

Big Connecticut Party Now on Way to Salem

J. E. Dunlap, 1617 Oak street, has received word that relatives of his, Clifford Moynihan and family, are on their way to Salem from Manchester, Conn., by automobile. They started May 19, and on May 25 were in Oakbrook, Wis., where it was cold and raining. They are now in Yellowstone park. The Manchester Herald says of their trip: "With a full camping outfit, and protection in the shape of a German police dog, Clifford Moynihan will leave tomorrow morning by auto for Salem, Ore. With him will be his wife, two children, Mrs. Moynihan, his mother, two sisters, Miss Helen and Miss Julia, and his brother, John.

"The trip, which will be taken by way of Buffalo and Niagara Falls, will include stops at most of the places of interest along the way. The party intends to spend a few days in the national parks. They will be on the road about three or four weeks, ending up in Salem about the last of June.

"Clifford Moynihan is a Manchester boy. He is a graduate of the South Manchester high school and was a member of both the baseball and basketball teams of that institution during his stay there. After leaving high school he was employed at the home office of the Phoenix Fire Insurance company and was at one time an agent for that company. "He took up the barber trade and was employed by P. H. Dougherty until two years ago when he started a business of his own on Main street near Eldridge. He has sold this business to Edward Zimmerman, who will conduct it from now on."

Reginald Denny Feature at Grand

Reginald Denny has boxed a lot of fast rounds in the "Leather Pushers" and did some pretty fast riding in "The Kentucky Derby," but all of the speed of these productions is as "slow motion" in comparison to the blaze of speed that Reg shows in "Sporting Youth," his newest feature in the Grand theater. He plays the role of an automobile racing driver and Denny is noted in the film colony for racing driving, so the things he does in that play are plenty. The story is from the pen of the famous Byron Morgan and Harry A. Pollard directed its filming.

THOUGHTS FOR EVERY DAY

By Editor J. B. Parker of the Conway (Arkansas) News.

Debt is the one general evil that besets most people—young and old—who do not know the value of a dollar.

Young married couples so often go "on the rocks" just because they permit envy and selfishness and vanity to run away with their judgment.

They try to run before they have learned to walk well in the spending of money. They never look ahead for the "rainy day" that is sure to come, when poverty will hit them hard.

Wise young people save while they're young that they may be able to live easy and independent when they reach the age that prohibits them from being actively employed.

Of course it requires moral courage to deny one's self of things that vanity prompts buyings but sensible individuals will find the more joy in dollars saved than in the reckless spending merely to please a selfish nature.

If in your affairs in your daily walk through life you would "Stop, Look, and Listen," as carefully as you do at railway crossings you would commit fewer blunders and make more friends for yourself.

Spirited School Election Promised for Silvertown

SILVERTOWN, Or., May 31.—(Special to The Statesman.)—Silvertown school election will be held June 16. In order to care for the number of people who vote at the school election the district has been divided into two precincts this year. At this election two directors will be elected to serve for a period of three years. The two whose terms expire are Dr. C. W. Keene, present chairman, and J. W. Widness. The Woman's Civic club of Silvertown and the Lutheran Brotherhood have formed committees and are presenting the following two candidates to the public: Dr. Keene and Carl Lowe. There will also be presented to the taxpayers of the district the proposal to raise an additional tax of $10,000 to pay the cost of construction of four additional rooms to the Eugene Field building.
