The Salem Woman's club, meeting today, will formally dedicate two white birch trees on the club house grounds and the Etokta club one. A business meeting will precede the ceremonies and a tea-hour follow. Nine matrons of the club will be hostesses.

At the business meeting, which will begin at 2:30 o'clock, the annual election of officers will take place. The program will include vocal numbers and ballet, with Junette Jones Ashby, Pauline Knowland, Helen Marcus, Dorothy White and Maxine Meyers taking part.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dancy left this morning for Ashland, planning to be gone for several days.

The marriage of Agnes Jefferson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Jefferson of North Howell, and James D. Willis of Portland was solemnized Thursday afternoon at the M. E. parsonage at Salem, Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Willis will make their home near Portland.

Mrs. S. E. Keith was hostess at a 1 o'clock luncheon and shower in honor of Mrs. Norris Rogers and Mrs. E. E. Sisson at her home in Salem Heights earlier in the week. The house was effectively decorated with violets, Scotch broom and narcissus. A pretty bowl of pansies centered the table with place cards to harmonize. Covers were placed for Mrs. J. C. Tamielie, Mrs. Guy Jarrett, Mrs. Ivan Brown, Mrs. M. MacQuire, Mrs. L. B. Stone, Mrs. C. R. Newman,

Olga Gray, Clara Breitenstein, Grace Holt, Ila Spaulding Griffith and the hostess, Irene Curtis. Miss Curtis is a member of the Salem high school faculty, being at the head of the domestic art department. She attended the Oregon Agricultural college, graduating with the class of '20. Miss Curtis' sorority is Pi Beta Phi.

Chapter AB of the PEO Sisterhood will observe Mother's day Monday evening, with Dr. Mary Rowland the hostess.

The dedication of two shade trees marked the observance of Mothers' day yesterday morning at the Highland school, the ceremonies taking place at 10:30 on the school lawn.

Mrs. George J. Wenderoth, president of the Highland Parent-Teachers' association, gave the speech of presentation, speaking in an appropriate manner concerning the honoring of Mothers' day. Carl Collins, a pupil of the school, responded in a very fine manner. The singing, by the group, of "What Would We Do if There Were No Trees," followed the recitation in chorus of "What We Do When We Plant a Tree." The ceremonies closed with the presentation of a tiny nosegay of red blossoms to each mother present.

The last meeting of the season will be held May 21. Mrs. George G. Brown will be the hostess.

The news of the engagement of Miss Irene Curtis, daughter of Mrs. L. G. Curtis, to Stanley E. Allen of Portland, was announced in a delightful and intimate manner Wednesday evening at the Gray Belle. A variety of attractive spring flowers centered the table at which covers were placed for Mrs. Howard Miller, Mrs. Donald McGory, Mrs. Claude Frosser, Mrs. L. E. Hammer and Mrs. Rogers; all of McMinnville; Mrs. A. Sherwood of Newberg; Beryl Hutchens of Silverton and the hostess, Mrs. Keith.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moores are entertaining as their guests over the week-end Mrs. Robert Kinney and son Gordon, of Astoria.

Queen Kathleen and two attendants, Lady Irene and Lady Phyllis, were honored at breakfast at the Delta Phi sorority yesterday morning. A miniature may pole with dainty streamers leading to the pany-basket place cards centered the table. Covers were placed for the senior girls of the sorority and the guests of honor.

A one-thirty luncheon at the Gray Belle preceded the afternoon of cards when, during the mid-week the members of the Capitol Bridge club met at the invitation of Mrs. H. H. Olinger. Mrs. John Coughlin and Mrs. Ed Gillingham were invited guests for the day. High score went to Mrs. Milton Meyers.

The last meeting of the season will be held May 21. Mrs. George G. Brown will be the hostess.

slight admission fee will be made, the proceeds going to make up the mite-box quota. The public is especially invited to attend. A special feature of the program will be Jack Spang's magical tricks.

Miss Fern Bradley and William Hunt were quietly married Wednesday evening at 8:15 p. m. at the parsonage. Rev. R. L. Putnam officiated.

The Theta Alpha Phi, national honorary dramatic fraternity, announces the pledging of Susie Church, Ruth Hewitt, Dorothy Owen, Paloma Prouty, Saddle Jo Reed, Marian Wyatt, Ted Emmel, Wallace Griffith, James McClintock and Jack Vinson.

Miss Minna L. Harding is honorary member of the organization.

The annual banquet of the Business and Professional Woman's club will be held May 21 at the Marion hotel. It was decided at the 6:30 dinner and business meeting on Wednesday. Supt. George Hug was the speaker, discussing the Sterling-Reed bill in considerable detail, illustrating with statistics.

Parliamentary drill, led by Mrs. La Moine Clark, followed the business meeting. The June meeting will be the last one scheduled until autumn.

Twenty ladies of the First Congregational church Missionary society met yesterday afternoon for an especially enjoyable meeting at the home of Mrs. George G. Brown. Mrs. W. C. Kantner had charge of the devotions and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks of the program. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. C. H. Fake each read an article on Japan, both being given in a delightful and informing manner.

Some beautiful rhododendron sent in from the coast gave the rooms particular floral charm. Light refreshments were served. The assistant-hostesses of the day were Mrs. John Farrar, Mrs. E. A. Miller, Mrs. Eunice Parkhurst and Mrs. E. A. Miller.

Informality was the keynote of the evening when a group of 25 gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Potter, 1785 Saginaw street, on Thursday. An informal program of stunts and games added pleasure to the evening. The May-time motif was used throughout. The luncheon was served in picnic fashion from attractive May baskets passed to each guest as they seated themselves on the floor. A profusion of flowers in delicate pastel shades were used about the rooms, wisteria, tulips and iris being effectively combined. On the June club date a picnic will be held at Brush college.

Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin were among those from Salem attending the meeting of the Northwest Poetry society in Portland last evening.

Ten loyal women's class of the First Christian church held their regular meeting on Wednesday instead of on Thursday, to avoid conflict with Mrs. Demaree's third lecture. Mrs. P. M. Reed presided at the business meeting which preceded a short program. Miss Mildred Maple, accompanied by Miss Anna Howell, delighted with her vocal numbers. Refreshments were served. The hostesses of the day were Mrs. Arthur D. Welch, Mrs. Will May, Mrs. E. C. Case, Mrs. T. C. White, Mrs. E. L. Townsend and Mrs. Bert Macy. Those present were Mrs. J. C. Hunt, Mrs. F. M. Reed, Mrs. Harold T. White, Mrs. H. C. Epley, Mrs. T. C. White, Mrs. Zelma Downing, Mrs. T. B. Patton, Mrs. Estella Gabbert, Mrs. W. H. Osborne, Mrs. W. S. Birdwell, Mrs. Charles Steele, Mrs. Emma Bruntridge, Mrs. Lucila Askey, Mrs. Etta Mager, Mrs. W. A. Penney, Mrs. J. H. Crawford, Mrs. J. H. Campbell, Mrs. S. D. Doremus, Mrs. J. W. Hall, Mrs. Arthur D. Welch, Mrs. Will May, Mrs. E. C. Case and Mrs. E. L. Townsend.

A Special Purchase and Sale of Sub-Standard Qualities in Holeproof Silk Hosiery

A Super-Value Offered to Salem Women by this Store Exclusively

—Again! We offer a special buy in Holeproof Pure Thread Silk Hosiery in sub-standard or slightly defective qualities that have proven, beyond a doubt, the "most for your money"—and this means style, quality and all around desirability.

The demand for these irregulars has been so great, and the supply so limited—we sometimes await months for our "turn" to feature them.

SUB-STANDARDS OF $1.75 AND $2.00 QUALITIES

—Nearly every woman in Salem is acquainted with Holeproof Stockings. Predominating in this sale you'll find the famous "Extra-Stretch" top stockings. Their elasticity makes them especially desirable for women of lesser proportions as well as those inclined to stoutness. A snug close fitting ankle is another good feature of Holeproofs.

All sizes 8 1-2, 9, 9 1-2, 10, 10 1-2

COLORS
—PEACH
—CLOUD
—SPONGE
—CAMEL
—AIRDALE
—BEAVER
—BLACK
—WHITE

—COME EARLY! Despite the fact that we are showing hundreds of pairs, we anticipate a multitude of eager patrons ready to buy their limit of these at this ridiculously low price.

SUB-STANDARDS ARE SLIGHT DEFECTS
—The rigid inspection of Holeproofs protects you in more ways than one. It prevents the opportunity of buying sub-standards at a very low price. An irregular thread in the foot or top places them in the "sub-standard" class. Some of these are so slightly hurt that detection becomes next to an impossibility.

Mr. R. C. Glover, Salem, Or.
Dear Mr. Glover:—

You state you did not receive my letter of May 3. I mailed it to you by registered mail, special delivery, and received back the red card showing you received same.

I am sending this also by registered mail.

You speak about me being silent regarding an article printed in the Sheridan Sun some time ago. I see no questions asked me in this article. If there were I should be glad to answer them just as soon as you will meet me in open debate. And then you may question me all you like.

You further state, if you were not mistaken, I dodged into the service of a railroad soon after the war was declared and particularly endeavored to evade the draft.

To show the public as well as yourself how bad you have been mis-informed or how willfully you wish to sling mud, here are the facts.

I entered the service of the CM&S. Paul RR in Montana in November, 1925, long, long, before we thought of entering any war, and I stayed with this company or one of its subsidiary construction and electric utility companies until April 15, 1918, nearly two and one-half years.

In the middle of April, 1918, I accepted the job as a superintendent of construction for the Astoria Marine Iron Works of Astoria.

Keep still—you done got catch, An' dat's a fac'!

If you bites bitin' me I'll—bite you back!

—Roselle Mercler Montgomery.

Misplaced Sympathy
The pastor's father had been very ill for some time. A sympathetic member of his congregation, meeting him one day, asked: "And how is your father today, Dr. Devine?"

"Ah, Mrs. Brown, he has passed away. My dear father is in heaven."

"Well, that is too bad. I am very sorry to hear it," was the sympathetic reply.

Back to Earth
Archie! "Do you know, Nora, I could go on dancing like this forever."

Nora: "Why, Archie! Don't you ever wish to improve?"

The Pet Python
A Reminiscence of Dr. Traprock
I had asked my friend Traprock if he believed the story of the faithful rattle-snake who held up a burglar while he stuck his tail out of the window and rattled for the police.

"Absolutely," said the great traveler. "Do you see that snake-skin draped over the mantel? That was worn by Bettina, my pet python, whom I captured near the water hole of Rhat in the Sahara. I always use the Hindoo method in capturing reptiles, viz.: to charm them with music. I used to go out on the edge of the oasis with my harmonica and I found that Banana song went just as big with the animal kingdom as with humans. One day as I was playing it over softly I felt the plant folds of Bettina wrapping herself around me. From then on we became inseparable companions.

"She used to sleep coiled about my waist, and very useful she was too, for in this land of surprising cold nights, she took the place of a hot-water bottle admirably.

"And then came the tragedy—a fire. Fire in the desert is terrible because it is an unusual thing. In the thatched buildings which formed a court around the principal well were stored all our supplies. The roofs were of camel-hair. With our primitive equipment of skin-buckets we were terribly handicapped. If we only had a hose.

"As if reading my thoughts, Bettina crept to my feet. As plainly as a snake could, she said: 'Use me.' I hated to do it, but it was the only way. We reamed the faithful animal out with a carefully sharpened egg-beater, connected one end with the well, hooked up a bicycle pump and soon had the flames under control.

"But I can never look at that skin without my eyes filling with tears. For if ever a snake sacrificed herself for her master it was Bettina."

When there's so much cigarette smoke, there must be a debutante.
