STARTS SUNDAY AT THE OREGON

TAKE THE WORD OF THE STAR!

"The Enchanted Cottage" is my greatest acting picture.

Richard Barthelmess

Pemberton and Mrs. Ingre are in charge of the affair.

One of the fullest programs of the week was that given last night by a second group of piano and violin pupils of Miss Joy Turner at the First Christian church. Roses and ocean spray decorated the platform.

Those taking part in the program were Mildred Scott, Barbara Barnett, Delight Heath, Katherine Price, Bernice Pezrey, Fay Pendleton, Lloyd Ramp, Byrie Ramp, Wilma Taylor, Rhea Mae Huber, Bernice Cowden, Vera White, Louise Horton, Robert Needham, Vinn Emmett, Mrs. Ed Wunder, Maybelle Wunder, Kenneth Rickman, Eldon Riddell, Marie Frame, Percy Riddell, Mrs. Ruby Miller, Gertrude and Bernice Winegar, Donald Slegmund, Ralph Savage, Ila Huber, Oral Violette, Harold Rupert, Grace Parker and Verna Wood.

Mrs. Will Knight of Portland is the guest for a few days of her mother, Mrs. H. J. Miles.

Covers were placed for nine at the Golden Hour club luncheon at 1 o'clock yesterday with Mrs. Allen Cleveland the hostess. Marygold centered the attractive table. The afternoon hours were spent with needlework and conversation. Club members present for the day were Mrs. G. V. Miles, Mrs. J. R. Pemberton, Mrs. Homer Ingre, Mrs. I. R. Springer, Mrs. D. M. Hendricks, Mrs. Bretz, Mrs. Van Slyke, and the hostess, Mrs. Cleveland.

While no regular meetings will be held during the summer months, a picnic is planned for July 10. In the evening the husbands will join the group.

The Central circle of the Jason Lee Methodist church, meeting Wednesday for an all day meeting, spent the morning in quilting. In the afternoon a delightful impromptu program was arranged. Mrs. F. M. Jasper sang "Grandfather's Clock" and "When You and I Were Young, Maggie." Mrs. Mad gave two readings, one a theme from "The Leopard's Spot." "Three Blind Mice," as a round, was given by Mrs. Feustman, Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Giese, and Mrs. C. G. Roberts. Light refreshments concluded the afternoon.

The hostesses for the day were Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Grace Cusher, and Mrs. Chadwick.

Miss Gladys Harbert, Miss Golda Wheeler, and Mrs. Thelma Janz were hostesses Wednesday evening at Miss Harbert's home in honor of Miss Carrie Edge, bride-elect. The delightful affair was in the nature of a miscellaneous shower. Music and conversation added much pleasure to the evening, at the end of which dainty refreshments were served. The guest of honor was made the recipient of many lovely gifts.

Those honoring Miss Edge were Anna Ward, Lillian Jaquet, Margaret Collins, Geraldine Collins, Zola Birdwell, Thelma Simme, Frances Plov, Doretha Douglas, Hester Hillpot, Aldine Hillpot, Mrs. Charles Chase (Marjorie Harbert), Mrs. J. W. Harbert, Mrs. S. H. Edge, Mrs. Sophia Wheeler, Mrs. Leah Clinton, Mrs. Laurel Savage, Mrs. Clarabelle Gagnon, Gladys Harbert, Thelma Janz and Golda Wheeler.

The West Side circle of the Jason Lee aid society will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Stiffler, 1495 North Commercial street.

Judge Peter H. D'Arcy, appeared on the program yesterday in Portland for the opening day of the 52nd meeting of Oregon Pioneers, leading the special service held in memory of the pioneers who died in the past year. Justice George M. Brown delivered the address of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hasbrook of La Grande, who have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Needham since last Friday, are leaving this morning for Marshfield. Mr. Hasbrook is a brother of Mrs. Needham.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Needham, are leaving today for a three weeks' vacation trip. They will travel by auto. Their itinerary includes a visit to Seattle, Victoria, B. C., Vancouver, B. C., Lake Louise and other points of interest.

Invitations are being received for the wedding of Miss Zeda Rhoten to Everett Lisle at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Rhoten, 1595 South High street, the event to take place at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, June 29.

For the meeting of the past noble grand association on Wednesday evening, Grace Taylor was the hostess. The program took the form of Flag day observance, with Miss Wilda Slegmund and Mrs. Elsie Simeral both giving particularly appropriate numbers. A social hour followed the evening's business session. Mrs. Effie Bonesteel and Mrs. Addie Hammer assisted the hostess in the serving of a late luncheon.

Association members meeting for the evening were Hattie Cameron, Sarah Hutton, Hattie Patterson, Pearl Nichols, Lena Peebles, Mary Lickel, Louisa Loveland, Alma Henderson, Addie Hammer, Eva Keene, Etta Hodges, Myrtle Tyrrell, Effie Bonesteel, Clara Guerne, Bessie Hammer, Ethel Fletcher, Eugene Slegmund, Wilda Slegmund, Helen Yockey, Sarah Nelson, Ruth Dennison, Elsie Simeral, Grace Taylor and Etta Kranger.

The arrival in Salem for the summer of Mrs. Charles Boltz, formerly Alice Blake, from Modesto, California, will be of especial interest to her many friends here. With her little daughter, Betty Jane, she will be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Blake, at Willow farm. Mrs. Boltz, who has been in California since 1919, received her education here.

In July she will visit for a time in Portland as the guest of Mrs. Robert Waters and Mrs. William Weick. During the month of August the Blakes will occupy their cottage at Rockaway.

Mrs. W. P. Lord, who is ill at the Salem hospital, though getting along nicely, will not be able to go home for several weeks. Her many friends will be glad of the report of a successful convalescence.

Of particular interest to many in local college circles was the marriage on Wednesday afternoon in Portland of Miss Pauline McClintock to Verne D. Bain, both young people having graduated from Willamette university with the class of 1923. The service was read in the presence of seventy-five friends and relatives by the grandfather of the bride, assisted by Dr. Carl Gregg Doney. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Alfred McClintock (Edna Ackerman) sang "At Dawning." The bridal party approached the altar to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, with Lowell Beckendorf, a fraternity brother of the groom, at the piano.

IS WORTH MORE THAN $5000

Would Not Trade Benefits Received From Korex For That Amount.

"I would not take $5,000 and go back to where I was before I began using korex compound," says D. W. Wood of 1506 Canal St., New Orleans. "The flu just about finished me, but korex has brought me back to the good healthy physical condition I enjoyed at 35. My muscles are apparently as supple as when I was 25."

Speedy satisfaction is reported by many after using korex even in cases where the users were skeptical and had lost faith in everything else. Nearly every day brings additional reports of delightful relief from lessened vigor, poor circulation, aching muscles, low glandular activity, premature old age and general run-down, tired out condition. According to an announcement made by the Melton Laboratories, 546 Melton Bldg., Kansas City, Mo., korex compound may now be had in Capital Drug Store, at 405 State St., Salem, Oregon. Ask the druggist about it.—Adv.

Miss Gertrude Tucker, after visiting in Salem for a few days, will enter the University of Oregon summer school which opens next Monday at Eugene. Miss Tucker was the guest of Miss Ruth Ross on Wednesday.

Four matrons of the Friday bridge club were hostesses on Tuesday evening at an eight course dinner at the Spa for the pleasure of the members of the group and their husbands. The tables were tastefully decorated with sweet peas. Those acting as hostesses were Mrs. L. W. Gleason, Mrs. Claire Vibbert, Mrs. David Wright and Mrs. Scott Page. Following the dinner the guests were entertained at six tables of five hundred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Page. First prize for the ladies went to Mrs. Fred Delano, while Earle Dae won for the men. During the evening, election of officers occurred with the result that Mrs. Fullerton is the new president, and Mrs. Earle Dae the new club secretary.

The club will hold no further meetings until October.

Covers at the dinner were placed for Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry White, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kurtz, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fisher, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Dae, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moody, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Delano, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Page, Mr. and Mrs. David Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Vibbert, and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Gleason.

Next week Dr. McCormick leaves for Idaho and Montana for Epworth League institute. He will be a member of the faculty, returning the first of August.

Mrs. C. W. Brandt will be hostess for the Hal Hubbard social afternoon today at her home, 494 South Winter street.

Miss Beatrice Shelton announces two recitals for next week. Wednesday, June 25, and Thursday, June 26, at the First Congregational church. On the first evening, the senior class will be presented, and on the second night the music will be given by the intermediate pupils. The Schubert octette, Mary Talmadge, Violin; and Miss Whalen, violin will assist on the first program. On Thursday evening the high school double quartet, and Leonard Chadwick, violin, will augment the numbers. Both musicals, beginning at 8:15 o'clock, will be public.

An invitational evening, however, is planned for Monday, June 15, when the members of the junior class will appear in a delightful "Story of the Fairies" play, assisted by Mrs. Ralph White's dancing fairies.

Miss Florence Blake, who will register next fall as a senior at the University of Oregon, is home for the summer as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Blake.

Miss Letha Cresson of Portland and Hector G. Brokke of Silverton were married at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of the groom, with forty guests, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. W. U. Needham of Shalom, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Loomis of La Porte, Indiana, witnessing the ceremony. The bride wore white organdy and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and white sweet peas. Attendants were Miss Ruth Brokke and Theodore Cresson. The rooms were profusely decorated with canterbury bells.
