His body was found in a vertical position in about 12 feet of water, near where his fishing pole was discovered. The body was brought to the surface with a hook and taken to a Statton undertaking parlor. NUT GROWERS FORM NEW ASSOCIATION

Organization of the Salem Nut Growers Cooperative association, for the purpose of marketing the great amount of filberts and walnuts grown in this section of the state, has been effected and the articles of incorporation filed. The association will be a non-profit and non-stock corporation with a membership fee of $5. It is to be financed by a 2 1/2 per cent revolving fund. Membership will include growers from Salem, Silverton, Dallas, Monmouth and Lebanon districts and it is expected at least 50 growers will be affiliated during the summer months.

Officers of the association are A. L. Page, Jefferson, president; N. P. Adams, Salem, vice president, and W. L. Staley, Salem, secretary. The incorporators are Ira C. Powell, Monmouth; T. H. Brooke, Silverton; N. P. Adams, Salem; A. L. Page, Jefferson, and Earl Peasey, Salem. As far as walnut sales are concerned, the association will be affiliated with the state selling exchange. The new association will probably use the equipment of the Oregon Growers Cooperative association in handling the nuts for grading and packing.

EDITORIALS OF THE PEOPLE

Editor Statesman: We observe the results of the meeting at the capitol for consideration of the purchase of grounds for the boys' industrial school and we can heartily approve the results. We cannot understand why every imaginable thing that will add to our financial burden should be brought forth at this time when our taxes have become burdensome and our farmers are depressed. We must have these institutions. The boys are well cared for and if more room and equipment is absolutely necessary, then give them what we can afford, but respect the taxpayers. Oh, they say the money is on hand. Then we say, use what is actually required and let the balance be appropriated to other state expenses and let any new location remain on the tax roll. They say we must get out of sight of the state prison. We believe that a six-mile glimpse of the penitentiary would have a wholesome influence. They say we can segregate and use the present site in addition. This means another superintendent, matron and a full set of officers at high priced salaries of which we have too many now. The claim of self support is fallacious and worn thread-bare, and would come more nearly doubling the present expense. Times have materially changed since the first inauguration of this move three years ago.

WHY I WROTE "AIN'T ANGIE AWFUL"
By Gelett Burgess

"Nobody loves me!" The saddest words in any language including the Scandinavian, excepting "Please Remit!"

It was a beautiful girl with adenoids who walked into my mind. She was vulgar, but she was charming. She was silly, but she amused me. Only 16 she was—just between girlhood and womanhood, but what does that matter, if the heart be young? She had cow-like eyes, but did not moo—that was her pathos. A temperament like a mustard plaster, and, in a brain that had refused to jell, one hungry idea roamed, like a fat cat in a vast cathedral. Its name was Get Married. Life was hard for Angie, so hard that it was practically indigestible. At times she didn't even know where her next kiss would come from. She appealed to me all over, but especially in the funny bone.

BITS FOR BREAKFAST

June is here.

Now for the June rains.

Perhaps some folks will be complaining, in a couple of weeks, about the rain cracking the cherries.

Looks like all our strawberries are going to find a market. Portland firm wants 20 to 30 tons of Treblas to put into barrels. Some of the other buyers were sidestepping Treblas; thought the cost was too high for stemming them, etc., etc. Now, bring on your Treblas. Ward K. Richardson, down on North Front street, has the Portland order for the Treblas.

The man who wrote for the Portland Chamber of Commerce paper the words about flax, printed on the first page of The Statesman of this morning, knows what he is talking about; knows flax.

Salem tansorial artists says the sap in some of the presidential timber is mostly in the head. Magnus Johnson says government ownership is the only solution of the railroad problem. A Salem barber wonders what a nationalized railroad under the management of our Magnus Johnsons would look like.

Russell Brooks of Salem is to be vice consul at Belfast. He will be able to tell the people of the Belfast of the old world about the coming-Belfast of the new world.

Some one suggests that if the state training school had a farm producing a large surplus of tree and bush fruits, it might in some years be up against the marketing problem. Well, it would not be a long jump to a state cannery and jam and jelly factory.

The government needs help, the people need help. Only God is equal to the occasion; and I wish He would hurry.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

Lumber Company Will Close Several Weeks

SILVERTON, Or., May 31.—(Special to The Statesman.)—Due to a fire in the lumber woods near Mehama and to the off condition of the lumber market the Silver-ton Lumber company will close down this week for its annual cleanup. As a rule this vacation is not taken until later in the season. During the closed period the mill will be given a general over-hauling and the log pond will be dredged and put in first-class condition.

Poor Eyesight Scientifically Corrected

Latest and Best Equipment Used

There are thousands of pairs of correctly-fitted glasses in and around Salem. I know they are correctly fitted, for I did the work myself. There is no guesswork about it!

I have been fitting glasses for more than a third of a century, and I take pride in fitting each and every pair correctly.

The necessary skill to achieve such results can be acquired only by years of close study and active, practical experience. In fact, scientific knowledge of the highest order is required to recognize and properly correct defects of vision.

It is extremely unsafe to permit anyone, not thoroughly qualified, to test your eyesight and prescribe glasses for you. I positively will not recommend glasses unless they are necessary, and you will find that my prices are very reasonable for the service and the materials you will receive.

I guarantee satisfaction in every respect.
