WILLS-LENGREN MATCH SOUGHT

Tennis Fans Want to See California Girl Matched With French Champion

LONDON, June 9.—British lawn tennis fans are keener than ever for a match between Suzanne Lenglen and Helen Wills after seeing the American champion in real action yesterday at Harpenden.

Miss Wills not only defeated a finished male player in S. H. Jarvis of the Harpenden club, but carried D. M. Greig to 7-9 in a set in which she was at one time two points from victory.

went to the net, where by well placed volleys she won the second game.

The games then went alternately with service and against it until they reached deuce and then six-all. The thirteenth game was hotly contested, the girl finally taking it on Greig's service after deuce had been called four times.

In the next game, with Miss Wills two points from victory, Greig pulled himself together and turned the tide with several several fast drives which barely skimmed the net.
