WASHINGTON GREW MAKES FAST TIME

Huskies Lead Five Others in Practice Row Over Poughkeepsie Course

POUGHKEEPSIE, June 14.—Five of the six college crews here in training for the intercollegiate regatta on June 17 went over the course this afternoon against time. Watches on shore caught the Washington varsity for the best time, the Huskies doing the three miles in 14:18. Pennsylvania was caught for the second best time at 14:24. The Quakers as they reached the two and one half mile mark, were caught in a sudden storm and the final half mile was rowed in blinding rain and a stiff wind.
 The case of Luft, veteran No. 4 man of the Washington varsity, who is in Vassar hospital here, has been diagnosed as typhoid fever. His condition is serious.

MURPHY WINS IN 250 MILE RACE

Veteran Driver Makes 114 Miles Per Hour—Race Marred By Accident

ALTOONA, Pa., June 14.—(By the Associated Press).—The semi-annual 250-mile automobile race on the Altoona speedway this afternoon for a purse of $25,000 and points in the 1924 national championship, was captured by the veteran driver, Jimmy Murphy, who pushed his car to an average of more than 114 miles an hour, a new track record. Murphy flashed home in 2:12:2, leading Fred Comer across the line by more than six miles. Antoine Merrie of France, a new comer in racing circles of the United States, was a close third. Jerry Wunderlich came to grief on the back track which was made dangerous by intermittent rain-fall during the afternoon. Driving at breakneck speed in an effort to catch the fast flying leaders, Wunderlich's car skidded not far from the spot where Howard Wilcox met his death last year.

EUGENE TEAM IS BOLSTERED UP

Former Salem Men on Club That Plays Senators Here This Afternoon

On the Eugene baseball team that plays the Senators at Oxford field this afternoon, starting at 3 o'clock, will be five former Salem players, who are now in college either in Eugene or Corvallis. They are Rex Adolph, Jones, Bill and Frank Reinhart and Hobson.
 While the Eugene team is coming to Salem with its strongest lineup, Biddy Bishop, manager of the Senators, has also been busy strengthening his team, and will have a staff of four pitchers on hand today. One Bemus, a new acquisition for Salem, will start, while on the bench will be Spring-gate, also a new one, Red Lund and Bill Ashby.
 Salem fans may get an idea of the kind of baseball they are seeing at home by the fact that last Thursday Astoria and Longview battled 13 innings for a 1 to 0 victory for Astoria. Last Sunday the Salem Senators journeyed and brought home a 4 to 1 victory over the club of that place.
 Salem has had both Longview and Kelso here for two games each and broke even with them, and fans who saw all four games admit that Salem has as fast a club as either for a whole lot less money, even with all the hard luck that Manager Bishop has encountered, such as Pitcher Wayne Barham's tumble from a scaffold that broke a leg and the bad foot that Catcher Frisco Edwards has been hopping around on all season.
 The Senators are contenders for the semi-professional championship of Oregon and Washington, and the local fans can help a lot by boosting the club. Bishop has done his best to bring all the fast independent teams here for games, and so far the fans are well pleased. Bishop has showed good judgment in securing players who have both playing ability and the conduct of gentlemen on the field and off it.

The Senators are to go on a 13-day trip, starting July 14, and will be away from home only one Sunday in the 13 days, making a total of only two Sundays away from home in four months. There are three open dates on the Senator schedule. Bishop could have filled these several weeks ago, but his holding them open so he can get the leaders of the Interstate league and the Portland City league for these dates. It is desired that Salem fans see the Senators in action with the best semi-professional clubs of Oregon and Washington.

Last Sunday Longview won a 4 to 3 game from Aberdeen, which was leading the Timber league, with one of Salem's pitchers working for Longview. Every-one remembers Heinle Menth, who worked two games for Salem and who was here baseball week. All the fans have to do is boost hard and the players will do their part.

Four Homes Burglarized, Escaped Prisoner Suspected

Four Salem residences were burglarized Friday night with the result that the police yesterday were looking for the prowler who obtained a gold watch valued at $50 and about $6 in cash as his total loot. The homes entered were those of Dr. H. C. Epley, 798 North Summer; W. T. Jenks, 635

North Summer, W. I. Staley, 271 North Summer, and V. E. Kuhn, 635 North Winter. With the exception of the Epley home, the prowling was done while the occupants were sleeping. In all the dwellings the rooms were ransacked, the watch being secured from the Kuhn home from the dresser in the bedroom.

Possibility that the burglar was John Tuel, who escaped from the state prison Thursday night, was ventured by the police yesterday. Tuel has been known to have participated in previous cases of this kind. His home is near the deaf school. A few fingerprints were obtained and were being matched with his at the state prison. A footprint, said to resemble that made by a pair of prison shoes, was also discovered.

A KANTNER PUPIL WINS HIGH HONOR

Former Salem Boy Is Doing Notable Work in Musical World at Seattle

"Music and Musicians," a magazine published at Seattle, in its current issue, has an article telling of the winning of an Eastman scholarship by Beatrice Nelson, mezzo soprano, pupil of Clifford W. Kantner, Seattle. Miss Nelson was chosen by Vladimir Roelins, head of the opera department of the Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N. Y., from a large number of applicants who were heard in Seattle recently as having the qualifications in voice and personality to make good in opera. The scholarship covers training in all branches of opera preparation and also experience for two years with $100 a month living expenses. Miss Nelson created a sensation with her singing in the Million Dollar theater in Los Angeles recently.

In the opera try-outs in two high schools in Seattle vocal pupils of Clifford W. Kantner won leading roles for spring operas. Many of the students of the Kantner vocal studio are holding solo positions in the important churches of Seattle.

Clifford W. Kantner was a Salem boy. He is a son of Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Kantner of Salem, and he was very well known to Salem-ites some years ago.

STOP and THINK! This Means You!

Before you enroll in any other school, get the facts. No matter what you now are or where you live, you can be a big success. The last part of it all is, that any man, woman, boy or girl, who is able to read, write and think can make good. All the secrets of success can be summed up into one word—try. If you have the backbone to try, let us raise you out of the "dub" class. The Harvard Tutoring School is a modern Home Study Institute on scientific basis, conducted exclusively by Harvard men. Our modern and concentrated College, Business, technical, and industrial courses start you up higher and move you up faster. We will prepare you conscientiously to hold your own where competition is keen. You will not lose a single working hour. Just let us bring you up during your spare time and you will not get into a blind "alley" where you will have to dredge away at poor pay throughout a long lifetime. It costs you nothing but a stamp to inquire. Do it today. It is the shortest and surest way to success.

A REAL TEST FOR ANY CAR

(Oregon Statesman, June 12)
FLINT ON TRIAL TRIPS STOPS HERE
 William Horseman, Driver of Flint Car Stopped at Salem Automobile Co.
 William Horseman arrived at the Salem Automobile company Wednesday afternoon, driving a new Flint six car, with which he is making a 14,000 mile trip. Mr. Horseman is stopping at all of the Flint dealers on his trip, and will touch at the following places before returning to Oakland: He will stop at Portland, Oregon, Vancouver, B. C., Winnipeg, Toronto, New York, Washington, D. C.; Florida, Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona, making a total of 14,780 miles.
 Mr. Horseman has a wager with W. J. Bondy, publicity man for the Star Motor Co. and the car, according to Mr. Bondy's guarantee is to make the trip without any trouble and only allowing for six services, the car being examined by every dealer's mechanic en-route, and the condition of the car being reported to Mr. Bondy. Up to date Mr. Horseman has been out 11 days and traveled 3,000 miles and has had no service on the car, other than gas. His first service will be tomorrow in Portland. If the car does not stand the trip, Mr. Bondy will give Mr. Horseman a new car and $1595 besides, but if it does stand up Mr. Horseman will keep this car and agrees to buy another new Flint.

WOULD YOU?
 Wager $1595 on the Superiority of Your Own Product.
 That's what Mr. Bondy of the Durant company is doing.
 This Flint, a regular standard stock car must travel 14,000 miles from deserts to high mountains, over paved highways and country roads—taken them as they come and with ONLY SIX SERVICES on the entire trip. The first service being in Portland after the car had gone over 3000 miles. The original oil was drained in Portland and new oil put in, this must run until Mr. Horseman reaches his next service station or about 3200 miles.
 The car carries a 1702-pound camping load.
