The attractive lawn of the Dr. F. H. Thompson residence, 351 North Summer street, was the scene yesterday afternoon of a charming garden tea in honor of the senior girls of Willamette university with the members of the American Association of University Women the hostesses. The table was arranged under the fruit trees and the program in the delightful form of a short play was given in the summer house. The play, presenting an accomplished cast of eight characters, showably delighted all who saw it. The story, centering about the attractive "engaged girl," Felice, cleverly showed the force of a single lettered expletive, such as "My Dear!" which gave the play its title, "My Dear!" which appeared in the March number of the "Drama," was written by Patricia O'Connor Morio of San Francisco, who for yesterday's presentation very kindly waived royalties.

Mrs. C. A. Downs took the lead, playing "Felice" in a winsome manner. The character of Mrs. Anstruther, the mother, was effectively demonstrated by Mrs. Roy Klein. Miss Helen Pearce portrayed a wholly realistic father. Mrs. George Allen brought out the child-temperament of Bobby, the 4-year-old nephew of Felice. Kenneth, the fiance in the play, was Miss Lela Johnson while the scholarly John Templeton was Mrs. George Hag. The parts of Margery and Phyllis, two girl friends of Felice, were taken in a charming manner by Miss Frances Richards and Miss Merle McKelvey. All of the costumes were appropriate and attractive.

The tea hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. E. C. Richards and Mrs. McIntyre, with Miss Kathryn Rosman, Miss Esther Hollingsworth, Miss Cleo Weddle and Miss Remoh Tyrer assisting. The table was attractively centered with pyrethra, forget-me-nots and basket-of-gold.

At the important business session of the association which preceded the tea, the report of the nominating committee was given by the chairman, Mrs. F. G. Franklin, the following names being presented: President, Mrs. George H. Alden; vice president, Mrs. George W. Hag; secretary, Miss Maude Covington, and treasurer, Mrs. J. M. Devers.

with stunts by the members. Plans were also made for the program in Waller hall, to be given later in the month by Mrs. Mary Watson Baynes of the University of Oregon, under the auspices of the AAUW.

Mrs. A. W. Cooper of Portland, director of the North Pacific section of the university women's association, was a special guest of the afternoon, reporting on the national convention held in Washington. The group motoring to Salem with Mrs. Cooper included Mrs. Merwin, Mrs. Freeman, Mrs. Belcher and Mrs. Guild.

Mrs. E. C. Richards was chairman of the committee in charge of the attractive tea, the assisting members being Mrs. A. C. F. Perry, Mrs. James Fairchild, Mrs. Paul Acton and Mrs. F. H. Thompson.

Mrs. Reginald Sanford was a Portland visitor this week, attending the Gabriellowitz concert on Wednesday evening. During her stay she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. H. Lamond, and of Mrs. Theo V. Arreiter.

Eighteen members of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, 975 E street.

an's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church met in brief devotional session yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. D. McCormick at Kimball college. The lesson of the hour was in charge of Mrs. C. F. Wilson. Mrs. George Guiekunat led in the devotions. The occasion was mite-box opening. There was no business meeting or program on account of the larger demands of the evening services.

Three delightful short plays will be presented at 8:15 o'clock this evening in Waller hall under the direction of Prof. Minna L. Harding, head of the public speaking department. Two of these, "Mrs. Macpherson's Dream," and "The Consuming Flame" were written by Miss Harding herself, who is receiving royalties for a number of her productions. The third play is William Dean Howells' "The Mouse Trap."

The Sweet Brier club met yesterday afternoon for a postponed meeting at the home of Mrs. Arthur Utley. Mrs. Karl Kugel interested the members as they occupied themselves with their needlework with a talk on "The Home Beautiful." Mrs. M. C. Pettys presented many facts concerning the habits of birds, with those present delightfully supplementing her talk with their own observations and experiences in this field. Roses, poppies and spires were used in bowls about the rooms where later a dainty tray luncheon was served. Mrs. Corydon Blodgett assisting the hostess.

Club members present for the afternoon were Mrs. William McCall, Mrs. James Imlah, Mrs. Karl Kugel, Mrs. Al Steiner, Mrs. Page, Mrs. Franklin, Nellie Taylor, Mrs. Moll, Mrs. Nina Adams, Mrs. Glen Adams, Mrs. Ferd Allen, Mrs. M. C. Pettys, Mrs. C. C. Chaffee, Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Grote, and the hostess, Mrs. Utley.

The regular social meeting of the Hal Hibbard auxiliary has been postponed from Friday, May 16, till the 22nd of the month, on which date Mrs. E. J. Raymond of 1390 North Fourteenth street, will be the hostess. Plans for Memorial day will be completed at that time.

Five hundred was the diversion of the evening when the matrons of the U. D. club were hostesses Tuesday evening for their husbands. Eight tables were in play throughout the evening. Mrs. A. E. Huckestein and H. E. Hinzon were the honor. Low scores were taken by Carl Parr and Mrs. J. Madon.

Wistaria and roses in baskets gave floral charm to the rooms. Musical numbers were given by Father Buck and Mrs. Hinzon. An attractive luncheon was served at the small tables.

Guests enjoying the evening with the members of the club and their husbands included Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Huckestein, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Shelley, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Petzel, Father J. R. Buck, Father Keenan, Carl Barr and Henry Barr.

The Kensington club will meet today with Mrs. George King, 1768 Court street.

Invitations are being issued for the graduation recital of Byron D. Arnold, senior in piano, who will be presented in an unassisted program of four parts by Prof. F. B. Launer at 8 o'clock Saturday, May 17, at Waller hall. Mr. Arnold is organist at the First Presbyterian church, as well as senior scholar in the music department of the university. He was also winner of first place in the professional piano group in the Civic Music club contest in January. The program announced will include numbers from Bach, Beethoven, Schumann, Chopin, Cervantes, Strauss, Poldowsky and Mendelssohn.

Sixteen prominent townswomen are acting as hostesses this week in the interest of the "Better Homes" movement, the daily programs for which are being held

BETTER HOMES WEEK

By Edna Garfield
(Written for The Statesman.)
We'd better home at home this week.
And make our BETTER HOMES WEEK speak:
We'd better all spruce up a bit—
"Twill make a BETTER-HOMES-WEEK hit;
Let's let our brightest lights be lit—
Our hearts and hearth-lights, let them shine
For BETTER HOMES—your home and mine;
(For homes, though human, are divine.)

"From better homes come better men,"
Says some one, and I add "amen."
(And man embraces women.—"Hem.")

By "drive for BETTER HOMES" is meant
A lure of normalcy—content—
Means more of rest, and less upheaval;
Better morals; less of evil;
More of fresh air, sunshine, health—
Man's greatest asset, joy, wealth.

All this saith Fed-ed Women's Clubs,
(Which spells the axle, spokes and hubs
Since men have made them pals and sub;
And so says B P W Pritchard,
(As brave as ever was King Richard;)
So says the leader, Mrs. Wintner;
Likewise the foremost athlete-sprinter;
And, like Willamette's Carl Gregg Doney,
Saith Mrs. Wm. Brown Sloney—
(Our Lena's Lake and Forrat crew—
Both known from Western Sea to Coney.)

And so says U. S. Commerce Chamber;
(All's good they lubricate and lather;)
Agreed are doctors, lawyers, preachers,
Farmers, manufacturers teachers;
Heads of old Cornell and Harvard—
Airma—Seamen—port and lar'b'rd.

And thus opines our President
Our Comrade Cal, so finely blent;
"We need abundant home-sunlight,
(No harm to make the burdens light)
So life can reach the heavenly height)
With happy children, reared upright."

And harken unto Herbert Hoover:
(Then, if you're doubtful, wait and prove'er:—)
"The homes in which we dwell affect us;
Our early memories should perfect us."
He loud decries nomadic life,
And pleads for homes—the foe of strife;
He recommends they be apbuilt,
(Don't wait until the milk is spilt.)

Then—Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, too,
Did novel stunt that few can do,
By laying Girl Scouts' cornerstone
Of that historic house, "Sweet Home"—
A replica, in every grain,
Of that of loved John Howard Payne.

So while this is but feeble start
Upon the subject next our heart,
Of BETTER HOMES WEEK set apart,
I feel there can be no delusion
About the comfort in conclusion
Of this, my "BETTER HOMES" effusion:—

If we're hard-hit by winds of Fate,
From world of Doubt—of Greed—of Hate,
Of whatsoever's on the slate—
If unfair blows in Life are dealt us,
Or e'en if falls from Hades pelt us,
Our BETTER HOMES are altar—shelter—
A refuge from Life's helter-skelter.

So let this motto be our goal,
(And each one start the ball a-roll:)
HAVE BETTER HOMES, from Pole to Pole
They're altar for the whole world's soul!

at the attractive residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Barton, 901 North Capitol street. The group includes Miss Mattie Beatty, Mrs. Winnie Pettijohn, Mrs. John Carson, Mrs. Richard Cartwright, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. Frank Meyers, Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. J. A. Churchill, Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, Mrs. Karl Kugel, Mrs. John McCourt, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. E. E. Fisher and Mrs. Alice H. Dodd.

Musical programs are adding in a delightful way to the pleasure of the days. Yesterday Miss Emma Weller had charge of the music in the afternoon, with Miss Winnie Etta Magers taking charge in the evening. This afternoon Prof. F. B. Launer, and this evening Dr. John R. Sites will provide the musical features. Tomorrow's program will be under the direction of Miss Lena Belle Tartar; Saturday's under that of Mrs. Mollie Styles, with Prof. T. S. Roberts in charge on Sunday.

Programs that should particularly appeal to women for the remainder of the week are: the talk on nutrition and the well appointed kitchen, by Mrs. Eula Creech; the talk on landscape gardening, by Mrs. Florence Holmes Derke, and the talk on interior decorating by Miss Margaret Morehouse, head of the art department of Corvallis. Governor Pierce considers the movement of such significance that he is taking charge of the entire program for this evening. This afternoon Dr. Carl Gregg Doney will speak on the parents' responsibility to the child. Miss Maude Covington's topic is the "Model Library," and that of Miss Snook, physical director at the high school, "Sportsmanship."

The Golden Hour club will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. A. Stewart, 358 North Winter street.

Twelve women of the Portland Golf club will play today on the Illihee links as guests of the local golf women, of whom Mrs. W. H. Olinger is captain.

Chapter G of the PEO Sisterhood will meet at the regular hour this afternoon at the home of Mrs. William McGilchrist on South Commercial street.

The matrons of the Thursday club will be the guests this afternoon of Mrs. M. N. Chapman and Mrs. George J. Pearce.

The Delta Alpha class of the First Methodist Sunday school met at the home of Miss Elsie Lippold, 297 South Fifteenth street, for a social and business meeting Tuesday evening. After a delightful number of hours with music, games and fancywork, light refreshments were served by the hostess. Class members present for the evening were Phoebe McAdams, Ruth McAdams, Maude Savage, Nancy Savage, Mabel Savage, Rena Mickey, Josephine Shade, Violet Hoover, Grace Robertson, Minnie Miller, Edna Miller, Elizabeth Stockhouser, Augusta Brethaupt, Joan Denning, Bessie Smith, Lydia Hunt, Josephine Marr, Ethel Jackman and Mrs. O. L. Clark, teacher.

team must be members of the same standard livestock club. Each contestant shall place according to his judgment at least three classes of Jerseys. Four animals will constitute a class. The judges may call on any or all contestants for oral reasons. The person in charge of the team must hand to the superintendent the names of the members of the team before the contest starts. Teams have been entered from Marion, Linn, Lincoln, Polk, Multnomah, Washington, Tillamook and Lane counties. Other counties are expected to enter judging teams, according to L. J. Allen, assistant state club leader. As many as five teams have been entered by some counties, and many individuals will enter to compete for the purebred Jersey calf. The contest will be held the morning of May 29. Provisions for camping will be provided for any one who desires to stay all night.
