government with reference to permits or anything else. The letters Mr. Pratt read here will confirm that statement." "The letters speak for themselves," remarked Senator Sterling. The committee adjourned until Monday without a statement from Chairman Borah as to his plan for forthcoming sessions.

AMERICAN OLYMPIC TENNIS TEAM GOOD

Strong Combination Is Selected to Represent U. S. in Net Play Abroad

NEW YORK, May 9.—America will be represented in its first attempt to lift Olympic tennis laurels by one of the strongest teams she is capable of mustering. This was revealed today when the Davis cup committee of the United States Lawn Tennis association announced that the men's team would consist of R. Norris Williams II, of Philadelphia as captain; Vincent Richards of Yonkers, N. Y., Francis T. Hunter of Beckley, W. Va., and Watson M. Washburn of New York.

The women's team, selected some time ago includes Miss Helen Hills of Berkeley, Cal., national champion; Miss Eleanor Goss, of New York; Mrs. Marion Z. Joseph, of Wilmington, Del., and Mrs. Hazel Hotchkiss Wightman of Boston as captain.

Richards was included in the men's squad after a brief controversy over his status as a player-writer. His employers consented to a leave of absence for him during the week of Olympic tennis competition July 13 to 20.

The place of William T. Tilden, of Philadelphia, national champion who withdrew from international play over the player-writer controversy has been taken by Hunter. The team thus does not include the first two ranking stars, Tilden and William M. Johnston, who was unable to accept an invitation to go, but it has the next three ranking singles experts in Williams, Richards and Hunter. Washburn ranks fifteenth, but he and Williams rank third on the pinning Rose with a split scissors.

Neighbors

MANY a house wife locks the front door out of habit—then hangs the key in plain sight. She knows her neighbors so well that her one-time fear is now trust.

Just through familiarity, your one-time fear of goods you have never tested has turned to trust too. Advertising has done that for you. It convinces you that since others believe, you also are safe in believing.

All products widely advertised are worthy of your faith. You buy from neighborly folk when you buy from their dealers.

Why not read the advertisements every day to become familiar with more advertised goods?
