CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Meeting at Hayesville—

The law enforcement picture, "The Last Raid of Sheriff Kendall of Linn County," will be shown at Hayesville Baptist church on Wednesday, May 14, at 8 p. m. This picture has many thrilling features such as the showing of the filthy and poisonous conditions under which "moonshine" is made, and crooked officials "tipping off" the moonshiner, and depicting a raid upon a desperate moonshiner —as thrilling as though it happened in the mountains of Tennessee.

Better Homes Week—

Special floor lamps and shades $17.95 at Hamilton's. m14

Will Be Extradited—

Governor Pierce yesterday issued an extradition for the return of William W. Fish to Lake Andes, S. D., where he is wanted on a statutory charge. He is under arrest at Toledo, Or.

Convict Caught—

Jack Murphy, who escaped from the state penitentiary several months ago, has been arrested in Ogden, Utah, and a guard from the state prison left for that place last night to bring him back. Murphy was sentenced from Hood River county to serve 18 months on a statutory charge.

Floor Lamps and Shades—

For only $17.95. This is for Better Homes week only. C. S. Hamilton. m13

Forest Scene Completed—

A huge background for the forest display at the state house has been completed by F. Ray Felker, local artist. The scene depicts a forest view, with mountains in the background. It measures 18 by 16 feet, and is emphasized by special lighting effects. Mr. Felker recently completed a series of forest scenes for the interior of the Liberty theater.

Bible Class Well Attended—

Nearly 300 persons attended the John J. Evans' Bible class for men at the Bligh theater Sunday morning, a large number of mothers and wives being present as guests for Mothers' day. An exceptionally fine address was given by Rev. Mr. Evans. Musical numbers were furnished by a woman's sextette, while Oscar Gingrich sang "Wonderful Mother of Mine," and Mr. Martin "Mother Machree." Women are invited to attend this class twice a year, once on Mothers day and again on Armistice day.

To the Voters of Marion County—

If you appreciate the service of an official who is too busy with duties connected with the office to conduct a personal campaign, vote 85X. Mary L. Fulkerson, County School Superintendent. m16

Parks Are Crowded—

With the mercury reaching the 87-mark Sunday, all the parks in the city were crowded during the afternon while cool places in the country were sought by many people fortunate enough to own automobiles.

Takes Chicago Position—

A. F. Dunnock, who has been bookkeeper for the Capital City Creamery company for the past two years, left for Chicago last Saturday night where he has accepted a very lucrative position with a large wholesale milk concern of that city.

Jersey Club to Meet—

The Marion County Jersey club will meet at the John Davenport farm, 1½ miles south of Silverton, at 11 a. m. May 17. Members are asked to bring well filled baskets. Ice cream and coffee will be furnished by Silverton members. There will be judging in the afternoon for everyone.

A Good Selection—

Of lamps and lamp shades at special prices during Better Homes week. Hamilton. 340 Commercial St. m14

Visitors Take Stairs—

Owing to the elevator service being out of commission until about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, visitors to offices in the Bank of Commerce building were forced to take the stairs Monday.

Kodaks, Films and—

Kodak finishing at Darby's Drug Store. m13

VFW Plans Big Dance—

Final plans for a dance at the armory Friday night were completed by a committee of Veterans of Foreign Wars who met at the Gray Belle Monday noon. Arrangements are being made to give election returns during the dance. The armory will be decorated and several prominent Salem women will preside over the punch bowls. Holman's six-piece orchestra has been engaged for the music. The committee in charge of the dance consists of G. F. Young, chairman; Allan Carson, Bryan Conley, Ed Rowland and George Herbster.

Watkins Pledges Support—

Elton Watkins, representative in congress, pledges his vote to the support of the Bursum pension bill and will vote over the president's veto, according to a letter received by Bolton Hamble, in answer to a telegram sent by the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Other favorable replies and pledges of support were sent by Senators C. L. McNary and Robert Stanfield and Representative W. C. Hawley.

Special Meeting Called—

At the request of the initial gift committee, a special meeting of the YMCA board of directors has been called for Thursday noon. The object of the meeting is to discuss the possibility of the board of directors, as a group, making the initial subscription for the YMCA building campaign. This drive will be launched in October and will be for the purpose of obtaining $200,000 for the erection of a new building on Court street.

Elect Carl B. Webb—

Coroner. No. 90 on the ballot. —m13

Mr. Lemmon Seriously Ill—

Mr. Lemmon, former owner of the Marion apartments, is in a Portland hospital and critically ill, according to reports received here. His wife and son are also with him.

Labor to Hear Candidates—

An invitation to attend an open meeting of the Salem Trades and Labor council tonight has been extended to all political aspirants who seek nominations at the Friday election, according to an announcement by W. H. Chase, business agent. Each speaker will be limited to 10 minutes.

Birth Is Reported—

Word of the arrival of Peggy Pauline at a local hospital May 7, has been received at the office of Dr. William B. Mott, city health officer. The baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Van Santen of Silverton.

Hamilton's Furniture Store—

Is selling a big value in a floor lamp and shade for $17.95 during Better Homes week. 340 Commercial St. m14

Rotarians Will Sing—

An old-fashioned singing school, under the leadership of Dan Langenberg, will feature the Wednesday noon meeting of the Rotary club. Reports of special committees will also be given while the recent questionnaires sent all members will be discussed.

Speeder Loses License—

Fifty miles an hour on curves, and too much attention to his female companion cost John Propp $10 cash and the loss of his drivers' license for 30 days when he appeared before P. J. Kuntz, justice of the peace, Monday. Propp was arrested Sunday night by H. L. Griffith, state traffic officer.

Three One-Act Plays—

Willamette university public speaking department, Waller hall, May 13, at 8 p. m. Admission, 35 cents. m13

Shoplifting Case Continued—

Hearing of J. E. Boyd, held on a shoplifting charge, will be continued in justice court Wednesday. Mrs. Boyd and two small children are being detained at the police station until the other's case is heard. When arrested by Officer Olson Saturday Boyd had just taken some cheap clothing from a local store. Investigation revealed an enormous quantity and variety of articles. The police, with the assistance of Boyd, spent Monday in seeking to return the stolen property as far as possible. Boyd was unable to remember where he had acquired some of the stuff.

Road Hog Causes Wreck—

Though his automobile was forced off a bridge and then turned over in a ditch, the machine was little damaged and no one injured, according to a report made to the police by W. T. Malloy, of the Cherry City bakery. The accident occurred on the River road about four miles north of Salem Sunday afternoon. The other car crowded him off the bridge, Malloy said. He failed to obtain the license number of the other automobile.

Elect Carl B. Webb—

Coroner. No. 90 on the ballot. —m13

Bails Are Forfeited—

Rather than delay their Sunday touring, several motorists forfeited bail when they failed to appear in the police court yesterday. Marc Saucy, route 9, cut a corner and forfeited $5; L. Thompson of Canby failed to dim his headlights and also had no tail light. He lost $5; R. D. Jolliffee of Seattle forfeited $10 on a speeding charge. J. B. Hulsey of Lebanon was arrested for failure to dim his lights and deposited $5 to insure his appearance today.

Junk Dealer Robbed—

Two revolvers and a variety of articles were stolen from his place of business Sunday night, H. Steinbock, 215 Center, notified the police Monday. Entrance to the building was gained by removing a window on the alley.

Dance Tonight, Derby Hall— ...

Du Bois' popular dances every Tuesday. m13*

Tourist Hit by Auto—

While repairing his automobile at South Commercial and Hoyt Sunday, R. W. McIntyre of Vader, Wash., was struck by an automobile driven by Helen Phillips of Portland. McIntyre was taken to the office of a physician where he was found not badly injured.

Stove Is Overheated—

Overheating of a cookstove did some damage to the wall and called out the fire department about 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. The stove was in the residence of Paul Marnach, 221 South High.

Extra Special—

For Better Homes week, a beautiful floor lamp and shades for only $17.95, at Hamilton's. m13

Clinic Is Success—

The Salem hospital's school children clinic held yesterday in observance of Hospital day, was a decided success. More than 75 children between the ages of 6 fo 16 were presented for examination. The local doctors generously donated their time and medical skill to the work and gave the parents confidential information regarding the needs of their children. The hospital was open for inspection during the entire day and entertained many visitors.

Candidates Are Heard—

Several candidates for republican nominations met at Turner last night and addressed the voters of that district. Those attending and speaking were Frank T. Wrightman, candidate for county judge; Mark McCallister, Z. J. Riggs, Robin D. Day and A. Slaughter, candidates for the legislature; Hal D. Patton, candidate for delegate to the national convention, and Ralph Thompson, candidate for sheriff. W. H. Wright presided. The meeting was held at Ball's hall.

Bedding Plants—

In all varieties. Greenhouse open evenings. 15th and Market street. C. F. Breithaupt, Florist. m18

More School Finish Work—

Three more schools in the county have completed the year's work and the annual reports received at the office of the county school superintendent. These schools were those at Looney, West Woodburn and Swegle. Four other schools in the county finished their work recently. From now on the schools will begin to close in rapid succession.

Kennedy Files Suit—

Principal of $2500 and interest from June, 1922, is asked by William Kennedy in a suit filed in the county clerk's office against A. L. Riggs, the Brown Investment company and others. According to the complaint A. L. Riggs and his wife, Ida M. Riggs, were loaned the money June 22, 1920. Kenney also claims that certain terms of the mortgage were violated.

Smith Seeks Judgment—

Judgment for $2100 on a promissory note and an order declaring his lien to be a first lien, is asked in a suit brought by M. T. Smith against A. A. Murada, R. D. and Lenora Whelan and the Ladd & Bush bank. Smith claims that the note was given October 28, 1921, and no payments or interest made since April, 1923.

Elect Carl B. Webb—

Coroner. No. 90 on the ballot. —m13

Wants Property Sold—

Suit to have certain property sold and the proceeds distributed, was filed Monday by Charles L. Saunders against Jessep Hall Mosher, Melvin Nelson Mosher, Clara May Baldwin, Arthur Baldwin, Katie Faye Snyder, K. K. Snyder and Charles N. Mosher. The property is too small to be partitioned among all parties concerned, it is said. Services of a referee are also sought.

Boy Scouts Plan Rally—

Boy Scouts at Chemawa will sponsor a field rally May 29 as a part of the commencement week exercises at the Indian school, according to K. L. Haga, four-county executive for the Boy Scouts. The boys are all taking a keen interest in the Indian patrol work at present.

Will Elect Teachers—

Election of several more new teachers is expected to be the chief business before the school board which meets tonight. Details of the new Parrish junior high school will also be discussed.

Exhibition Tonight—

Boys 12 to 15 will give a Red Cross junior life saving exhibition at 7:30 tonight at the tank of the local YMCA. The boys are all trying out for Red Cross life-saving medals. The showing which they make tonight will be accepted as a basis for those awards. The exhibition will consist of demonstrating life-saving methods, such as swimming, breaking grip of drowning person and getting to shore. The boys are under the direction of Marion Lewis.

Woodburn Men Ask Trial—

Pleas of not guilty to charges of violation of the liquer law were entered in justice court Monday by three Woodburn men. The trio were S. R. Lyman, charged with possession; Henry Whitney and Tom Shortell, charged with selling and possession. All three were released on $300 bail each. Whitney's trial will be held May 21; Lyman's May 22 and Shortell's on May 23. The men were arrested in Woodburn by Marshal Covey. He said yesterday the arrest was made through the aid of marked money.

Will Offer Comedy—

Members of the Julius Caesar club, of Salem high school, will offer "Miss Santa" at the high school auditorium Friday night. As members of the club are all boys, the female members of the cast were picked by selection. Miss Grace Snook coached the cast.

Boy on Bicycle Hurt—

Severe cuts about the head were received by a boy who rode his bicycle into an automobile belonging to A. J. Basey, 691 South Capitol, which was parked in front of the Kay Woolen Mills office. The name of the boy was not learned. He received first aid at the emergency hospital of the California Packing company.

Cancer Removed—

Yesterday by the use of medicine Dr. Stone removed a cancer from the nose of Mr. Walter Pugh of Salem. m13*

Students Told of Camp—

Advantages of the Citizens' military training camp, to be held at Camp Lewis June 18 to July 19 will be outlined for Salem high school students today by Col. Carle Abrams, who will speak this morning. The camp is open to boys between 17 and 24 years of age.

Accessories Stolen—

A fair exchange may be no robbery, but when the article is inferior, it is a theft, according to Paul Nieswonder, who reported to the police that a motometer was stolen from his automobile and an inferior one left in its place. Harold Rosebraugh, 432 State street, notified the police that someone had stolen an electric light and battery from his bicycle.

Elect Carl B. Webb—

Coroner. No. 90 on the ballot. —m13

Mary Larkins Makes Reply—

In reply and cross complaint to a divorce complaint filed by Guy C. Larkins, Mary L. Larkins admits a few details but denies the majority. She asks for a decree in her favor.

Two Licenses Issued—

Two marriage licenses were issued Monday, one to Elmer Holloway and Marian Gregg, both of 1363 North Seventeenth, and to William Cass and Irene May Burhart, both of Stayton.

Farm House Robbed—

While the family were at breakfast Sunday morning their house was robbed of $54 in cash, according to a report made to the sheriff's office by Mrs. Frank Arquette who lives near Hubbard. The robbery is being investigated.

Administrator Appointed—

Charles L. Saunders has been appointed administrator of the estate of Lucy Woods, E. F. Allen, George Stuckey and Stephen Bauman are named appraisers.

Divorce Decree Signed—

Elsie Sandberg was granted a divorce from Charles E. Sandberg in a decree signed Monday by Judge George G. Bingham. The plaintiff was awarded $500 permanent alimony, $10 a month for the support of each of their four children, and in addition to one-half of certain property, an additional one-third to insure payments. The father may visit their children at suitable times providing he first notfies his ex-wife, and is not in arrears in his payments.

Lane Morley Is Asking for the Republican Nomination for County Assessor

Lane Morley who is asking for the republican nomination for county assessor, has lived in Oregon for 20 years. He has made good in business and is a heavy taxpayer. He taught school in Oregon for 12 years, was in the real estate business for two years and for five years has been in the grocery business. He is endorsed by some of the leading citizens of the county and will make a good race. Of Mr. Morley's two opponents one has been in the office as deputy or principal for nine years and the other for eight years. Mr. Morley is waging an earnest campaign and is making many friends.—Adv.

Lane Morley

How Appendicitis Very Often Starts

Chronic stomach or bowel trouble often causes an inflammation which spreads to the appendix, causing appendicitis. Ordinary bowel inflammation can often be relieved with simple glycerine, buckthorn, etc., as mixed in Adlerika. Most medicines act only on lower bowels, but Adlerika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and removes all poisons. Helps any case gas on stomach in TEN minutes. J. C. Perry, druggist, 115 S. Commercial.—Adv.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith of Bend were in Salem over the week-end.

Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, county school superintendent, spent Monday visiting schools at Sunnyside and the adjacent district.

Fred A. Williams left for southern Oregon Sunday night on a short business trip. He is expected back Wednesday night or Thursday.

G. C. Corlie of Jefferson was in the city recently.

C. F. Jones and J. F. Rodgers of Eureka, Cal., were out-of-town guests at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Monday.

James R. Linn, accompanied by Albert Magnis Jr., a hop bpyer of Chicago, returned to the city yesterday after spending the week-end at Newport. Mr. Magnis arrived in the city Saturday night.

Mrs. Henry E. Morris, who has been quite ill at her home, is improving slowly but is not expected to be up for another 10 days or two weeks.

Charles Willman of the Terminal hotel left Monday morning for southern Oregon to attend to some publicity work for the Central Stage Terminal Hotel company.

Ramon Dimick, who is teaching at Raymond, Wash., was in the city over the week-end. He was graduated from Willamette university in 1922.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Craven of Portland were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Canfield.

Arthur Peters of Seattle was a guest in Salem Sunday, visiting at the home of Mrs. William Hartman on South Liberty street.

DIED

KEYS—Edward Keyes died at a local hospital May 12, at the age of 80 years. Funeral announcements later. Webb funeral parlors in charge of arrangements.

DUDLEP — Verlin Enos Dudley died at the home of his parents May 12, 1924, at the age of one month. Services will be held at the Webb funeral parlors today, May 13, at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Acheson will have charge of services. Interment will be in City View cemetery.