I WALKED WITH LUNA

I walked once with Luna
Who led me away
By paths that I cannot
Follow by day.

I heard the buds open
And flutter alive
The rustlings when laggard
Dryads arrive.

The little white owls
From their holes withdrew
And a star trailed after us
Tremblingly blue.

The ghost of a little
White birch that died
Moved eagerly, timidly
Close by my side.

But soon grew a silence,
The shadows drew nigh,
For Luna the wilful
Was fleetier than I.

CLARA VIRGINIA BARTON

ONE of the most attractive of June brides was Miss Helen Robe whose marriage at 11 o'clock yesterday morning to Frederick Deckebach was the outstanding nuptial event of the week. The ceremony, performed in a quiet manner at St. Paul's Episcopal church, the Reverend H. D. Chambers officiating, was witnessed by only close friends and relatives.

The bride, who was unattended, was charming in the becoming loveliness of blue chiffon with gold cloth. She wore an attractive small hat and carried a Colonial bouquet combining a variety of blossoms. Richard Slater acted as best man. The altar was artistic with sprays of red rose. Mrs. W. Carlton Smith sang, "Oh, Thou Sweet, Fair, and Holy," before the reading of the service. Miss Paloma Prouty played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride was given in marriage by Frank Spears.

A wedding breakfast at the Marion hotel followed the ceremony. Mrs. Russell Catlin, aunt of the bride, presiding as hostess. Covers were placed for sixteen including only members of the two families.

Mrs. Deckebach is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Robe of Chicago, Alaska. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Deckebach.

After a fortnight at Agate Beach where they will occupy the Thiesen cottage, Mr. and Mrs. Deckebach will be at home at the Court Apartments.

Miss Ruth Field, who arrived home recently from Calcutta, India, was the honor guest at the meeting last evening of the Berean class of the First Methodist church which was held in the form of a dinner party at the home of Mrs. Almira Hale. The group present for the evening included: Miss Ruth Field, Miss Hetta Field, Miss John Phillipot, Miss Mabel Bouhey, Mrs. W. D. Smith, Miss Mildred Simons, Mrs. Mark Simmons, Miss Mabel Temple, Miss Alma Pohle, Miss Flora Cunningham, Miss Jessie Martin, Miss Grace Taylor, Miss Grace Smith, Miss May Hale, Miss Laura Hale, Miss Lillian Hale, and Miss Almira Hale.

Miss Cornelia Marvin entertained in a most gracious manner on Friday evening the members of the Cosmopolitan club at her interesting country home, with Mrs. George M. Brown, Mrs. Blair, and Mrs. F. G. Franklin, the hostess-group with her. After a delicious buffet supper, the guests comprising eight Filipino, two Chinese, and 3 Japanese students listened in an intent manner to Miss Marvin's stimulating talk on her knowledge of the Orient and the Islands. Miss Marvin has in her home a particularly interesting decorative motif that was of great interest to her guests.

Mrs. E. C. Murphy, a former Salem resident with a wide circle of friends here, was complimented in a delightful manner early last week when Mrs. W. P. Lord entertained with a garden tea. Mrs. Alice H. Dodd cut the ices. Those pouring were Mrs. William Brown and Mrs. George Pearce. They were assisted by Miss Elizabeth Lord and Miss Oda Chapman.

Twenty-four former friends of Mrs. Murphy were her guests for the afternoon in the Lord's lovely garden.

Of interest to her many friends was the announcement on Wednesday evening of the engagement of day evening of the engagement of Miss Genevieve Findley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley to George Oliver of Pomeroy, Washington.

The delightful news was conveyed in a unique manner to the members of the Delta Phi sorority of which Miss Findley is a member at a lawn and house party at the Findley home on Wednesday evening. During the evening, Miss Louise Dotson, who is a group of accompaniments for appropriate songs. Miss Edith Findley played a cornet solo.

Both Miss Findley and Mr. Oliver have been especially popular in Willamette university circles. Miss Findley, graduating with the class of '23 has been studying music during the winter at Boulder, Colorado. At the university she was for two years accompanist for the Ladies' Glee club. A member of the Philodorian literary society, she was second semester president during her senior year.

Mr. Oliver who is a member of this year's graduating class has received appointment as student secretary of the YMCA for next year at the University of Idaho. He is president of the university YMCA and of the Sigma Tau fraternity. He belongs to the Philodorian literary society. During his college career he has taken an active part in athletics.

At the meeting Friday afternoon of the women's union of the First Congregational church, Miss Marian Wyman spoke interestingly of her sister who is a missionary in India. Mrs. D. J. Fry, a. w. the hostess of the day, being assisted by Mrs. H. L. Clay, Mrs. M. W. Cawthorne and Mrs. C. M. Lockwood. Mrs. Newton McCoy had charge of the program.

The meeting of the Salem Arts' league at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening at the library promises to be of especial interest. A delightful and varied program has been arranged with Mrs. F. S. Barton in charge. A feature of the evening will be the showing of a small group of new autochromes by Robert C. Paulus. The pictures will be shown in natural color as slides, taking a quarter of an hour. Professor Morton E. Beck will read the "Soliloquy of a Beetle" from his humorous verse. Mrs. Gertrude Robinson Ross will read an original short story, "Rosemary." Mrs. Ruth Fargo will give two poems, "Insomnia" and "How Old?" F. S. Barton will sing a group of melodies, with just the guitar accompaniments. Mrs. Blanche M. Jones will read a spring poem, "Maytime."

The regular business meeting of the league will follow the program at which time the annual election of officers will take place.

Mrs. Henry Meyers is home, following three weeks in San Francisco where she was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sargent.

Mrs. B. Blatchford and Miss Lorlei Blatchford will leave next Sunday for Eugene on their way to Berkeley where they will spend eight weeks. They will be accompanied south by Mrs. Harriett Durkheimer and Miss Lina Heist. Mrs. Durkheimer will visit with friends in southern California, while Miss Heist and Miss Blatchford will take work in the summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Jorgenson and three children, Polly Anna, Victor, Jr., and Marita will be guests from Portland today of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Eyre.

A picnic for the early evening hours of Tuesday, June 10, was planned at the last meeting of the Highland Parent-Teacher association. The children, who must be accompanied by their parents, will go for the occasion to River View park from 4 to 8 o'clock. Games and races will be features of the evening. Combining the lunches which everyone is asked to bring, together with his own luncheon service, a delicious picnic supper will be served. The association will furnish coffee, cream, and sugar.

A second feature of the Thursday afternoon meeting was the announcement that Highland library, a branch of the city library, will be open to patrons on every Wednesday evening, with any so wishing entitled to draw out books. Mr. R. De Spain was appointed as a committee of one to obtain a sign board for the library. The association in further session went definitely on record as opposing the removal of property restrictions on voters in school matters.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon Miss Marian Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Roberts, 315 Shipping street, will become the bride of Mark J. Wilbur. The marriage service will be read at the Jason Lee Methodist church, Reverend Thomas A. Acheson officiating. The members of the wedding party will take their places at the altar to the impressive strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. Miss Lena Dotson at the piano. The bride, gowned in brocaded tulle, will wear a full length veil caught with orange blossoms. She will carry a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and sweet peas. Mrs. Irving Roberts of Portland will be matron-of-honor. She will wear pastel green. Miss Lena Gilbert and Miss Gladys Gilbert will be bridesmaids. Frocked in apricot they will wear corsages of lavender sweet peas and white carnations.

John, Miss Charlotte Zeller, Miss Elizabeth Taft, Miss Helen Marcus, Miss Virginia Dorcas, Miss Rowena Eyre, Miss Doris Nye, Miss Violet Dusenbury, Miss Mary Cupper, Miss Elva Franklin, Miss Maurine Styles, Miss Loretta Fisher, Miss Mildred Pugh, and Miss Florence Power.

A group of violin pupils of Professor William Wallace Graham will appear at 8:30 Wednesday evening at Waller hall in one of the most interesting of the June recitals. The talented group to be presented includes Miss Mildred Roberts, Miss Jeanie Corsick, Miss Mary Keith, Mrs. Mary Talmadge Headrick, Miss Kathryn Kirk, Miss Eva Loper, Miss Helen Selig, Miss Kathryn Staats, Kenneth Allen, and Tommy Lively.

Contrary to his usual custom, Professor Graham is not issuing formal invitations, but the interested public is invited.

Mrs. J. J. Roberts and Miss Ruth Bedford will play the evening's piano accompaniments.

Mrs. A. N. David of Atlanta, Georgia, is expected to arrive in Salem the latter part of the week to be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McIntyre, 140 Superior street. Mrs. David, who will be here for the summer, will be accompanied by her little daughters, Jean Frances and Ann Joyce.

H. Sashida presided as host at a 7 o'clock dinner party for the pleasure of Dwight Findley, official delegate from Willamette university.

The members of the KC club chose the afternoon tea as a delightful way in which to complement their adviser, Miss Irene Curtis, bride-elect, yesterday afternoon at the Spa. Miss Curtis was made the recipient of a lovely gift from the group.

Those present for the afternoon were Miss Pauline Knowland, Miss Vivian Elker, Miss Dorothy Hopson, Miss Helen Arpke, Miss Louise Pierson, Miss Lucille Pettyversity on the Friendship Pilgrimage to Japan, last evening at the Gray Belle. Covers were placed for Professor S. B. Laughlin, George Oliver, Merl Bonney, Don Lockwood, and Mr. Maramoto.

The many friends of Miss Dorothy Pearce are anticipating the June piano recital of her younger pupils, which will be given at 8:15 Tuesday evening at the Woman's club house. Miss Nellie Schwab will be the assistant soloist of the evening. Miss Pearce playing her accompaniments. Pupils who will be presented are Edith Glaisyer, Esther Price, Marjorie Marcus, Wayne Doughton, Henry Clement, Margaret Heltzel, Charles Perry, Leone Davidson, Pauline Johnson, Irene Blackerby, Norman Wright, Beryl Hulsey, Reynolds Allen, and Josephine Albert.

Chapter AB of the PEO sisterhood will meet tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Harry Styles, 789 North Summer street, for the last regular meeting until fall. Dr. Mary Rowland, taking as her subject, "Modern Art," will have charge of the program.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, June 7.—Katharine

Marshall of Gervais, who was graduated from the Salem high school in 1920, has been named as one of the honor graduates from the school of commerce this June. Nearly 400 students will be graduated from the college June 9, of which 43 are on the senior honor roll. Miss Marshall had the highest scholastic average of the 1920 Salem high class.

Miss Marshall is a member of Scribe, women's journalistic society, and of Phi Theta Kappa, national honorary fraternity for women in commerce, and was a day editor on the OAC Daily Harbinger this year. She is a member of Xi Beta sorority.

The American Association of University Women will meet for a luncheon at 12:30 o'clock at the

Miller's Beauty Parlor

CELEBRATES

First Anniversary

ONE DAY ONLY --- TUESDAY, JUNE 10TH

AFTER having enjoyed a very successful Beauty Parlor business for the past twelve months, we take this occasion to announce to the ladies of this community, our intention to celebrate our first anniversary in gala fashion. To the first 75 ladies who visit our establishment next Tuesday, June 10th, we will give (free) a handsome vanity comb and case.

One year ago our Beauty Parlor launched forth with one attendant, today we are justly proud of our five members who have been considered only after a thorough examination of their records, chosen only after a practical demonstration of their talents and are retained only by virtue of their ability to please.

Here you are assured the privacy of your own boudoir and may place implicit faith in the professional ability of the attendant whether you seek to multiply your attractions or to restore the grace of charm that has fled.

We cordially invite you to visit us Tuesday.

MRS. EMMA KALKE HALEY, Mgr.
