Willamette chapter of Westminster guild will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Churchill, 783 North Winter street.

An inviting program was given Saturday evening by a group of Bertha Junk Darby's younger pupils at the residence studio, 679 North Cottage street.

Robert Paynet, Suzi Fukuda, Irma Hodges, Wilson Seigmund, Edith Clement, Elizabeth Clement, Claire Hartley, Jessie Fukuda played, and Mildred Carson sang 'My Wild Irish Rose," accompanied by Elizabeth Clement. Lucile Allen and Julie Currie were unavoidably detained. By request, Lillian Scott repeated her Wednesday evening number, given at Roberts hall, and Irma Keefer repeated two of her numbers for the and their friends.

The dates of the plano recitals to be given by pupils of Miss Elma Weller have been changed, as has also the place. They were originally announced to take place in the First Congregational church ney, for six years a solo dancer read an original poem, "The Cir- onstration of Dunning Improved Friday and Monday nights, but will be given instead in the Woman's club house on North Cottage IF ITS FOR THE TOP OR UPHOLstreet Saturday night, June 21, and Monday night, June 23.

The Dunning children will appear Saturday evening, the older and more advaced pupils to participate on Monday night. At this time Lancetta Steele, an out-oftown soprano, will assist.

A wedding of unusual interest to a large number of Salem residents was celebrated Tuesday when Edmund Bortoss and Miss Elizabeth Wunder were united in marriage by the Rev. Father Buck at St. Joseph's Catholic church. The youthful bride wore a beautiful gown of white crepe dimitre, with a white silk chiffon veil and a wreath of orange blossoms in her hair, presenting a lovely picture. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Wunder of St. Ignatius, Mont., who made a very charming bridesmaid, while W. P. Schotthofer of Salem acted as best man. After the ceremony the bridal party and a large number of guests and relatives repaired to the residence of Mr. and Mrs J. J.
