COAST AND MAJOR LEAGUE GAMES

Frisco 11, Seattle 5
SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—(By Associated Press.)—Pitching Bagby's offerings freely and finding Pitcher Jones, who replaced him, almost as easy, the Seals today were not pressed to win from the Indians, 11 to 5. Geary in turn kept his hits well scattered but ended in the ninth when Seattle brought in three runs on four hits.

Angels 8, Salt Lake 3
SALT LAKE CITY, June 27.—Maloney weakened in the sixth inning today, the Angels making six runs and winning the game, 8 to 3. Payne pitched a steady game, being especially successful in causing Salt Lake batters to hit fly balls. The series is now even.

Vernon 17, Portland 3

LOS ANGELES, June 27.—Vernon walked over the Portland Beavers here today with a 17 to 3 victory and evened the series two and two. Every Vernon player made at least one hit during the contest. Jack Keefe, who was sent in by Portland to relieve Levens on the mound, blew up in the eighth and allowed the Tigers seven of their 17 tallies.

Score—Vernon 17, Portland 3.
Batteries—Levens, Keefe and Cochran; Shellenback and Hanson.

LINKS TITLE UP

DAYTON, Ohio, June 27.—(By AP.)—Henry Decker of Kansas City and Joe Cobble of Philadelphia will battle tomorrow for the national public links championship over 36 holes following their victories in the semi-final rounds today.
