

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Womens' Evangelistic Meeting— Will be held today at 9 a. m. with Mrs. C. F. Wilson at 473 South Cottage street.

May Visit Mt. Hood— Interest in the annual Mt. Hood climb under the auspices of the Portland YMCA is being aroused in the city. The climb will be held a week from Saturday. Last year eight Salem boys took advantage of the opportunity and made the climb. Ben Rickli, former Salem and Willamette man, is in charge. The cost for everything included is about $6. The Salem automobile will leave early in the morning on June 28, making connections with the Portland group. Sufficient food for two meals will have to be taken along. The fee includes the automobile trip, cost of climbing the mountain, guide fees, two meals and alpine stick.

Auction Sale— Latest design Cecilian phonograph and records, good furniture, 450 Hanson strain pure bred White Leghorn pullets, machinery, etc., Friday, June 20, 1:30 p. m., 532 N. Liberty St. Woodry is the auctioneer. j19

Mrs. Rottle Honored— Members of the ladies auxiliary to Capital Post No. 9 are highly gratified with the distinction placed upon the unit at the state convention of the American legion auxiliary in Portland last week with the election of Mrs. John J. Rottle, president of the local unit, as a member of the executive committee having charge of this district, comprising 10 counties. In addition Mrs. Rottle was named alternate to the national convention in St. Paul. The local auxiliary was reorganized a few months ago after being inactive for many months.

Liberty Program Today— Graduation exercises for the school at Liberty will be held this afternoon, with Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, county school superintendent, presenting the diplomas. The class consists of five boys. A musical program will also be given. The motto of the class is "Rowing, no drifting."

Want $1800 Loan on city property. Socolofsky, 970.

To Give Piano Recitals— Piano recitals will be given on the evenings of June 21 and 23 by students of Elma Weller at the Salem women's club house on North Cottage street. The public is cordially invited.

Pickett Funeral Today— Funeral services will be held at the Finley mortuary in Portland at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon for Mrs. O. L. Pickett, mother of Lyman A. Pickett, boy's secretary at the YMCA for nearly two years. Mrs. Pickett died at the Portland Medical hospital Tuesday.

Special Sale— On all stamped goods at the Elite this week, 329 Oregon bldg.—jnc31

Work is Not Wanted— The United States employment bureau at the YMCA is not the only labor bureau in the city and demands are being made constantly upon the city bureau at the city recorder's office. According to Marten Poulsen, city recorder, a majority of the applicants that visit him are not very anxious to obtain employment, and though cherry picking is remunerative and should not be passed up by the jobless men, their attitude is opposite and the demands of cherry growers for pickers are not filled. Wednesday there were 18 requests for pickers placed on file.

Olinger Re-elected— At an adjourned session of the school board Wednesday noon, Dr. H. H. Olinger was again selected a chairman of the board for the coming year. Curtiss Cross was named as vice chairman. Announcement was made that the contract for building the cement terraces and sidewalks at the new J. L. Parrish junior high school, had been awarded to Hanson, Hammond & Clist for $2986. This firm is the general contracting firm in charge of the entire building. The bid was about $1000 under the estimate for the work, due somewhat to the fact that the contractors already had the necessary equipment on the ground.

A Good Black— Leather bag, regular $8; special, $6.40, at Hamilton's. j19

Seeks Missing Nephew— Mrs. Mattie Slagg has appealed to the Salem police department for assistance in locating Varnie Lang, her 15 year old nephew who has been missing since June 10. The boy was put on an Oregon Electric train at that time and started for his home in Bellingham, Wash. Nothing has been heard of him since.

Pioneers Meet Today— Rollcall of the Pioneers who have died during the past year will be read at a meeting of the Oregon Pioneer association in Portland today by Judge Peter H. D'Arcy, past president of the association.

A Good Leather— Traveling bag, regular $19.50. Special, $15.75. Hamilton's. j 19

Illhee Club Winner— Word was received yesterday by Fred A. Williams that the 18-man team captained by Oliver Locke had taken the tournament with the Albany club, which was played last Sunday. The score was not given. The Albany club will be the guests of the Illhee Country club in a return match here next Sunday.

Rain Speeding Picking— Cherry picking has been speeded up by the recent rain, and, while practically none fell during the day Wednesday, the weather remained cool and gave promise of more. Danger lies in extremely hot weather. Prunes and loganberry growers are having the present conditions with much thankfulness, while almost all the crops in the district, with the exception perhaps of some of the hay, are being greatly benefitted.

Sale Prices— On luggage at Hamilton's. j19

9000th Prisoner Here— The doubtful distinction of being the 9000th prisoner to be received at the state prison goes to Harry Halender, who was received from Coos county yesterday to serve one year for obtaining money under false pretenses. Two others received at the same time were Sam Wirta, armed with a dangerous weapon, three years, and Macurio Arrayo, intent to commit rape, 20 years. The latter two were given Nos. 8999 and 9001, respectively. The trio were in charge of E. P. Ellingsen, sheriff.

Turner Graduates Class— Four high school and five eighth graders were graduated from the Turner schools Tuesday night, Principal John R. Bidgood making the principal address. He had as his subject "Converging Aims in Education." The diplomas were presented by Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, county school superintendent. In addition pupils in the Crawford school were also presented with diplomas.

Hubbard Man Cited— N. O. Nelson of Hubbard has been cited to appear in the justice court to answer to a charge of having no license plates on his automobile.

Typewriters Claimed— The four typewriters recently stolen from the Amos Davis Memorial High school at Aumsville were claimed by the school district Wednesday.

Piano Lessons by Accredited— Teacher in exchange for laundry or housecleaning. Phone 2060R. j19*

Estate Appraised— The estate of Maude Kelly Moore consisted of $2400 in personal property, according to a report of the appraisers, F. W. Messert, Fred Sommers and T. M. Holt.

Guardian Is Named— Anna S. School has been named guardian of the persons and estates of Lenore, Elvera, Irene and John School, minors. Appraisers are John School, August Will and L. M. School.

Wedding Frustrated— Wednesday Melvin Downing, Portland bank clerk, was 21 years old, and to celebrate his birthday he came to Salem to obtain a marriage license in order to wed Mabel Clare Reed of Portland. The wedding was supposed to take place last night, but, upon being denied a license at the county clerk's office, Downing and his witness were forced to return home and probably postpone his wedding until today. A license was issued to Fred W. Nitzel of Shedd and Freda Bohn of Woodburn. Both gave their occupation as that of teacher.

Vacation Luggage— At Hamilton's, 340 Court.—j19

Eugene Man Fined— C. R. Thomas of Eugene was fined $5 in the police court Wednesday for cutting a corner. He was arrested late Tuesday night after his machine had struck Cyril Nadon of the Stiff Furniture company at Court and High. Nadon was not injured.

Pat Pays Another Fine— It was only a few days ago since Pat Devina spent five days in the city jail in lieu of paying a fine of $10 for being drunk, but that did not deter him from imbibing more lemon extract and he was again arrested late Tuesday night at State and Liberty by Officer Putnam. In the police court yesterday he paid a fine of $10 for being drunk.

Demolish Tabernacle— Preliminary work of demolishing the huge tabernacle erected on the Willamette university campus for the recent Demarest revival services is now under way. The roofing paper is being removed and the rest of the building will be torn down as soon as possible. Through a special arrangement the structure was not molested until after the high school commencement exercises of June 13.

Outline Sport Program— Several hundreds of youngsters at the annual Marion county Sunday school picnic at the fairgrounds Saturday will have plenty to interest them according to a sports program that has been outlined by R. R. Boardman, physical director at the YMCA, who will be assisted by Hollis Huntington.

DIED
JARVIA—William Jarvia aged 18 died June 18. Funeral announcements later. Arrangements in charge of the Webb funeral parlors.

FUNERAL NOTICE
Funeral services for the late Mrs. W. E. Miller, will be held at the home, 1427 North Church St., Thursday at 2 p. m. Rev. Thos. Acheson officiating. Committal in City View cemetery. Terwilliger funeral home in charge of arrangements.

Leslie Sparks and Edwin Socolofsky. The girls will be in charge of Miss Mary Findley, who will have several assistants. Among the athletic events already planned are indoor baseball games, a rope pull, relay races with 15 to 20 on each side, a 50-yard dash, three jumps, standing broadgrin, straddle pole race, blindfold race, shoe race, sack race, spoon pot to race, cage ball, fat men's race, three-legged race and boxing.

Make Plans for Rain— In case of rain Saturday afternoon, the annual Marion county Sunday school picnic will be held in the big pavilion and not in the open at the fairgrounds, according to arrangements completed by Fred DeVries, president of the association.

YMCA Board Meets— At the regular meeting of the board of directors of the YMCA today noon, C. A. Kells, general secretary, will give a report of the secretaries' convention which he attended at Blue Ridge, N. C. He will also give a report of a number of new YMCA buildings and plans which he looked over while on his eastern trip. Mr. Kells returned to Salem late Saturday night after a months' absence.

Over 1400 at Camp— Since the Salem automobile camp grounds opened on March 15 there have been more than 1400 machines registered, according to Superintendent Albert. Averaging four passengers to a car, the total number of persons was around 5600. During the last few days of cool weather all of the 10 tent houses have been filled every night and there is a waiting list. Mr. Albert said yesterday. Except for people who are returning home after spending the winter in California, there have been no tourists east of the Mississippi river register. Nearly 25 camps were made on the grounds Wednesday afternoon, with more coming in at night. Many are getting work in the berry fields and cherry orchards.

Cherrians Invited— Salem Cherrians have received an invitation from Newberg to attend the annual berry festival on Saturday, June 28. The Cherrians will have complete charge of the event. Invitations have also been sent to all of the other booster organizations in the state. It is expected that he Salem Cherrians will be represented at the Newberg event.

Funeral Held Yesterday— The funeral of Chester Abrams, who died recently at Glenn Falls, N. Y., was held at the Rigdon chapel yesterday afternoon. Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick of the First Methodist church delivered the funeral address. Interment was at the IOOF cemetery, with the American legion in charge. The casket was flag-draped. Mr. Abrams was a veteran of the World war.

Alliance Will Meet— The woman's alliance of the Unitarian church will meet with Mrs. Goodenough at her home on West Rural avenue Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All members are requested to meet at the Unitarian parsonage, 657 Chemeketa street, where cars will be provided for all.

New Rate Asked— The Southern Pacific company has applied to the public service commission for authority to establish a rate of $2.40 per thousand feet board measure on shipments of logs from Myrtle Point to North Bend.

Proclamation Modified— Governor Pierce issued a proclamation yesterday modifying a proclamation of June 2 relative to the burning of slashing by timber owners. The new proclamation provides "that burning may be done under written permit issued by a regularly appointed state fire warden, but insofar as said proclamation (of June 2) referred to camp fires and persons going into the woods using every possible precaution to guard against damage to property, it remains in full force and effect."

Democrats Meet Today— A meeting of all democratic precinct committeemen who were elected May 16 will be held at the court house today at 2:30 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of electing a county chairman, secretary, treasurer, executive committee and state central committeemen. Plans for the coming campaign will also be discussed.

Hathaway in Charge— Gall Hathaway of Bend has been appointed by State Engineer Rhea Luper to take charge of the distribution of water from the Deschutes river. He will apportion the water according to the number of acres under irrigation at the present time. The acreage totals about 42,000, and it is claimed there is plenty of water if it is apportioned equitably.

Hearings Deferred— Because of the prolongation of the basin rate case in Walla Walla two hearings that the public service commission had scheduled in Portland for today and tomorrow have been deferred indefinitely. These are the steam heating rate case of the Northwest Electric company, which was scheduled to be heard today, and the express delivery free area which was scheduled to be heard tomorrow.

Boys' Picnic Planned— Plans for a big picnic for members of the Salem Boys' chorus are being completed by Dr. H. C. Epley, director. The event will be held at the fairgrounds Saturday afternoon, June 28. The day will be spent with athletic contests and general sports, while the picnic will be held in the evening. Mrs. D. D. Olmstead has charge of the refreshments and is being assisted by members of the ladies' committee. Refreshments have been postponed for the summer months.

Griffith Is Speaker— Some phase of Americanization or citizenship will be stressed by George P. Griffith, new state commander of the American legion, who will speak at the Lions club luncheon at the Marion hotel Friday noon. George W. Nelson will be the chairman of the day.

Meeting at Library— Salem men and women are invited to hear State Labor Commissioner C. H. Gram, C. A. Kells, local YMCA secretary, and Miss Louise Shields, secretary of the seasonal employment commission of the Oregon department of labor, speak this afternoon in the auditorium of the city library at 2:30 o'clock. An effort is being made by local people to extend welfare work in the adjacent hop and fruit fields and orchards. All interested in the project are invited to attend the meeting today.

Extradition Granted— Governor Pierce yesterday granted the extradition of J. C. Conner, who is under arrest at McMinnville and who is wanted in King county, Washington, on a charge of removal and concealment of property covered by conditional sale contract.

Name Silverton Man— O. A. Nelson, of Silverton, has been named vice president of the Oregon State Lutheran Brotherhood at the close of a three-day session in Eugene. Rev. Overt Skilbred, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church in Eugene was elected president.

Returns from Long Trip— A party consisting of Sam Burnstein, formerly with Director Brothers, his wife, daughter and son returned to Salem yesterday after a year's absence spent in making an automobile trip around the border of the United States. They are stopping at the Simon Director home.

Mrs. Lord at Hospital— Mrs. W. P. Lord submitted to a major operation at the Salem hospital yesterday. Her hosts of friends will be pleased to know that she was resting easy late last night, and that there is every hope for her recovery. She was taken down late Sunday night.

More New Directors Are Reported to Headquarters

All public schools in the county will close this week and school clerks have another week in which to file their bonds, according to Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, county school superintendent. The law demands that the clerk's bonds be filed 10 days after the annual meeting, which was held June 16.
