GIBBONS WINS DECISION OVER FRENCH CHAMP

French man retreated limping. Gibbons fought cautiously, ever suspecting that Carpentier was feigning injury. The tenth round was a slaughter, Gibbons landing when and wherever he pleased.

Today's contest was the most successful financially for Gibbons in his 16 years of ring campaigning. The gate receipts probably will be the largest in ring history for a match in which no title was involved.

Gibbons, who did not get a dime for the battle of Shelby, Mont., last July 4, received 30 per cent of today's receipts.

Officials tonight announced the total receipts were $227,397.50. Carpentier received $70,000 and Gibbons got $61,781. The total paid attendance was 16,568, but officials estimated that between 7000 and 8000 crushed the gate by storming into the $10 section.

DAIRYING HELD TO BE PILLAR

Scollard, Washington Breeder, Addresses Jersey Chautauqua

The big meeting of the session at the Oregon Jersey Chautauqua was the Wednesday night meeting held in the Pavilion on the State Fair grounds.

The program consisted of an address by J. A. Scollard, President of the United Dairy Association of Washington with headquarters in Seattle and himself a prominent breeder, of Chehalis, Washington.

Mr. Scollard announced that his association has 7,000 members and operated ten plants on the cooperative plan in the state of Washington, that they were very much interested in cooperation and were making a success of it.

That is a small indication of what will happen to the states of Oregon and Washington if the encroachment of margarine is allowed to continue. It is even now affecting us seriously because southern California is one of the best markets for the surplus dairy products from Oregon and Washington.

Mr. Scollard said that his state of Washington was named after illustrious George Washington, our first president, who, while famous for many things, he liked to think of as a farmer; because George Washington was a farmer, and a good one.

The manufacture of oleomargarine started in 1870, but it was not until 1916 that the present method of handling vegetable oil, manufacturing it into imitation butter known as margarine, was adopted.

There are now twenty-four million cows in the United States that produce one hundred billion lbs. of milk last year. The total value of the dairy products of the United States last year was three billion dollars.

Dairying is the main pillar of agriculture today. It is the most important industry in America. There is invested in the dairy industry almost twice the capital of any other industry in the country.

The cost of coconut oil is about 3 cents a pound now. How can we dairymen compete with that product. The average production per cow in our state is 168 pounds. At eight cents a pound the average cow would earn $13.44 a year.

There is no question in any intelligent person's mind about the value of vitamins for the health of mankind. We cannot question the opinion of Dr. McCullom who declares that it is impossible for the white race to survive without dairying products.

It would be a calamity to Washington, said he, to pass the law in Oregon and kill it in Washington, and he should feel very sorry for Oregon dairymen if it passed in Washington and was killed in Oregon.

The basis of the payment of this salary is wrong. Any increase in revenue from whatever source thus contributes to this salary.

While this commission does not presume to say what compensation may be paid, it has said heretofore and now does say in this case what may reasonably be required to be contributed as an operating expense by the rate payer for the service rendered by him.

CONTRACT IS LET FOR BRIDGE AT HARRISBURG

The state highway commission announces that a contract for the construction of a bridge across the Willamette river at Harrisburg has been awarded to the Portland Bridge company.

The low bid was $183,200. There were 10 bidders.

This bridge will replace the old ferry which has handled the Pacific highway travel at Harrisburg for years.

Congestion at the ferry has caused much delay in recent years. Active construction operations will begin at once and it is expected that the structure will be open for travel in the early fall of 1925.

The Harrisburg bridge is financed by Lane and Lane counties and the state, each contributing one-third of the cost.

At a meeting to be held by the commission June 12 bids will be received for the construction of a bridge over the Willamette river at Albany.
