MARTIN WILL SOON RETURN FROM ALASKA

Meanwhile, the three other planes will continue their way around the world under command of Lieutenant Lowell H. Smith, senior officer in the absence of Major Martin.

The plans of the air service also will permit Major Martin to keep the designation of commanding officer of the flight, Lieutenant Smith's title being that of acting officer in charge.

It is intended to send Major Martin and Sergeant Harvey across the Atlantic in time to greet the fliers and lead them on the way home from Europe, in that way giving the commander the post of honor which he lost by hard luck in Alaska.

The machine has been abandoned where she hit the mountainside in fog and blinding snow, an hour after she had taken the air at Chignik, Alaska in Major Martin's second desperate effort to rejoin his command.

Lieutenant Earl S. Fonkin, who flew from San Francisco to Seattle Saturday to go north and search for Major Martin, will start on a scheduled non-stop flight to San Francisco at 5 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Willamette Shrine No. 2 will hold stated communication this evening at 8 o'clock at the Masonic temple. All visiting members of the order will be welcome.

Presenting in concert four local professional artists, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, contralto; Miss Ruth Bedford, pianist; Mrs. Mary Talmadge-Headrick, violinist, and Leon Jennison, baritone, the Salem Civic Music club last night sponsored a delightful and appreciated concert. Miss Tartar, who is head of the music department at the high school, having trained the double quartet which won honors at Forest Grove, and having directed the light opera, "Pinafore," which was so successfully given at the high school last month, appeared in two groups. Miss Bedford, who graduates from Willamette university June 11 and who is an especially gifted accompanist, serving in that capacity with the Apollo club, opened the program. Mrs. Headrick, who is connected with one of the local theaters gave two violin groups.

Mr. Jennison, baritone, sang most agreeable numbers from Martin, Homer, Ward-Steubens, and Squire.

With the waltz Etude, Opus 52, No. 6 from Saint-Saens, opening the program, Miss Ruth Bedford played the number in an careful manner, which won her much frank admiration.

Mr. Jennison made Martin's "Come to the Fair" delightfully invitingly. Vieuxtemps "Ballade et Polonaise," a violin number, was given in a talented manner by Mrs. Headrick. Especially well-received was Miss Tartar's group, "Hark, Hark, the Lark," (Schubert); "Out of My Deepest Sadness," (Franz), and "Ridobami la Calma," (Tolsti). Miss Bedford as her second piano group gave "Allegretto-Scherzando," (Haberbier) and Rosenthal's "Papillons." Mr. Jennison's final group included "Sheep and Lambs," (Homer); "Someone Worthwhile," (Ward-Stephens), and Squire's that pleasant of selections, "A Chip of the Old Block." Bach's air for G string, as well as Hubay's "Hejre Kati," proved Mrs. Headrick's fluency.

Miss Tartar closed the delightful and successful program with the Ponchielli aria, "Voice di Donna."

Last week Miss Iva Claire Love, Nellie, Mulkey-Stone and C. K. Muston appeared in a similar professional artists' program. The concert last night was the last in the series.

Guests for Mother's day at the home of Mrs. W. A. Rutherford, 340 North Church street, were Mr. and Mrs. August Riser and Miss Barbara Janzen of Dallas, Miss May Rutherford and Richard Rutherford. Mrs. Rutherford's birthday was also honored at this time, by telegrams, birthday cakes and a box of mountain trout, all coming as a surprise to the honoree.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bishop of Portland spent Mother's day at the C. P. Bishop home, motoring down to Forest Grove.

The Woman's Republican Study club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. George H. Alden, 760 North Church street, an unusually large number of women being in attendance. Mrs. Richard Cartwright, in charge of the study hour, held the lesson in abeyance in the press of the outstanding outside speeches. The study following the "Current History" magazine as a stimulating basis allows the majority of the members opportunity for self-instruction.

An excellent half-hour talk was given by Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, assistant attorney general, refuting the charges made in Monday's Oregonian against I. H. Van Winkle. A slightly longer talk was given by Frank T. Wrightman on the juvenile court, a number of strikingly interesting points being brought out.

Miss Genevieve and Louise Findley, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley, who have been spending the winter in Boulder, Colo., studying music, arrived home yesterday morning.

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, 1216 State street, have issued invitations to the members of the senior class for the evening of May 16.

The Etokta club will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. K. Ohlrig, 1135 North Fourth street. Officers will be elected and delegates named to represent the club at two conventions.

One of the most attractive affairs of the week-end was the Alpha Chi Omega tea Saturday afternoon at the W. H. Steusloff home, 1185 Court street. The house was decorated with Chinese lanterns and Oriental poppies, a color scheme, following the society colors, red and green, being carried out. Hostesses with Miss Dorothea Steusloff, at whose home the affair was held, were members of the local alumnae association. The guests included members from the Eugene and Corvallis chapters, all of whom are popular among the younger set as graduates from the Salem high school. Mrs. Martin Fereshtian sang a group of East Indian songs from Woodford-Fuden's cycle, "A Lover in Damascus," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. May Chambers. Chapter songs followed by the Eugene group. In the refreshments the sorority symbols were effectively brought out.

Mrs. H. Gutches, 2340 West Knob hill, has returned to her home after having spent six months in San Diego, visiting her son, Forest Fulton. Mr. Fulton, a graduate in the medical corps, is now stationed at the naval hospital in San Diego.

The Canby Herald reports interestingly concerning the concert given last Monday evening by Professor Franklin B. Launer at the Methodist church under the auspices of the Canby Woman's Civic club. Playing a difficult program, Professor Launer satisfied the most critical that his ability is pronounced both in technique and interpretation. Among those in his audience for the evening were: Mae Herbers, Magdalene Mergens, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Petri of Portland. Mr. Petri played the piano accompaniments for Mrs. Arthur J. Rahm.

assisting artist, concerning whose vocal work the Herald gave unstinted praise.

The concert was given in the nature of a benefit for Professor Launer who sails next month for a year's study in Paris. He is an artist-pupil of Mrs. Lillian Jeffreys Petri.

Professor Launer will appear in local concert on May 26. The MacDowell club, assisted by Mrs. Homer Goulet, Miss Frances M. Richards, Mrs. Charles L. Sherman, Mrs. C. A. Kells, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, W. T. Jenks, Paul B. Wallace Ward Willis Long, and Joseph Albert, will sponsor the event.

The devotional meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church will be held tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. D. McCormack at Kimball college.
