

WELL WORTHY AND WELL QUALIFIED

Candidate for Republican Nomination for Coroner Is a Progressive Citizen.

CARL B. WEBB

Carl B. Webb, candidate for the Republican nomination for coroner of Marion county, has been a resident of Oregon for forty years, eleven of which he has spent in Salem, during which time he has been a taxpayer and business man here. He is the owner of Webb's Funeral Parlor.

He is a member of the leading civic and social organizations. He was in business in Seattle, Medford and Portland before coming to Salem. He has been an undertaker all his life—his father was an undertaker.

He was assistant coroner under Mr. Clough, but Mr. Webb has never held or asked for public office. He is married and has a family.

If nominated and elected, Mr. Webb promises to conduct the office in an economical and business like manner. His slogan is: "Service above self."

Wright's 2 Million Novel on Screen

The main screen feature at the Grand theater which starts today is the photoplay adaptation of Harold Bell Wright's well known novel, "When a Man's a Man."

The plot concerns the adventures of an indolent young clubman who goes west after the girl of his heart throws him down. He lands in the cowboy town of Prescott, Ariz., and goes to work on the Cross-Triangle ranch as an ordinary ranch hand. Here he loses his identity and becomes known as "Honorable Patches."

His daring and willingness to work and likeable personality win him many friends on the ranch, but there are several chronic cranks, cranks that are suspicious of every stranger, and so Patches comes in for his share of suspicion. He does not improve his position any when he takes up with Yavapai Joe, a cattle rustler, whom he realizes at once is simply a poor boy in a bad environment.

How the tenderfoot is caught with the cattle rustler, pursued by a lynch mob, and finally vindicated by the poor boy he had befriended, only to lose his right to happiness with the girl he loved when she comes west on her honeymoon trip, married to his rival, make up one of the most fascinating photoplays to come to the screen in a long time.

Will Contest Case Filed By Amanda K. DeGrace

Unlawful influence of Emma L. Knapp caused Johanna Knapp of Grand Ronde to leave her property to certain heirs, is the claim set forth in a petition of Amanda Knapp DeGrace of Grand Ronde. To have the court set aside the will made by the deceased, who died October 4, 1923, Johanna Knapp was not of sound mind when the will was signed, and her memory was impaired, the petitioner declares. The estate is valued at $14,169.45, and was divided between eight heirs, all sons and daughters.

Under the terms of the will Amanda K. DeGrace was to receive interest from $4,000; Anna K. Kister of Aurora, the sum of $2,000; Hermia K. Lynch of Aurora 115 acres of a Champoeg farm, the land not to be sold un-

Double-Header Games at Silverton Played Sunday

SILVERTON, Or., May 12.—(Special to The Statesman)—The Silverton baseball team met two other teams both at Silverton Sunday afternoon. The first was played with Dallas and in this Silverton was the winner with a score of 15 to 1. The Lane brothers were the batteries.

In the second game which was played with the Heale club at East Portland, Silverton was defeated 7 to 5. In this Straghan and Watson were the batteries for Silverton.

Due to a misunderstanding in the schedule the Portland team came down with the understanding that it was to play. Rather than disappoint the visiting team Silverton took it on although several of the Silverton men were played out in the first game. John Elder, manager, made the second game a try-out of new men. Next Sunday it is understood that the Silverton team will meet the Salem Ramblers.

WHITESIDE ADDS TO HIS LAURELS

"Mr. Wu" Well Presented in Salem Last Night By Eminent Actor

Walker Whiteside, long a favorite in Salem, added to his laurels last night in his presentation of "Mr. Wu". Mr. Whiteside carries the play entirely through, although he had a strong support.

"Mr. Wu" gives Mr. Whiteside a fine opportunity to exhibit his rare talents and his fine portrayal of serious characters.

Miss Sidney Shields as "Mrs. Gregory" was a strong character but these two make a cast in themselves that will carry any play. The balance of the cast is strong in its way and gives adequate support.

But "Mr. Wu" is Walker Whiteside and that's enough. He is one of the great actors of the day and he selects plays that permit the finest expression of his genius.

The large crowd at the Grand last night was more than pleased. It was entertained and instructed and thrilled.
