Madame Kurtichanov

A real treat is in store for Salem music lovers when tomorrow night Madame Kurtichanov, lyric soprano of Chicago, appears in concert recital at the Seventh Day Adventist church at the corner of Fifth and Gaines streets. A graduate of the Royal Academy at London, and a winner of an outstanding scholarship, Madame Kurtichanov has achieved much distinction under famous artists. On invitation she sang recently before the Chicago Woman's club, receiving a large amount of applause. Her voice has attracted the attention of Madame Meiba who expressed a desire to assist her in its training.

Not the least among Madame Kurtichanov's winning qualities are her charming personality and quiet pose on the stage. It is expected that a capacity house will greet Madame Kurtichanov on her first appearance in Salem. The concert will begin at 8 o'clock. There will be no admission charged, and all are warmly invited to attend.

Margaret Holden Rippey, daughter of Dr. W. B. Rippey of Portland will accompany Madame Kurtichanov. Mrs. Rippey who is of Loma Linda, California, is a very talented pianist.

The following program is promised:

- (a) "Out of the Mist" . . . . . Moss
- (b) "Hear ye Israel" . . . . . Mendelssohn
- (c) "Spring Song" . . . . . Nevin
- (d) Rain . . . . . Curran

THE largest formal tea of the week will be that of this afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. A. Roberts, 494 North Winter street, with Mrs. Curtis Cross a joint hostess. Over 175 invitations have been issued for the affair.

Covers will be placed for 250 guests next Wednesday evening, June 11, at the First Methodist church when the alumni of Willamette university meet for their annual commencement day banquet. Ronald Glover, '06, will be toastmaster for the occasion. Justice George Brown will be the speaker. The committee in charge of the program includes Mrs. F. L. Utter, chairman; Miss Beryl Holt, Miss Grace Collins, Mrs. Ellen Anderson Fisher and Miss Lella Johnson.

D. Lester Fields is president of the association.

Mrs. E. C. Cross and Mrs. Fritz Slade entertained jointly yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cross for the pleasure of Miss Helen Robe, bride-elect. The delightful affair was in the nature of a tea and handkerchief shower. Attractive old fashioned bouquets in pastel shades were used about the rooms and on the tea table. Mrs. L. S. Robe and Mrs. J. J. Roberts poured, assisted by Mrs. W. Connel Byer and Mrs. Harry Hawkins.

Those bearing pre-nuptial greetings to Miss Robe in this charming way were: Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. Homer Egan, Mrs. Allan Jones, Miss Florence Cartwright, Mrs. Brazier Small, Mrs. W. Carl ton Smith, Mrs. Frederick Lamport, Mrs. William Lytle, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Miss Bernice Bright, Miss Nell Thielson, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. Rex Sanford, Mrs. Fred Thielson, Miss Charlotte Zetler, Miss Ruth Austin, Miss Josephine Baumgartner, Miss Maxine Buren, and Mrs. W. pot; recording secretary, Mrs. Myrtle Reeves; corresponding secretary, Miss Eva Richards; and treasurer, Mrs. Ruby Lanham. A session of song, led by Mrs. L. Moing Clark, preceded the dinner. Mrs. Clark later pleased the guests with two whistling solos. Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith sang in her charming manner the song, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia." Mrs. Clark proposed the toast of appreciation to Mrs. Ora McIntyre, retiring president. Mrs. McIntyre's interest in the club has been untiring. She responded with appropriate words of appreciation for the fine manner in which the club has cooperated with her, introducing then the new president, Dr. Purvine.

A number of committee reports were given, with Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith making pointed recommendations regarding matters of legislation.

A diverting program further interested the members. Enjoyable among the numbers was the play, "The Rehearsal," directed by Miss Mirpah Blair, members of the club from the state library composing the cast. Those taking part were Mrs. Bellinger, Miss Myrtle Richardson, Miss Nellie Patchin, Miss Mary Ward, Miss Zee Gossin, and Miss Pauline Ritchie. "The Morning Call," a humorous reading, was given with a fitting interpretation by Mrs. Norma Terwilliger. She responded to the demands of her audience with a short reading, "The Charm."

Miss Leora Carver spoke in informing detail on the work at the Deaf school where she is teacher. The next meeting of the club will be at the country home of Miss Cornelia Marvin in Polk county later in the month.

The members of the Unitarian Alliance will be guests this afternoon of Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner.

Meeting Wednesday to greet Miss Elizabeth Levy who has just returned from study with Caesar Thompson in New York City, a large number of the members of the Salem Music Teachers' Association met for the last club evening of the spring, at the Levy home on Court street.

At the business meeting of the evening Miss Levy was elected secretary of the association to take the place of Mrs. Julia Weigel Brooks who, since her marriage, has gone to Portland to make her home. A discussion of the convention which will hold sessions in Eugene was given. Delegates were not elected.

Luncheon was served, after which Miss Levy interested her guests with conversation concerning her study in the east.

The association will resume its meetings early in October.

The pipe organ concert last evening at the First Presbyterian church was one of the most interesting musical affairs of the week, Professor T. S. Roberts presenting
