Few Earwigs Seen—Few earwigs have been found on streets that were particularly infested last year, especially Front street, according to S. H. Van Trump, county fruit inspector. Reports of earwigs on South 23rd proved to be unfounded. Those reported so far have been developed under favorable conditions where nests were made last year on the south side of houses. The earwigs are being hatched slowly, as warm, moist weather is needed to bring them out. Mr. Van Trump said Wednesday.

Lions Postpone Lunch—With the regular meeting of the Lions' club falling on Memorial day, the luncheon has been postponed until the following Friday, June 6. Books in the visiting contest are expected to be completed by May 30 and these will be turned in at the June meeting. Officers nominated at a recent meeting will also be elected at this time.

Will Ship Bundles—All persons having bundles at home for the Near East relief are urged to take them to Kaffoury Brothers' store by Saturday at the latest, as the bundles will be boxed and shipped Monday. It is necessary to get the shipment started as early as possible in order that the clothing may reach its destination by the time it is needed, when the cold weather begins.

Highwaymen Elusive—No trace of the three automobile highwaymen who held up J. V. Shank of Albany on the Pacific highway about two miles north of Albany late Tuesday night, has been found in Salem. The police have received no report of their apprehension elsewhere. The robbers obtained $1.45 each for their troubles as the victim was relieved of only $4.35.

Opening Event at Pacific City—Pacific City will open the season with a dance on Friday and Saturday nights and Sunday afternoon, May 29, 30 and 31. Music by Pacific City's seven piece orchestra. All star musicians. Two hotels, restaurant, cottages, apartments and tent houses now open. Accommodations for all. Everybody invited. Everybody come. m-29

Memorial Services Held—Memorial services were held in nearly all of the public and state schools yesterday, with Civil War veterans, Spanish war veterans and members of the disabled veterans organization and the American legion making short talks. The addresses were given during the morning and afternoon both, while several of the men spoke at two schools.

Sale Is Confirmed—By order of the court, R. S. Marshall, executor of the estate of Thomas Mahan, has permission to sell personal property belonging to the estate.

Local Girl to Wed—A majority of those contemplating matrimony these days are holding off until after the first of the month, but not so Thomas L. Shelford of McCloud, Cal., and Juanita Webb, 970 South Commercial, who were issued a marriage license Wednesday. Mr. Shelford is a railroad fireman.

Hunt Brothers Will Begin—On strawberries Wednesday morning. m30

Would Adopt Girl—Petition of Mr. and Mrs. William Blake, route 8, to adopt Freida Mae Hewitt, age 6, was filed with the county clerk yesterday. The little girl has no mother and has been making her home with the Blakes. Her father lives in Portland.

Make Final Accounting—There is now on hand a balance of $4594.77 to be distributed among the seven heirs of John Craig, according to the final accounting of John B. Craig and Robert W. Craig, executors of the estate.

One Is Fined—Fines in the police court have been few and far between during the last few days, but Floyd Burson, 1295 Leslie, got on the books Wednesday with a $5 fine for driving an automobile without a muffler.

Orders Issued—The public service commission yesterday issued an order granting to the department of the interior, United States Indian field service authority to construct a grade crossing over the tracks of the Southern Pacific company on the Klamath Indian reservation. An order was issued granting to the Umatilla county court authority to construct a market road grade crossing over the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation company tracks at Adams. The Central Pacific Railway company was granted authority to construct a railroad line at grade over five county roads in Klamath county.

Will Have Fine Floats—Under plans prepared at a special meeting of the committee in charge of floats for the annual Marion county Sunday school picnic to be held June 21, each school will be permitted to have one or more floats to carry out ideas, but only one idea is to be developed. It was announced last night by Fred DeVries, president. Members of the committee in charge of floats are Rev. R. I. Putnam, Rev. C. C. Poling and Dr. Carl Miller. The committee has ruled that if more than one float is used, these should be together. Ideas embracing history, scope, influence or methods of work are desired, whether the ideas are along foreign or local work. Each school is to have a banner in advance of its float, giving the name of the school and the idea. Col. Carrie Abrams will be grand marshal of the day, and requests that no children shall march in the parade.

Bailey Appointed—Edward F. Bailey of Junction City yesterday was appointed by Governor Pierce a member of the World war veterans state aid commission to succeed Mark Weatherford of Arlington, who has resigned. Mr. Weatherford was appointed on the commission a few months ago, but resigned because of ill health and the time required in attending the meetings of the board.

Shipments are starting—

The first shipments on a commercial scale from the coming great mining district at Salem's front door.

There is no boom in the Sautin mining district; but the steady development that is under way will, after a while, look like a boom, compared with the dull, hard years of working and waiting.

Pussyfoot Johnson says the whole world is going dry—and it looks that way to some of our strawberry growers.

But June is near, and we have very, very seldom failed to get our June rains.

The cherry growers are looking for that cheery cherry buyer, yelet Mr. Raas. He has helped them out in former years.

A Salem barber of mature years says he wonders if any one else remembers the time when the popular beau was the one who owned a tandem bicycle.

If a genius has to advertise that he is, he isn't.

If you are worrying about the hereafter, it merely indicates that you are concerned about your present or your past.

Why hunt trouble? Keep still and it will hunt you.

It is diplomacy if you get away with it; hypocrisy if you don't.

A good neighbor is one who can tell you what's the matter with your car and then helps you fix it.

Automobiles Should Stop At Crossings, Says Moore

Will Moore, state insurance commissioner, said yesterday that he will use his influence for legislation to require all automobiles to come to a full stop before crossing railway tracks. Moore admitted that this may be out of his jurisdiction, but said there is an insurance angle to the question because of the risks that would be cut down. He cited a tragedy that occurred near Albany recently when he was a passenger on an Oregon Electric train and helped extricate three mangled persons from beneath a car that was demolished by the train.

Silverton Society Has Small Crowd at Concert

SILVERTON, Or., May 28.—(Special to The Statesman.)—The Silverton Choral society drew but a small crowd at its concert Tuesday night. The numbers given were of an excellent quality and showed a great deal of work on the part of those appearing and their director, Tom Kaarhus. A
