Alley Cats Defeated By Sluggers Yesterday

The State Street Sluggers walked off DeHarport's Alley Cats yesterday morning in the Monkey League series by a score of 10 to 8. The superior pitching of Waters backed up by O. Beechler, who won the closely matched game. It looked like the Sluggers were due for a beating up to the last inning as the Alley Cats had their last bat, and started to make a herry go round off of Roeder who went in as pinch pitcher. The star of the game, outside the battery, was Andy Gump Lutz and Ludefer Steinbock for the Alley

Cats. Don Bernard and Edwards also starred. In the game between Howton and Shedeck, Shedeck failed to show up and forfeited to Howton. The game between Kapphann's Horse Flies and Schel's Rinky Dinks was 13 to 10 in favor of the Rinky Dinks. Kapphann's team has been a tall order but going up against Cy Cobb Walker they surprised him and almost won by superior head work.

Two teams, Schel and Waters, are tied for first and the scraps will be carried to the bitter end. Outside umpires have been agreed upon. Biddy Bishop will umpire balls and strikes and Glen Gregg bases. Admission 12 pins. Please don't bring any safety pins or tacks. Safety first.

Salem Senators to Play Astoria This Afternoon

The Salem Senators will play the Astoria baseball team at Astoria today, weather on the coast permitting. The Senators, under the command of Manager Biddle Bishop, will leave for Astoria on an early train and expect to return about midnight tonight. Bishop is taking along an extra pitcher or two, and otherwise will have his regular lineup of old reliable.

Women Qualify for Play-Off At Illihee Golf Links

The following women have qualified for the play-off in the annual ladies' handicap tournament of the Illihee Country club for the Pomeroy & Keene silver trophy and are matched as follows:
Mrs. Ercel Kay vs. Mrs. T. A. Livesley; Mrs. Ed. L. Baker vs.

Mrs. Hugh McCammon; Mrs. H. H. Olinger vs. Mrs. Oris Fry; Mrs. Oliver Locke vs. Mrs. Paul Hendricks.
Mrs. Kay and Mrs. Baker tied for the low medal score, accordingly win the prize offered by Z. J. Riggs. The handicaps in these matches are posted at the clubhouse and the play will be arranged according to the convenience of the contestants and the semi-finals should be reached by June 13.

The handicap tournament for president's cup is on now for the qualifying round, 16 low men to participate in the play-off.

Silverton Cannery Does Big Business With Berries

SILVERTON, Ore., June 7.—(Special to The Statesman).—With the first week of the Silverton cannery season brought to a close the Silverton Foods Product company has 9000 cans and 17 barrels of strawberries to its credit. These are New Oregon and Willson berries. Cannery officials report that the mountain berries will not begin to arrive much before the first of July and will probably last for about three weeks.

Miss Mary Plass of Mount Angel has been engaged as assistant bookkeeper.

The Silverton Foods Product company opened this season under a new management of which John Goplerud is at the head. Cannery superintendent is A. J. Brownell, with C. J. Cooley as assistant. M. C. Storruite is the bookkeeper.

WEATHER SMILES ON RACING CREWS

University of Washington Crew Demonstrating Skill in Practice Work

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 7.—A hot sun missing during the week, smiled today on crews preparing here for the intercollegiate regatta, June 17.

Washington hit it up today in its first time trial on the Hudson, covering a mile in 4:48. The shell boiled through the water at a speed which drew the admiration of the eight and evidently caused perturbation as the westerners got well in their stride.

Coach Ed Leader of Yale today refused to accept a challenge from Coach Rusty Callow of Washington for a race of from three miles up after the close of the regatta. Leader said it was impossible for Yale "to consider additional races this year."
