EXTENSIVE plans are being made for the two-day floral exhibit which the Salem Floral society is sponsoring for next week. Opening next Tuesday, June 3, the exhibit will continue in place through Wednesday. Interesting programs will be provided in connection with the exhibit.

Eighteen different prizes will be given for winning entries. Professional florists may not compete. Those entering for prizes are required to have membership in the society, dues for which membership being only $1. Those who do not belong may have flowers on exhibit.

The following are the complete rules which will be of interest to exhibitors:

1. Individuals intending to exhibit must telephone their applications to either of the following: Mrs. C. C. Schwab, 533 North Sixteenth street, phone 8983; Mrs. J. A. Churchill, 1776 Fir street, phone 403R; Mrs. W. E. Anderson, 1491 Court street, phone 1854J.

2. Exhibits must be in place by 6 p. m. on the opening day, June 3, and removed by 10 a. m. on June 5. No exhibits to be removed before 10 p. m. on the closing day.

3. All flowers exhibited for prizes must be plainly and correctly named on cards supplied by the society.

4. The judges will be from out of town and may withhold any prize if, in their opinion, the exhibit is not of sufficient merit.

5. The society will afford the best possible care and protection to all exhibits, but it distinctly disclaims all liability for loss or damage to exhibits or personal property of exhibitors.

6. Prizes are offered as follows:

Class 1—Table arrangement of flowers, fruit or foliage or a combination of either, arranged in vases, bowls or baskets. All accessories to be furnished by exhibitor. Scale of points for this exhibit: arrangement, 50; color harmony, 30; originality, 20. First prize, $3; second prize, $1.

Class 2.—Arrangement of short stemmed flowers such as violets, pansies, marigolds, etc., container to be bowls of glass, pottery or metal not over 12 inches in diameter. Scale, arrangement 50; perfection of bloom, 40; fragrance 10. First prize, $3; second, $1.

Class 3.—Best collection of hardy perennial cut flowers arranged for effect, foliage optional; six or more varieties. First prize, $5; second, $2.

Class 4.—Best arrangement of flowers in basket 18 to 36 inches high, foliage optional. Scale, color harmony, 60; arrangement, 30; proportion, 20. First prize, $3; second, $1.

Mrs. George A. White will leave tomorrow for Tillamook where she will spend Decoration day.

Miss Kathleen La Raut, lyric soprano, will be presented at 8:15 o'clock this evening in graduation recital at Waller hall. Miss La Raut is a pupil of Prof. E. W. Hobson, and is an assistant in the department. A very delightful program has been arranged. Miss Jean Hobson will accompany as well as give assistant numbers.

Chapter G of the PEO Sisterhood met Monday evening as the guests of Chapter AB for the annual picnic, the members of the two chapters with their families and a few invited friends gathered for the recreative evening in Painter's woods.

With the state convention of the sisterhood opening yesterday in Albany, a number from the local chapters are in attendance. From Chapter AB, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. Harry Styles, Mrs. W. D. Smith and Mrs. Mary Reeves are in attendance. Mrs. Kirk and Mrs. Styles as delegates. From Chapter C the delegates are Mrs. W. H. Byrd and Mrs. William Hughes.

Mrs. M. A. Zollinger of Portland is presiding at the sessions.

The Jason Lee Women's Foreign Missionary society will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Melvin Johnson, 1040 Hood street.

It will be with extreme pleasure that many will receive the announcement that the "Cinderella Ballet," so delightfully and artistically presented at the Grand theater May 16 and 17, will be repeated at 8:15 o'clock Monday evening. Although given in three acts, the ballet takes no more time than the average play, using about three hours and 20 minutes altogether.

The costuming for the affair is unusually elaborate. Both fabrics and modes are exceptional, from the white-mice frocks to the exquisite ball gown of Cinderella herself. Many will be glad to enjoy for the second time the graceful and lovable antics of the "cat," as well as parts taken in an excellent manner by all members of the cast.

Sponsored by the Illhee auxiliary, the production is staged as a benefit for the children's ward of the Salem hospital.

The general aid society of the First Methodist church this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock will be in the entertaining form of the "last day of school," with seven districts coming together for the program of the occasion. Mrs. George Gutekunst will be the teacher, while Mrs. E. J. Swafford will present the prizes.

The Kimball School of Theology appeared in a local concert last evening at the First Methodist church with the outstanding feature of the evening the closing "Pageant of the Resurrection."

The costuming and lighting effects were particularly elaborate.

Including in its personnel, first tenor H. R. Cross, second tenor O. J. Beadles, Lloyd Burke; first bass E. W. McAfee, W. W. Pierson; second bass, J. E. Officer and Earl B. Cotton, the club last night opened the program with Gabriel's picturesque "Yachting Chorus." A tenor solo by Lloyd Burke continued the program. Mr. Burke sang "Enoch Arden," (Tennyson). F. C. Tschow's trombone solos won unstinted applause. The quartet, composed of Messrs. Love, McAfee, Pierson and Cotton, gave the Herbert arrangement of the "Old Oaken Bucket," and "Dried Apple Pie" (Beewick). Otha Love gave the most diverting of "Chalk Talks," the club preceding him with several ensemble numbers, the first, "O Peaceful Night" (German), and the second "Negro

RUB PAIN OUT OF RHEUMATIC JOINTS

For 65 years, millions have rubbed soothing, penetrating St. Jacobs Oil right on the tender spot, and by the time they say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain and distress. St. Jacobs Oil is a harmless rheumatism and a d pain liniment which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache and neuralgia. 35 cent bottle guaranteed by all druggists.—Adv.

PUBLIC NOTICES

NOTICE OF BOND SALE
Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the undersigned at his office in Salem, Oregon, until the hour of eight o'clock p. m., the 12th day of June, 1924, and immediately thereafter publicly opened by the Board of Directors of School District No. 24, Marion County, Oregon, at office of the Board of Directors in said City of Salem, Oregon, for an issue of bonds of said district in the sum of Two hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars ($225,000.00), said bonds to be in denominations of One thousand dollars ($1,000.00), five hundred dollars ($500.00) or One hundred dollars ($100.00) each, (bidders to specify denominations desired), dated July 1, 1924, and maturing serially in numerical order at the rate of Twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($22,500.00) per annum on the 1st day of July in each of the years 1925 to 1934, inclusive, said bonds to bear interest at the rate of five per cent (5%) per annum, payable semi-annually on the 1st days of January and July, principal and interest payable at the Fiscal Agency of the State of Oregon in New York City.

In view of the fact that the full Two hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars ($225,000.00) for which the above bonds are authorized may not be needed, bidders are requested to so frame their bids that a less amount may be awarded, such less amount to be pro-rated equally between the ten maturities. In any event at least Two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000.00) will be sold.

All bids must be accompanied by a certified check for $5,000 and must be unconditional.

The approving legal opinion of Messrs. Teal, Winfree, Johnson & McCulloch will be furnished the successful bidder.

The assessed valuation of the property in the district for the year 1923 was Thirteen million, seven hundred fifty-one thousand, six hundred ninety-seven and 00/100 dollars ($13,751,697.00).

The bonded indebtedness of the district, exclusive of the bonds hereby advertised, is One hundred eighty-four thousand, two hundred seventy-five dollars ($184,275.00).

The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.
