

SOCIETY

AUDRED BUNCH
Phone 106

A BLUE GATE SWINGS

When memory recalls the scenes
Of a surpassing loveliness,
A blue gate swings enchantingly
Through trees and space—
Where shadows dance and wear cream lace
Around the garden wall.

—Mabel Withycombe.

MISS BERNICE BRIGHT and Richard Dudley Slater were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. Melville T. Wire of Astoria officiating. The altar of the First Methodist church, where the ceremony was performed, was banked with pink rambler roses, ocean spray and delphinium. White lighted tapers burned in a candelabra at the altar.

The wedding party assembled to the impressive music of Lohengren's wedding march, as played by Prof. T. S. Roberts, following the singing of "Because," and "I Love You Truly," by Miss Viola Husted of Corvallis. The bride, lovely in brocaded crepe with full length veil of filmy tulle, caught into a bandeau with orange blossoms, was attended by Miss Dorothy Cram of Raymond, Wash., as maid of honor, and Miss Thelma Fritz of The Dalles as bridesmaid. Miss Cram wore accordin pleated Alice-blue georgette and Miss Fritz accordin pleated georgette in orchid. Both wore picture hats to match their frocks and corsages of sweet peas in pink and lavender shades. The bride's flowers were bride's roses, gardenias and lilies of the valley. Fred Deckebach was best man. The path of the bride was lightly strewn with pink rose petals, Virginia Bright acting as flower girl. Her frock was pale green, with a pale green tulle binding her hair.

An informal reception at the bride's home followed the ceremony. Mrs. Slater is the daughter of the late C. J. Bright, a prominent attorney of The Dalles, and Mrs. Mildred Bright. Mr. Slater is the son of Mrs. Josie Stewart. Both the bride and the groom are graduates of Oregon Agricultural college. Mrs. Slater with the class of '23 and Mr. Slater with the class of '22. Mrs. Slater is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority while Mr. Slater's fraternal affiliations are with Kappa Sigma.

After a wedding trip to Cannon Beach and Seaside Mr. and Mrs. Slater will be at home to their friends at the Moore apartments.

Mrs. Charles A. Gray of Independence gave a very beautifully appointed 1 o'clock luncheon yesterday at her home in Independence. This affair was given in honor of Mrs. J. D. Sutherland of Los Angeles, who is spending the summer in Salem, and also for Mrs. William Brown, who is leaving soon for Seal Rocks. Eight covers were placed for friends of the honor guests.

A party camping and fishing over the week-end in the Alsea country includes Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wyatt of Portland, Miss Christine Halvorsen, Miss Salome Sociofosky, Miss Jayne Wyatt, M. Mattson, Merle Fruit and Eugene Rullison of Salem.

Among the out-of-town guests who have arrived to attend the Rhoten-Lisle wedding this afternoon are: Mrs. Roy T. Lewis and small son, Robert Lee, Mrs. R. L. Cannon of Roseburg, and Miss Marie Lane of Roseburg.

Twenty-three members of the Past Matrons association of the Chadwick chapter of the Eastern Star met Friday evening for the regular monthly social evening as the guests of Mrs. Ida Godfrey, Assistant hostesses for the evening were: Cordelia Cupper, Estelle Smith, Ida Niles, and Margaret Wetcheon.

Wild flowers were used in profusion about the rooms with a large hanging basket of ocean spray suspended from the ceiling. On the table ocean spray was again used.

Covers were placed for: Ida Babcock, Ruth Brown, Lena Cherrington, Alice Coolidge, Cordelia Cupper, Eugenia Gillingham, Hazel Gillette, Ida Godfrey, Monie Hauser, May Johnson, Justie La Fore, Annabelle Miles, Minnie Mochler, Ida Niles, Elizabeth Shaffer, Estelle Smith, Lottie Smith, Elsie Steiner, Josephine Vass, Margaret Wetcheon and Mrs. Brown.

While the chapter will not meet in regular session again until September, a picnic affair is planned for later in the summer.

The Conover chapter of the Westminster Guild will meet tomorrow at the Presbyterian Manse. Mrs. Long and Mrs. Hester will be joint hostesses. The second chapter of "The Child and America's Future," will be the study.

The recitals during the week by pupils of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Churchill attracted the interest of a large number of Salem people. The first recital, Tuesday evening, was given by the advanced students; the next program, Wednesday afternoon, by the youngest class, and the last on Wednesday, by the intermediate group. All were open to the public.

The assistants for the first evening included not only Miss Lena Belle Tartar, vocalist, but also the much-liked Polyhymnia sextette which is directed by Mrs. Harry Styles. Miss Tartar sang two lovely contralto numbers, "April, My April," (Milligan) and Lehman's "There's No Spring But You." The sextette numbers included Neidlinger's "When the Daylight Goes," Brahe-Lucas "I Passed By Your Window," and an encore.

Solos were pleasingly given by each of the following: Thelma Flake, Margaret Ulrich, Claire Cornell, Helen Richardson, Martin Anderson, Della Doughlass, Carolyn Lambrith, Marie Harold, Gertrude Oehler, Lois Plummer, Gladys Albin, Mary Kightlinger, Evelyn Churchill, Rosalind Van Winkle, Genevieve Campbell and Marguerite Blumenberg. Helen Richardson and Gertrude Oehler, Evelyn Churchill and Carolyn Lambrith, and Rosalind Van Winkle and Lois Plummer appeared in duet numbers.

Interesting assistance was given again on Wednesday evening when Miss Louise Bryan and Miss Mary McCrone, both pupils of Miss Lena Belle Tartar, appeared in vocal groups, and Miss Mary Kightlinger with a reading. Miss Bryan sang both Haydn's "My Mother Bids Me Bind My Hair," and Miller's "Boats of Mine." Miss McCrone sang Tosti's "Serenade" and "Heart of the South," (Clintson.) Those appearing in piano numbers were Marie Harold, Loretta Varley, Winifred Mekkers, Marian Shaw, Margaret Poorman,

MISS ZEDA AZALEA RHOTEN
Salem girl whose marriage to Everett Lisle will be an event of this afternoon.

At 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, Miss Zeda Azalea Rhoten, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Rhoten will be the bride of Everett Wineland Lisle, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Lisle. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride's parents at 1595 South High street. Reverend James Lisle officiating. An improvised altar of pink rambler roses, cedar boughs, and fern will have a canopy of two double hearts made of the same roses. White lilies will be used at each side of the altar. The bride, who will be given away by her father, will be attended by Miss Ella St. Pierre. Paul Sherwood will act as best man.

Miss Rhoten will wear a bridal gown of Canton crepe with beaded panels charmingly accentuated with Spanish lace. She will wear a full length veil of tulle caught with orange blossoms and carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, matricaria, and bride's roses. Miss St. Pierre will wear a crystal beaded pink georgette over electric blue. Her bouquet will be delphinium and roses. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Laura Pemberton, accompanied by Miss Lucille Rhoten, sister of the bride, will sing, "I Love You Truly." The bridal party will take their places as Forrest Wax plays Lohengren's wedding march. The ring service will be used after which will follow the wedding march by Mendelssohn.

Arthur Hollenberg, Ellen Tower, Linda Kemmel, Louise Allen, Wilhamette Blakesley, Frances Laws, Zelma Lohy, Winifred Zylstra, Helen Allen, Maida Caldwell, Kenneth Moser, and Marguerite Blumenberg.

A group of nine gave numbers on the afternoon program. Well deserving of mention were the assistants for the day. George Stoner, a young violinist of considerable talent, played Dancila's "Redowa de Wallerstein." The vocal duet, "Georgia Lullaby" sung by Donald and Glen Woodry, was received with much applause. Nona Woodry sang, also in delightful fashion, "What the Bird Sang."

The pianists of the afternoon were: Zelpha White, Lucy Klein, Kathryn Ellis, Lucile Nash, Kenneth Klein, Theresa Ulrich, Le Velle Keene, Lucy Klein, and Kenneth Klein.

For all three programs the same attractive background of red rambler roses and ocean spray was used.

One of the most attractive home weddings of the season was solemnized last evening at 8 o'clock when Eva Lucille Weathers became the bride of Earl R. Strausbaugh at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Wiley Weathers, 1073 Front street, West Salem.

Preceding the impressive ring service which was read by the bride's father, Mrs. Cora Hendry sang, "Oh, Promise Me." An attractive arch way of crepe paper and pink and white flowers led to the altar, the bride taking her place to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Winifred Ritchie.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Della Weathers, as maid of honor, and Miss Cora Weathers, a cousin, and Aline Ritchie as bridesmaids. Romeo

A reception will follow the ceremony, with pink roses used in profusion in the dining room. The bride's cake will deck the sideboard while the three-tier wedding cake, iced in pink and white, in a circle of Japanese water lilies, will center the dining table. Mrs. A. C. Bohrstedt will cut the loaves. Mrs. James Fairchild will preside at the punch bowl. Miss Alberta Bohrstedt, Miss Marie Lane, Miss Esther Lisle, and Miss Lucille Rhoten will serve.

A hundred invitations were issued for the service.

Both Miss Rhoten and Mr. Lisle are graduates from the college of liberal arts at Willamette University. Miss Rhoten with the class of 1924, and Mr. Lisle with the class of 1923. Miss Rhoten is a member of the Palladian literary society. The past semester she has been teaching in the high school at Bridge, Oregon. Mr. Lisle is a member of the Lincolnian literary society and of the Epiphany Delta Mu fraternity of which he is a charter member. During the last year he has been physical director and Boy's work secretary of the YMCA at New Westminster, B. C.

For their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Lisle will go immediately to New Westminster. After September 12 they will return to Bridge, Oregon, where Mr. Lisle will be principal of the high school and Mrs. Lisle will resume her place teaching.

The Polanski acted as best man. The bridal party met beneath an arch of pink and white flowers, the bride lovely in white Canton crepe trimmed in satin ribbon, and wearing a full length veil with wreath of orange blossoms. Miss Della Weathers wore a pretty frock of light green and a floral crown about her head. She carried a basket of sweet peas in delicate tints. Both Miss Cora Weathers and Miss Ritchie wore frocks of pink taffeta and carried pastel-shaded sweet peas. The bridesmaids, also, wore floral crowns. During the ceremony the lovely number, "Meditation," was played softly. Following the wedding ceremony, Mrs. Hendry sang, "I Love You Truly."

The house was artistically decorated with ocean spray, roses and sweet peas. Those serving were Miss Vida McCoy, Miss Bessie Taylor, Mrs. E. S. Adams and Mrs. M. C. Mattson.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Strausbaugh of Salem. About fifty friends and relatives were in attendance.

After July 4, Mr. and Mrs. Strausbaugh will be at home to their friends at 2065 Cottage street.

An especially enjoyable picnic meeting was held by the Three Link club Friday afternoon at the E. B. Millard home. The afternoon was taken up with the regular social and business meeting. At 6 o'clock a picnic dinner was

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Liberty and Marion
REV. E. H. SHANKS, Pastor.

Morning Worship:

"Christ, the Hope of Glory"

EVENING WORSHIP: "CHALK-TALK."

Mr. Elmer Gandy of Los Angeles. Mr. Gandy is an Artist with wonderful technique. He will illustrate hymns and sacred story.

"The Church that Welcomes Strangers"

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Monday

Junior pupils of Miss Beatrice Shelton in invitational recital at Derby hall.

Conover chapter of the Westminster guild, Presbyterian manse, 7:30 o'clock.

Tuesday

American Legion auxiliary meeting at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Small.

Capitol unit No. 9 of the American Legion auxiliary, 8 p. m. sharp at the Chamber of Commerce. Important.

St. Paul's guild, Parrish house, 2:30 o'clock.

Picnic supper for Writers' club at home of Mrs. Blanche Jones, 606 South Church street.

Wednesday

Mrs. Lester Barr, hostess for club.

Thursday

Ladies' Aid society of the Center Street Methodist church.

spread on the outdoor table with its centerpiece of canterbury bells and sweet williams. The men joined the group at dinner.

Mrs. Allison Cummings of Roseburg, a former president of the club, was a guest for the day.

Miss Lucille Thompson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Thompson, became the bride on Friday of August W. Glutch, Jr., of Portland. The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. J. J. Evans officiating.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Rita Reid sang "At Dawning." Miss Reid also played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride, was attractive in cocoa-colored crepe de chine and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. She was given in marriage by her father and was attended by Miss Margaret Wylie. John Smock of Portland was best man. Miss Wylie wore powder blue crepe de chine and carried Cecil Brunner roses. The ceremony was performed under a floral bower, canterbury bells combining with summer foliage. A wedding supper was served at the Gray Belle following the ceremony, with covers placed for 18. The wedding cake was arranged to form the centerpiece for the table. Candles and pale pink sweet peas further accentuated the decorative motif of the day.

After a two weeks' honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Glutch will be at home to their friends in Portland.

The ladies of the American Legion auxiliary will meet at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Small.

St. Paul's Guild will meet at the Parrish house on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All members are especially invited to attend.

(Additional Society in First Sec.)

For the best food—well served—
You'll thoroughly enjoy the Spa

Special Sunday Dinner $1.00

Service from 12 p. m. to 8 p. m.

Cantaloupe Cocktail

Soup

Potage Alexandria

Tomato Bouillon en Tasse

Choice of:

Stuffed Oregon Turkey with Cranberry Sauce

Broiled Half Spring Chicken, a la Maryland

Baked Virginia Ham with Candied Sweet Potatoes

Fricassee of Chicken with Asparagus Tips

Prime Ribs of Beef, au Jus

New Potatoes en Cream

Creamed New Carrots and Peas

Combination Vegetable Salad

Choice of Desert:

Pie, Cake, Pudding, Ice Cream or Fruit Jello

Coffee Tea Milk

Spa Ice Cream is absolutely different from most

Ice Cream made nowadays.

I understand
Buick is going to have a new car!

you'll know
TUESDAY

Women's and Children's Bathing Suits For the Fourth and Other Days to Come

Women's Bathing Suits

$5.98

They're All Wool

Here is an opportunity to secure perfect fitting bathing suits, wonderful in elasticity—accurately proportioned,—carefully finished in every detail. They're knit of pure worsted yarn in attractive color combinations. If you're in need of a bathing suit now is the time to buy.

We're Showing a Big Assortment of

Women's and Children's Khaki Hiking and Sport Outfits

YOUR MAIL ORDERS

receive careful attention. We properly the postage and press within a radius of a hundred miles.

Satisfaction Guaranteed on every purchase or your money cheerfully refunded.

Kafoury Bros.
THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE

Salem Store
466 State St.

Portland Silk Shop
383 Alder St.

TABLE DE HOTE DINNER $1.00

SUNDAY, JUNE 29, 1924

Grapefruit Cocktail Chicken a la Colbert or Consomme Julienne
Head Lettuce, Sliced Tomatoes, Mayonnaise or Fruit Salad, Whipped Cream

Choice of

Small Tenderloin Steak en Casserole
Fried 1/2 Spring Chicken on Toast, Corn Fritters
Shredded Breast of Chicken on Toast
Roast Leg of Midget Lamb, Currant Jelly
Roast Young Chicken, Walnut Dressing
Prime Ribs of Eastern Steer au Jus
Buttered New Peas
Creamed New Potatoes Whipped Cream Potatoes

Dessert

Watermelon 1/2 Cantaloupe Pie Cake
Berries and Cream Fresh Loganberry Sundae
Gray Belle French Pastry Ice Cream
Sherbet

Tea Coffee Milk Iced Tea

A la Carte Service

GULBRANSEN THE REGISTERING PIANO

These Prices Save You Money

$275, $330, $420

In Mahogany, Oak, Walnut Finish

JUST THINK

The Registering Gulbransen

Priced at $420--$495--$575--$650 Any Finish

EASY TERMS

PETERS & MILLS PIANO HOUSE

Factory Representatives

519 COURT ST.

PHONE 441.