NEWEST AND MOST DEADLY OF SEAPLANE S CAN BE USED FOR BOMBING, SCOUTING AND TORPEDO-LAUNCHING

This battle plane has been making a series of novel test flights under the supervision of U. S. Navy officials. It can be used not only for bombing and scouting but is equipped to drop torpedoes which on hitting the water move under their own power towards a target. The plane, which has a 585 horsepower motor, is capable of a speed of 90 miles an hour. While not as large as the Martin bomber, this type of ship is bigger than the planes now in use throughout the Naval Air Service.

C. Stanton of Roseburg arrived yesterday and will spend several days in Salem. They will be entertained as house guests, while here by Mrs. W. F. McCall and Mrs. F. W. Poorman.

An interesting new arrival in Salem is Mrs. Raymond H. Anderson, a recent bride, who arrived a week ago from Newport News, and will be joined by her husband this week who comes through from Philadelphia. For awhile they will make their home with Mr. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Anderson of 726 Trade street. It is quite probable that they will locate here. Mr. Anderson has, since the war, been an engineer on a border transport. He is a brother of Mrs. E. L. Kappahn.

Mrs. Eugene Beckerlin, Mrs. E. A. Skelly and Mrs. Eugene Eckert, Jr., returned from a short visit in Portland Tuesday evening.

Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., will be at home this afternoon to members of the Thursday bridge-luncheon club. Tea will follow cards.

Mrs. and Mrs. John McNary entertained the members of the Merry-go-Round club Tuesday night, employing five tables for cards. Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding was an additional guest. High score at five hundred went to F. W. Spencer and Mrs. R. B. Fleming. The club will assemble again next week, with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Thielsen extending an invitation to members.

Mrs. W. F. McCall, Mrs. G. C. Dyer, Mrs. H. B. Thielsen and Mrs. E. C. Cross will be joint hostesses next week when the members of the Thursday club meet for the final session this season—a session that was postponed from this week because of the Rose festival. At the request of Miss Etta Crawford the members will spend the afternoon at the beautiful country place of Hon. John Crawford near Dundee.

Mrs. Walter Spaulding was a Salem visitor at the Rose festival yesterday.

Mrs. Z. J. Riggs, accompanied by Helen Roberts, motored to Portland Tuesday morning. Before their return home in the evening they were dinner guests of Armin Sites, and later attended the performance of "Lightnin'" at the Hellig.

Mrs. Joseph Albert, Mary Jane and Josephine Albert, Mrs. J. C. Griffith and son Wallace Griffith, will go to Portland today to attend the Rose festival. They will return this evening.

After being prevailed upon by friends, Madame Kurtichanov has kindly consented to return to Salem after her Portland recital and give her many friends here another rare treat Saturday night, June 14, in the First Christian church, corner of High and Center at 8:00 p. m.

Madame Kurtichanov is one of Chicago's most loved singers. She won the Oscar Sanger scholarship and is a graduate of the London Royal academy of music.

She has a beautiful lyric soprano voice which has won a great deal of praise by Madame Maffei. Madame Kurtichanov will give several demonstrations on the violin. Margaret Holden Ripsey, daughter of Dr. W. B. Holden of Portland, will assist at the piano. Tickets on sale at Willis music store, Dixie bakery and Moore's music house. The program follows:
