Hilman Elected Director In District Number 19

SILVERTON, Or., June 19.—(Special to The Statesman).—At the school election held in district 19 Monday evening Dan Hilman was elected director. J. C. Gople-rud was re-elected clerk. The financial report showed plenty of money in the treasury, so no special tax was voted. It was decided at this meeting to complete the work on the children's playshed and to paint the school building. All of the eighth grade graduates of district 19 attended the county graduating exercises at Salem last Saturday. The class numbering seven, received diplomas there.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Today. Marion County Sunday school picnic, Fairgrounds.

Junior piano pupils of Miss Elma Weller in recital. Woman's club house, 8:15 o'clock.

The season, Mrs. B. J. Miles was a charming hostess of Thursday afternoon. Colorful flowers were vivid about the rooms. In response to roll call the 17 members present for the occasion answered with favorite quotations. After the regular routine of business the paper of the day, "Educational Facilities of South America," was given by Mrs. E. J. Huffman. Mrs. W. D. Smith of Chapter AB was a guest of the group for the afternoon.

A delightful buffet luncheon was served during the social hour that followed. Mrs. William Hughes and Mrs. Frank Churchill presiding at the coffee urch.

Pupils of Miss Elma Weller, appearing this evening in recital, will give an interesting demonstration of the Dunning improved music course for beginners. The program will be given at the Salem Womens club building.

Mrs. William C. Kiltz, Jr. of Portland, Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. Fred Thielsen and Miss Lou Thompson were luncheon guests on Thursday of Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Jr. The affair was delightfully informal.

In order that she could be graduated and receive her diploma from the Woodburn high school, Helen Wilda Rall, 18, a Clackamas county girl, and only child of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rall of Woodburn, route 3, kept her marriage a secret until after the required examinations were taken. The truth was then told to the parents and her teachers.

The Loyal Women's class of the First Christian church met in the church parlors at 2:30 o'clock Thursday for the regular June meeting, which was postponed until this date on account of the Rose festival in Portland. Early summer flowers were used in bowls and baskets about the church. A business session was conducted early in the afternoon with Mrs. F. M. Reed presiding.

An excellent program was given with Mrs. J. Hall in charge. The vocal duet by Miss Aline Carper and Miss Mildred Clement, with Mrs. Carper accompanying, was especially appreciated. Mrs. T. E. McCroskey and Mrs. T. C. White both gave one of their interesting readings, after which refreshments were served, with the following acting as hostesses: Mrs. Hitchcock, Mrs. J. W. Harriett, Mrs. Sarah Campbell and Mrs. Ferry.

THE THREE IN ONE COSTUME. BIDS FOR FAVOR

All is not plain sailing in the new fashion. One can no longer be confident that an approaching creation on the avenue is a suit. For, on the wearer passing us, one perceives the all in one-ness of a coat. Or vice versa. And then, after we have been reduced to a pleasing state of bewilderment, it turns out that the costume is really a coat frock.

"It is quite a feature of this year," writes Henri Creange from Paris, "to see a coat frock looking like a straight gown at the back and like a tailor made with a short or long jacket in front, or the contrary. I even had the surprise the other day of seeing a mannikin taking off this already amazing garment to show a little dress underneath: it was an unexpected coat."

The costume of beige, Krisal-krepe which has just been relayed to us from Cheney's Paris atelier, shows all these ideas and, besides, the very novel one of opening suddenly a high fastened jacket to show a brilliant colored waist.

Even when the front of the jacket is demurely closed, as shown in the small sketch, a ray note is added to the costume by the chic plaid bows tied around the throat and wrists for the chic Parisienne to-day is as bewildered as any Highland lassie.

Edna and Miss Minnie Miller the hostesses. As a gift from the group an aluminum waffle iron was presented to the bride-elect. Games appropriate to the occasion occupied the guests throughout the evening till at a late hour luncheon was served. A doll costumed as a bride centered the table. Pink candles in pink holders marked the places. At the close of the luncheon the guests toasted marshmallows over the candles. Covers were placed for Mrs. L. Moine R. Clark, Mrs. H. W. Savage, Mrs. Fred L. Miller, Miss Elsie Lippold, Miss Ruth McAdams, Miss Josephine Shade, Miss Elizabeth Stockhauser, Miss Violet Hoover, Miss Nancy Savage, Miss Grace Holt, Miss Sylvia Marston, Miss Mabel Savage, Miss Rena Micky, Miss Helen Savage, Miss Grace Roberts, Miss Florence Waldo, Miss Bessie Smith and Mrs. Albert Rasmussen.

Miss Mabel Renfro, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Joseph Renfro, formerly of Salem, will arrive in this city from Rosalia, Wash., this morning. Miss Renfro, graduating from the University of Idaho in 1923, has been teaching this

Mrs. Roy Bishop who, with her three children, Jane, Thomas and Billy, has been a guest for the week at the C. P. Bishop home, returned yesterday morning to Portland.

Complimenting Mrs. William C. Kiltz, Jr. (Aline Thompson) Mrs. W. H. Lytle entertained in a most charming manner Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was informally spent in rooms attractively decorated with lavender daisies. Mrs. Fred Thielsen and Miss Lou Thompson assisted in the serving of the luncheon.

The guests for the ten were Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. William George of Los Angeles, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Mrs. William C. Kiltz, Jr., Miss Lou Thompson, Mrs. Sherman Thompson, Mrs. Ashbel Bush, Jr., Mrs. Robert Kinney of Astoria, Mrs. Ada Strong, Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Jr., Mrs. Fred Thielsen, Mrs. Fritz Slide, Mrs. James Linn, Mrs. Daniel Fry, Jr., Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. O. C. Locke and Mrs. Louis Lachmud.

Before a large audience the following program was given at the first of the recitals this week by pupils of Miss Joy Turner. Mrs. W. K. Barnell and Miss Joan Evans were the assisting sopranos of the evening. Those in the violin ensemble for the opening and closing numbers of the program who did not appear in solos included: Wilbur Jones, Levi Oteman, William E. Moses, Mary Fallon, Clara

Among those motoring to Portland yesterday for the Oregon poets' surprise supper were Mrs. F. S. Barton, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Mrs. Gertrude Robinson Ross and J. R. DeSpain, all going as the motor guests of Col. E. Hofer.

AUDRED BUNCH Phone 108 JUNE 21 This day the longest In all the year; The eve the fairest; The dawn most clear. And what shall I say, And what shall I give To make each moment Glow and live, So touched with joy I can but say, Life itself will be long To hold today!

MRS. WILLIAM H. BURGHARDT JR. entertained with one of the most delightful teas of the week Tuesday afternoon at her attractive home. The affair was given for the pleasure of the drama class which has been meeting in interesting session throughout the spring and winter. The gold room where the guests met brought out an effective motif in Constance roses. The tea table was centered with a bowl of mountain rhododendron. Mrs. W. E. Kirk poured, with a lovely luncheon served for the occasion. The afternoon passed pleasantly, the group reading together Maeterlinck's exquisite play, "Pelleas and Melisande."

Invited guests for the affair included Mrs. Russell Brooks, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. Fred Thielsen, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Mabel Robertson, Miss Helen Pearce, Miss Frances Richards, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd and Miss Maude Covington. Those making up the personnel of the class are: Mrs. A. N. Bush, Miss Mattie Beatty, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. E. C. Richards, Miss Edith Hazard, Mrs. B. J. Hendricks, Mrs. John McNary, Mrs. John Albert, Mrs. William Hamilton, Mrs. Sam Koser, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. Ray Farmer and Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Jr.

The Truth About Follywood

Are you movie mad? You will be when you see "MINUTE MOVIES," the motion pictures on paper, which are appearing every day on the classified page of The Statesman.

And you will want to know about the home and studio life of the gifted galaxy of stars who shine daily in this novel picture series.

Everything will be revealed eventually in the occasional glimpses of Follywood, under the title "Behind the Screens," taken on location and on the Wheelan lot. (Ed. Wheelan is the artist who draws "MINUTE MOVIES.")

You can follow every phase of the moving pictures in this novel feature, and you can count on seeing its every day.
