THE OREGON STATESMAN, SALEM, OREGON

CALVIN COOLIDGE

A little Yankee from Massa-posed to be hidebound and narrow, was thrust into the presidency has shown that he is not afraid of Congress, as the country sees.

Speaking in general. Coolidge

The Corvallis Gazette-Times whose editor is secretary of the comb and not have found a better

what he says about it:

June 13, 1924

THE WINDOWS OF HEAVEN: -- Bring ye all the tithes into the President Harding, Every man use, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now rewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room agh to receive it. Malachi 4:10.

PRAYER:-We praise Thee; O God, that Thou dost give as the fit. ortanity to be Thy stewards. May we ever make faithful returns Thee and be counted worthy in Thy sight.

WILL PROTECTIVE TARIFF BE MAIN ISSUE?

The Republican platform adopted at the Cleveland convention is square toed on the protective tariff, and on the elastic clauses of the present tariff law.

What will the Democrats in national convention do about this?

Their leaders do not know.

There seems no other chance to make a main issue between the challenge and is growing every he two great parties—

But the Democratic leaders are making gestures indicating that they fear to take the plunge.

A number of the lesser lights of the Democratic party in ongress have been making some pop-gun assaults on the pres- since adoption of the constitution. int tariff law, with bills thrown into the hopper for home con- 185 years ago, has been fitful and amption-

But they have heard from their constituents, even those of 435 members of the house, all havhe South, where remarkable industrial developments have ing equal authority under the law faculty of unrivaled merit, the een taking place, under the present law; and this gives them and all charged with the duties of school has carried on its work of

One young Democratic member from the city of New York ducive to leadership. And leadersupposedly wishing to please his "farmer" constituency) pro- ship there was never at a lower ed in a bill that all farm implements and "other farm essenebb than now. tials" be placed on the free list-

And he got the horse laugh when he was informed that all White House. It was there in the and present efficiency must be aricultural implements, binder twine and most other "essen- nearly eight years that Roosevelt maintained. Furthermore, anytials" of use on the farm are already on the free list.

Another Democratic member, from an Indiana district under Taft. It was there for the portunities enlarged and its field having no beet sugar factories, proposed to reduce the duty on greater part of the Wilson adminsugar-and he soon discovered that this would be playing into istration, but vanished with the the hands of the Cuban sugar trust barons and gamblers, and breakdown of Mr. Wilson.

would ruin the sugar industry of this country, including the It came back only measurably of the country by his reckless and cane sugar industry in the South; and that this would then under Harding, who made the mis- extravagant testimony. He was name?" asked Mrs. Wallace of result in higher prices to our sugar consumers as high as the take, in the judgment of many set down as the biggest liar in Teddy, four years old. Tuban corsairs had a mind to go, after our factories were all triends and admirirs, of trying con- America and did his best to merit anybody. It was a clear-cut in- is right, and there are others who float on the surface. It was fascisive demand that the guilty be insist that it is not right. Those cinating to see the lightning flash punished, no matter to what party who argue the latter insist a man of her paws when she had lured owes it to his family, those who a fish within reach. hey belonged.

"Gluttony, however, was her Incidentally compare this plank must bare the stigma of suicide, end. Full of fish and pride she with the one that will be adopted to live to the end, no matter how fell asleep one day, forgetting to by the democrats and you will bitter that end may be. There are unbait herself. A big pickerel see the dignified statesman-like three things we must not transmit yanked her into the water and she pronuncio as against the diatribes to our posterity if we can help it. was drowned. The fish doubtless

The first is the crime of murder; ate her, for they are as fond of The republican party is going the second is insanity, and the cat as cats are of fish, though they before the country with unequivo- third is suicide. No matter what get much less of it." cal declarations upon all the im- happens, a man has no right to portant questions of today. It put any one of these stigmas on has dodged nothing. It has com- his family if he can help it.

DAWES, V. P.

While the nomination of Charles G. Dawes for vice president on the republican ticket came as a surprise, immediately the nomination was made there was a unijazzing. -Samuel Hoffenstein. Eggsactly!

A Dollar Down!

The hand that rocks the cradle belongs to the nurse. Mama's out

Sayings of Little Socrates worry about mine.

versal volume of approval. Gene-"John, do you know that in my native country it used to be so hot If there ever was a time in the ral Dawes does things. He has history of America that there was been a worker always, impatient that we had to keep ice in our demand for leadership that time of red tape but devoted to getcoops where the chickens laid so is today. The parties practically ting results. In the war he had that the eggs wouldn't spoil?"

went to pieces upon the death of tremendous responsibility and af-"H'm! That's nothing. In our terwards he did a work almost country we had to feed the laying as great as director of the budget hens crushed ice to keep them struck out boldly for himself. bureau. Some think Dawes from laying hard-boiled eggs." Every man tried to discredit every greatest work was in providing -Mrs. H. A. Engbrock.

other man. It was a gloomy out- a plan by which Europe could work out his salvation.

Dawes has always been a man Flubb: "Punctuality seems chusetts, where people are sup- of action. He has been in the be a habit with him." thick of every fight that came

b

Bubb: "I'll say so? Why he along, but he always fought fair. even buys his clothes on time!" People believe in him. His nomwith little hope from the party ination will bring strength to the generally that he would develop ticket. As against the deliberate Horoscope Department leadership. He has done so. The and calculating Coolidge, the im-John Elkins: If you were born on June 13, John, the dominant country looks to the president for petuous and active Dawes will apinfluence in your life is Taurus. leadership and experiences disap- peal to the country.

Coolidge and Dawes will pointment at a disarrangement of plans. However, Coolidge has met winners.

There is no theological school in the country doing a better work than Kimball. It has met the challenge of this hour for teaching stitutions, whenever you try to purposely. pure religion fundamentally and borrow money, they suffer noticeguage.

leadership of Dr. Hickman and a other words, Cold Feet.

She wore the bloom of youth upon her cheeks,

There in the moonlight's glow: But how the bloom got on his lips You're not supposed to know. -Charles Hackett.

Amply Protected

"What is your baby brother's "He hasn't any name," replied FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 13, 1924

THE POSSUM HUNTERS WHO WENT TO A FUNERAL

Ever since Tom and Helen could | Tom was getting ready to go | Frank as he and Tom ran up. remember, Tabby had been a mem- possum hunting, so he didn't Then their faces became very long ber of their family. She was a big argue the point with Helen. He as they turned it over. "We've black cat who, in her younger and his cousin Frank Bronson shot old Tabby!" was their horridays, had been very lively and were going out after dark with fied exclamation. The lips that touch liquor should seemed to have almost the intel- their dog and hoped to get a fine, "She must have crept up there ligence of a person. She used to big animal in the woods. Soon to catch sleeping birds," Tom wake up every morning with the Frank came by and when it was mourned. "Poor old thing, too chickens and promptly at seven dark, off they started. feeble to catch them in day time, o'clock she would call the chil- About a mile from the house, but she was still crafty enough to dren by knocking on their bed- the dog suddenly began to give go after them at night."

room doors. How she knew the queer little yelps at the foot of The boys carried old Tabby time, no one ever knew. When a gum-tree. The boys peered up home, dreading to tell Helen. But the doorbell rang, she would trail into the darkness and saw a fine though the little girl was very to the door and if she thought it possum flattened down along a sad, she declared, "Well, she was was not answered promptly, she branch. too old to live longer and that was "Shoot!" whispered Tom, and better than poisoning her. We'll

"Must be a big one,"

SEEK GOVERNOR'S PARDON

CONVICT NO 312

JAILED FOR STEALING OATS

FOR HORSE

would paw and me-ow as if apologizing to the one on the outside Frank did. Something heavy have to dig a grave and bury her for the delay. plumped down and remained mo- at a regular funeral with all her Tabby lived to see her little tib- tionless.

bles have grand-tibbles, and while all the old friends of her cat acquaintances lived their alleged nine lives and died, Tabby lived on. She got so old that her teeth fell out and she became half paralyzed and could hardly see.

"I'm going to give Tabby poi son," declared Tom one day, "The poor old thing can scarcely get around. Teday I saw her try to run for a bird and it nearly broke her heart because she was too lame to catch it. It's too bad to let her go on living when she's so the sign of the Bull. People born blo under that sign can be identified But Helen couldn't bear to see by their genial manners, dark red Tabby killed, though she thought neckties and an overflow of landown in her heart it would be bet-They are very athletic, getting a ter if the old cat were dead, "Maygreat deal of exercise by jumping be she'll die pretty soon," she to conclusions and dodging credit- told Tom, and finally made him ors. Yet, despite their strong cod- promise he would not kill Tabby ways up and doing, doing, in fact,

PROBLEMS

Adele Garrison's New Phase

REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

Copyright 1921. by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

CHAPTER 188

get these into the hands of the "'Get busy, Madge," she said, only man who can handle them, and I accordingly concentrated on Have you anything else to tell what Katherine was repeating, soon had the name and address filed away securely in my memory, and knew that whenever they were needed I could repeat them grandchildren there to pay their cried last respects."

GETS CORNER ON

PRESENT

SHORTAGE

IS DUE TO

A BLACK SHEEP

WHO HOARDED

BAGSFUL

THREE

THE ANIMAL STATESMAN

"Nothing except that Anton told accurately.

'Get Busy, Madge."

"That's all I have to tell you, Joe to watch for a man with a motor car who would pretend to Katherine was saying as I finish be his cousin, and who would come ed, and Lillian moved decisively for him when he was ready to toward the door as she spoke, country this day, girl," she said. It's on the century runs where and though her voice was so low Madge shines that I puncture a outside the room, there was that She repeated a name and the in its timbre which rang inspir- address of a New Jersey town disingly in our ears. "I'm wild to tinctly, as Lillian nodded to me.

that it could not have been heard tire. Here it is."

leave the hospital. He gave Joe "Then Madge and I will lose n this cousin's address, commanded time getting home," she Joe to write when he was permit- "You must have Dr. Pettit take ted to leave, and also asked if he you back to the hospital on thought the hospital authorities double-quick, also. And I do would let him leave more quickly need to tell you to keep a shar if he took his nurse along. There lookout and to let me know The tenseness, the near-agitation is evidently no lack of money in once whatever you hear. You'r which was in Lillian's manner as the people back of Joe and An- a girl in a thousand, Katheri Bickett, and I don't care who hea "No, there isn't," Lillian comme telling you." of the importance she attached to mented dryly. "What did Joe I knew that the half-mock words were praise indeed fr Katherine laughed with a trace Lillian, saw Katherine's face fit with pleasure as she listened. A "Joe declared emphatically that then, Lillian, drawing me She walked swiftly to the win- he wanted me to go along when her; hurried through the door it dow with them, drew a chair to he left the hospital, that he would down the steps to the car. "Step on her, Madge," she them closely, patiently forgetting other nurses were several differ- manded. "I'm mighty angin time, our presence, everything, in ent varieties of monkeys, and that get home and have another the curious fascination the notes I was 'vun peach.' I told you I confab with dear Katie."

legislation, conditions are not con-We have not heard the result of Leadership must come from the increased.

Gaston Means won the contempt teaching pure Christianity.

the deliberations as to its future, was president. It was not there thing so useful must have its op-but this thing we do know. Kimball college with its great record practically. Under the splendid ably from poor circulation; in Taurus people, however, are al-everybody they can, and this democratic feeling makes all classes interesting to them.

Via

driven out of business. And so on and so on.

Perhaps the Democrats of the South will vote the ticket cutive departments of the govern- ecutor who is going to prosecute call him? straight, no matter what the platform says about the tariff. ment. But increasing hosts of them would do so with their fingers if it contained such attacks upon the protective prin- come back under Coolidge. He erica's jurisprudence. ciples as former Democratic platforms have included.

The time may be somewhat distant, but it is coming, when congress. He will not kowtow to the tariff will be taken out of polities, as it should be. It never it. He is courageous, honest, able uld have been dragged into politics-it was an accident that and straightforward. The country it was so dragged in. It is a business matter. It is not a polit- sees that he has set the ship of cal question in any other country.

If it shall be relegated to a lower place than the main issue long line of great American leadthe coming campaign, it will be well on its way out of politics. nd there is a possibility of this. Most of the wise Democratic ers, from Washington to Jefferson, from Jefferson to Jackson, from aders realize that sticking to this dead issue is a piece of Jackson to Lincoln, from Lincoln olitical flapdoodle, and they are getting tired of pretending to Roosevelt, and from Roosevelt to with the new president, Dr. Mary eathe life into a corpse. Wilson.

The Republican platform, in commending the elastic clauses of the present tariff law, does well-in supporting the principle. has broken up into blocs, has gone But it does not go far enough. It is not sufficiently workable. over to radicalism, to false leadership and the petty politics of It is mainly a mere form, in its present shape. Take cherries, demagogues. for instance. They carry a duty of 2 cents a pound. It should be 6 cents a pound. The cherry growers may present a case to the tariff commission. If it has any funds with which to make does not believe in the things that an investigation (they had not a few days ago), that body congress has been believing in. He will not play politics as coninvestigate. If it finds a good case, that body may recomend to the President that the rate be raised. He may, in his gress plays politics. That has crement, raise the duty to 3 cents. That is, he may raise it ated an issue, and that issue, it Mrs. A. W. Buell on their way 50 per cent. He cannot go further. There are many other now seems certain, will be out- to the Rose festival. cases of the kind; some worse ones, especially in cotton goods. standing in the approaching cam-The law should be amended, providing short cuts and brass paign. Hence the call to "rally to tacks rules; using horse sense. The President should be given Coolidge." more latitude. In the same field, the British give their trade PATTERSON FOR CHAIRMAN oners more latitude; a great deal more-in fact, unlimited latitude, to protect labor and capital against ruinous foreign competition. So do the French. In case the protective tariff is made the main issue, how will our cherry growers vote this fall? And our flax growers? And our potato growers? And our producers of things generally on the land? To say nothing of our business people and our working men and women?

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM. It is for comprehensive division of the bureaus of Washington to the

Out of the turmoll and strife, end that we have more economical is entitled to it, as having been out of the conflict of selfish am- government.

Perhaps the next most outstand- Coolidge primary campaign in Orbition, out of the efforts of little men to assume big places there ing declaration is in favor of the egon. We do not know whether has come an unexpectedly strong world court. The time has come or not Mr. Patterson thinks he of its origin. platform. These men who have when America must enter world could spare the time from his en rattling around sobered when affairs and lend its moral influ- farm to undertake this sort of in this way belonged to me. The faced with direct responsibility, ence to rehabilitating the prostrate thing, but if he can be persuaded, whiskers belonged to the cat. and back of everything at the nations. Five and one-half years it should be done. If the republi-Cleveland convention there was have demonstrated that they can cans had followed the advice of the Chapman, used to specific to specific there: Tes, that's what comes the quiet, effective personality of not get up by themselves, and we instead him for sovernor, we would be period at the stream. The es." ent expressions and unmistakable effort to put them on their feet. have had a governor that you altions on public affairs.

The republican platform does will meet hearty response from the in a while." not compromise, does not shilly- American people.

hally in any place. It is a docu-We of the west will naturally ment given out by a strong party look with interest upon the reclawith a record of accomplishment. mation and irrigation planks. The republican pariy's record will That means something. That self because he did not have the sight. be a guarantee to the people that means relief and the president, is this platform will be carried out. planning to get that relief even incurable disease. This opens an Only a few features do we care to before congress convenes.

Teddy ciliation and inviting teamwork the designation. Now he has the between the legislative and exe- audacity to ask to name the pros- surely. What does your mother "Oh, he must have a name, sure-him for his many crimes. This It looks as if real leadership has is unheard of in the annals of Am- said Teddy. "He isn't big enough to get away.' -Lena Bruce Bumbarger.

or any old place at all. But they no longer like him. and Professional woman's club nor even make him fudge; there was a beauty contest, and Jimmy will be announced later in the was the Judge! ! ! week. The following members of to Cleveland, from Cleveland to the executive board met this week -Merle A. Farr.

Giving Him the w. k. Rasp-

"She doesn't have to call him,"

His Name Was Jim:

The girls liked Jim at a picnic, he girls liked Jim at a ball, the girls liked Jim at the seashore.

Purvine: Miss June Philpott, Mrs. Mr. Berry kept a store and, af-Myrtle Reeves, Miss Eva Richter sending out his monthly bills, ards, and Mrs. Ruby Lanham, The three past presidents of the club, got this in answer from one of Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre, Miss Grace his customers:

Taylor, and Miss Mirpah Blair You must be a Goose Berry were also present. To send me a Bill.....Berry

Before it is Due.....Berry Mr. and Mrs. Robert Annin, Miss Vivian Annin, and Mr. and Mrs. Had more sense. Henry Herman were guests on Wednesday at the home of Mr. and And feel very Blue Berry

But I don't care a Straw ... Berry For your Bill Berry Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Mills and HOW TO WRITE WHAT WE three children, Roberta, Ila, and WANT-POETRY Charles Kent, leaving yesterday

Breathes there a reader who loesn't imagine he can write poetry? We doubt it.

In writing the short humor ous or light verse we want, you nust start with these things in nind: a definite idea, an outine or plan of how you will levelop it, and a good knowladge of rhyme and meter. If rou have all but the last, get ogether with someone who can execute your ideas for you.

If you are an excellent verse writer, lacking fresh, salable deas, find those who are fertile with them.

Clip and save FUN SHOP verse. It illustrates what is best-and what we want.

(Tomorrow: Anecdotes) Inflamable

Mildred: "He told me his heart

-Harry J. Williams.

Formerly our government officials were elected because they loved the commonwealth. Today they are rejected because they love the common wealth

Readers are requested to contribute. All humor, epigrams (or humorous mot-foes), jokes, anecdotes, poetry, hur-lesque, satires and bright sayings of children, must be original and unpub-

THE PLAN THAT KATHERINE'S WORK MADE POSSIBLE.

she took Katherine's hastily scrib- ton.' bled notes in her hands told us these fragments of apparent non- answer?" sense which our little friend had jotted down from the conversation of embarrassment. of Anton and Joe.

the light and began to examine not get well if I didn't; that all us?'

had for her. Katherine and I sat had made a conquest." "That's fine in one way." Lilsilently watching her, feeling a rising tide of excitement in our lian answered gravely, "and bad own veins, so plainly did we see in another. However, I think we the vital importance which Lillian may guarantee to keep a watch on attached to the scribbled words Mr. Joe after you leave the hospital with him. It's going to be and figures.

Through the open window the a risky business going into the occasional whir of a motor car, the house where I think I shall have temporarily from the mast of clatter of a farm team, the voices to send you, but there'll be at least Elysee palace when M. Mill Your father, the Elder Berry of school children punctured the one other government operative in for nearly four years the peace of the sleepy village. As the house, and others outside, so executive of France, resign You must look very Black. . Berry far as outward seeming went, we I think we'll be able to reduce were leagues away from ugliness, that risk to a minimum." "I fancy you know I'm rather sordidness, crime, and yet I knew, used to 'risks' of various kinds.' without understanding what it was all about, that Lillian held in her Katherine said quietly, "Do I know it?" Lillian returnhands the symbols of a monstrous evil reptilian something which was ed emphatically. "But there's no slimly drawing underneath the reason why we shouldn't safesurface of our national life, wait- guard you in every way possible. ing its chance to attempt the clos- and we're going to. Were you able to write down the address of ing of its coils. I shivered involuntarily, glanced that phony cousin?"

at Katherine, and saw that her 'A Girl in a Thousand." face was pallid, as I guessed was my own. And then Lillian rose,

"No. but I did a strenuous imistuffed the scirbbled papers into her bag, moved swiftly lightly on tation of Madge, and remembered "You've done something for your ory isn't so bad on a little sprint. University of Oregon Rugen the smaller woman's shoulder. it," Katherine replied. "My mem-

(To be continued)

MILLERAND RESIGNS

PARIS, June 11 .- The dential tri-color today disapp

FUTURE DATES

Saturday-Fing day Wednesday-Wayne June enefit ball game, June 13, Friday-High school

June 16 and 17, Monday and -State convention of Order of I Salem. June 22, Sunday-Idaho Co at fair grounds. June 24, Tuesday-Democra

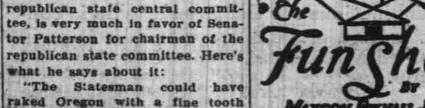

June 29, Sunday-Salem

at Silverton park, July 16 to 23-Chautauqua se Salem. June 21, Saturday - Marion

MEMBERS OF AUSTRALIAN DAVIS CUP TEAM HERE TO TRY TO WREST TROPHY FROM AMERICAN DEFENDERS

This photograph of the tennis Pacific Coast, engaging in practice to right are F. E. Kaims, tars from the Antipodes was made matches, before going East to O'Hara Wood, Gerald Patte just after their arrival at San matches, before going East to O'Hara Wood. Gerald Francisco. They remained on the tune up for the cup matches. Left and R. E. Schlesinger.

for Portland will be at home at 1227 East Pine street.

DR. TRAPROCK'S CLEVER CAT. man for the place. Moreover, he

"The expression, 'the cat's whisthe man chosen to conduct the kers,' has always amused me," said my good friend Dr. Walter E. Traprock, "but few people know

"The first cat to be referred to "This cat, whose name was Carfavorite food lives in an element of which she is in mortal terror-

"She had taught herself to fish courage to face slow death by an with her whiskers, which were long and very strong. Her first interesting question. Has a man The demand for economy is the children, must be original and unpublic office: There was no his life and thus relieve the world or isket in public office: There was no his life and thus relieve the world or isket in public office: There was no his life and thus relieve the world or isket in public office: There was no his life and thus relieve the world or isket in public office: There was no his life and thus relieve the world or isket in public office: There was no his life and thus relieve the world or isket in public office: There was no his life and thus relieve the world or isket in public office: There was no his life and thus relieve the world or isket in public office. which she actually balted with a must be written on one aide of cricket, caught in the grass. Then, paper only, should heat name of this presence and of its burden? Using on the upper side of a will must be written on one aide of the effort to whitewash anyone, neith-most certainly meet that demand. or was there an effort to beamirch There are those who insist that it low branch has let her whiskers Statesman.

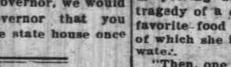

"Then, one day, my cat acted so cheerful like that my curlosity was aroused and I followed her to the

Peter MacFarlane killed him- river. There I saw an amazing

