

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Obituary Notices
 In observance of the birthday of R. K. Ohling, connected with the Marcus & Doughton hardware store here, members of the family are gathering today at the old homestead on the Callipoola river, near Orleans, which lies between Albany and Corvallis. Those going from Salem are Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Ohling and Mr. and Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling. They will join the other at Orleans. Other members of the family who will be present will be Mr. and Mrs. Glen Ohling, Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Ohling and Roy Ohling, all of Orleans.

Man Asks Divorce
 Throwing butcher knives may go all right on the stage, but it has no place in married life. It is evidently believed by Leo W. DuBois, who included this playful habit among other reasons why he claims he should have a divorce from Celia DuBois. She struck him, cursed him and had threatened his life; he alleges in his complaint. In addition she accused him, he says, of infidelity. The couple were married at Tacoma April 4, 1921, and have no children.

Liquor Proves Costly
 Salem liquor comes high, very high, it was found out Saturday when Fred Ward, rancher from Brown's island, appeared before Marten Poulsen, police judge. Not wishing to discommode the visitor in the city and being of an amiable disposition, Judge Poulsen offered Ward his choice of paying $200 or spending the next 30 days in the city jail. Ward was arrested late Friday night by Officer James, who found him parading State street. Last reports from the police station were to the effect that Ward was busy visiting friends in the city in an effort to collect the $200, as he had no desire to be a guest of the city for the next three months.

BITS FOR BREAKFAST

It is a crime—
 The price of cherries.
 If the growers were organized, and if their interests had been looked after in passing the present tariff law, there would be no Royal Anns going at less than 8 cents a pound, and no Bings and Lamberts at less than 10 cents.

There are a lot of chapters to this story, and the Bits for Breakfast man proposes to give them, seriatim, ad libitum, till the cows come home. The cherry city of the world certainly has the right to stand up and holler for its own. There is a holler coming; a million of them.

Why Bleachodent Is Safest Way To Whiten Dark Teeth

Bleachodent Combination whitens dark, dingy, spotted, stained teeth in an entirely new safe way. Contains mild liquid and special paste. Liquid is highly scientific and embodies certain harmless ingredients which soften surface stains, without affecting enamel in any way. Paste gently removes these softened stains. Perfected by two prominent dentists, who used it on their own teeth and on their patients' teeth for four years, before offering it to public. Its safety is proven. Stained teeth spoil appearance, cause tooth decay and bad breath. Get Bleachodent COMBINATION today, for small cost. Beware of cheap liquid imitations. At all good dealers, such as Perry's Drug Store, Salem, Oregon.
