Thursday
Ladies' Aid society of the Center Street Methodist church.

The Boston School of Theology. Hark Doney will be present for the ceremony arriving directly in San Francisco from Boston where he has been attending Harvard university.

Mrs. Ida Stone arrived in Salem Monday from Brownsville, Texas, for a two month visit with her brothers, W. L. Cummings and George L. Cummings. The three not having been together for 32 years.

The Ladies' aid society of the Jason Lee church will meet at 9:30 today for an all day meeting in the basement of the church. Each lady will bring her "paper bag" lunch for the noon hour, and at 2:30 o'clock election of officers will be held. It is especially desired that as many members of the society as possible be present for the day.

Covers for four were placed at the 1 o'clock luncheon yesterday at which Mrs. Myrtle Lawrence was hostess for the pleasure of Lieutenant-Commander and Mrs. Ross T. McIntire who are in Salem on their way to Seattle and Mrs. A. N. David a guest from Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bohrstedt and daughter, Alberta, accompanied by Miss Marie Corner will leave in the morning for Glendale, Oregon, where they will spend the Fourth. Miss Corner will remain for two weeks as a guest at the Pratt farm.

The marriage of the youngest daughter, Helen Scott, occasioned the first reunion of the McIntire family in 19 years, on the 20th of June at the home of the parents, Reverend and Mrs. D. N. McIntire at Spokane.

All six children came together at this time: H. F. McIntire, an attorney of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McIntire and son, Willard, of Marshfield; Mrs. E. A. Shilton and daughters, June and Mary Jean; Mrs. Jean McIntire Peary and son; Altee; David McIntire, Jr.; and Mrs. Helen McIntire Lawson.

Photographs of the family will appear in the Sunday edition this week of the Spokane Review.

Miss Sadie Pratt, a graduate of Willamette university with the class of 1923, has accepted a contract for next year at Klaber, Wash.

Miss Cella Boltman, private secretary to Governor Walter M. Pierce, will leave this morning for a motor trip to Tacoma and other Washington cities. She will be the guest of her mother for a few days, returning to Salem at the end of the week.

Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman motored to Portland where she was a guest yesterday.

Word received from Miss Edna Garfield by her Salem friends tell of an interesting return trip from Cleveland. Latest word is written from Seattle with a trip to Rainier National park in view. The Oregon delegation especially enjoyed the trip to Lake Louise in the Canadian Rockies.

The Junior program by pupils of T. S. Roberts given on Saturday afternoon at the attractive studio-residence, attracted a group of 75 friends who were delighted with the playing of the young pianists and with the vocal and instrumental assistance. Edith Findley played the cornet early in the program. Arbutus Rudy sang.

The group appearing on the program in piano numbers included: Vernon Bushnell, Paul Kafoury, Harriett Pointer, Dorris Kemp, Kenneth Beardsley, Sammie Ramp, Kenneth Morris, Vael Rogers, Blanche Reese, Grace Elizabeth Holman, Maxine Sun Mary Jane Lawrence Engstrom, Isobelle Lau, Lawrence Engstrom.

Sheldon Sackett is attending summer school at Harvard for the season. He expects to remain for the winter. Mr. Sackett is a graduate from Willamette university with the class of 1922.

Mrs. Lester Barr will be hostess today at a 1 o'clock luncheon, for the pleasure of club friends. Bridge will follow as the diversion of the afternoon.

A considerable Salem group will be interested in the details of the marriage of Helen Scott McIntire to Willard Lawson, solemnized on the 20th of June in Spokane.

The service was read at 4 o'clock in the presence of 35 friends and relatives at the home of the bride's parents, the father of the bride, Reverend D. N. McIntire officiating. The members of the bridal party took their places under a floral canopy at an altar of orange blossoms as Mrs. Amelia Shilton played the impressive Mendelssohn march. The bride, wearing delicate georgette over orchid, was attended by Miss Ruth Lawson as maid of honor and Miss Sadie Pratt as bridesmaid. Miss Lawson wore gray, beaded georgette, and Miss Pratt georgette over apricot satin.

The bride and her attendants carried Cecil Brunner roses and sweet peas. David McIntire Jr. acted as best man. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Jean McIntire Peary sang "Oh, Promise Me," accompanied by Mrs. Amelia Shilton. The bride was given away by her brother, H. F. McIntire. Jean Cassals, in pale pink organza, was flower girl while Altee Peary, carrying the ring in the heart of a rose, was ring bearer.

At the close of the ceremony Miss Sadie Pratt sang, "At Dawning." A buffet luncheon followed the service. Between courses, Mrs. Peary sang "Oh, Promise Me," and Miss Pratt, "Because."

After today, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson will be at home to their friends in Blanchard, Wash., where Mr. Lawson is associated with his father in business. The honeymoon was spent at American Lake in the Sound region.

The Business and Professional Women's club will consider the appropriate subject of vacations at 8 o'clock this evening at the last meeting of the season at the chamber of commerce. Miss Beryl Holt is in charge. The earlier part of the evening will be given over to reports of retiring officers and committees. Refreshments will complete the evening.

Miss Doris Nye is the guest in Centralia, Wash., of her sister, Mrs. F. W. Schwab.

Mr. and Mrs. David Eyre were guests for the week-end at Neskonwin. The roads were found in unusually good condition, the trip over being made in two and one half hours.

Others from Salem on the Neskonwin beach for Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Law, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Conroy.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Fitz of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, together with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McKenzie and daughter, Doris, motored from Seattle Saturday and spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. McKenzie, 2560 Cherry avenue. They have returned to Seattle.

Miss Jewell Deik was married to Albert Christensen at 11 o'clock Saturday morning at a quiet ceremony performed at the Jason Lee Methodist church, Reverend Thomas A. Acheson officiating. Only members of the immediate family of the bride were present.

The church was festive with roses for the occasion. The bride was lovely in crepe backed satin worn with full length veil.

After a week's honeymoon at Portland and other points, Mr. and Mrs. Christensen will make their home in Drain, where Mr. Christensen is employed. Mrs. Christensen, after attending Willamette university, has taught the past year at Lincoln high school.

The combined meeting of the Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary societies of the First Methodist church will be held on Wednesday, June 9, a week from today at the home of Mrs. M. C. Findley on the lawn.

The closing week of the daily vacation Bible school is occasioning a number of things in both a social and a culminating way. On Monday a luncheon of the principals was held with covers placed at this time for:

Miss Mary Findley, director of all of the schools, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Jasper, Rev. Harry Johnson, Elizabeth Hogg, Adella Chapler, Misses Genevieve, Louise and Edith Findley, Mrs. Hobart Shade, Esther Roeder, J. L. Farmer, Miss Abrams, Gretchen Brown, Lea Fanning, Esther Lisie and Margaret Fisher.

Yesterday a picnic of the teachers and pupils was held in Bush's pasture after the regular morning session. The children took their own lunches, ice cream being provided. Cars took them from the school to the picnic grounds.

Tonight the various schools will present programs typical of the work they have been doing. These closing demonstration programs, one at each school, will begin at 7:30 o'clock and last not over an hour. The principals will introduce the programs after which the young people themselves will preside. On each program there will be a ten-minute talk by an outside speaker. Among these speakers will be: C. A. Kells, Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, and Rev. Ward Williams Long.

The enrollment for the combined schools has been 248 with an average attendance of 192.

Maxine Meyers left Sunday to be the guest for a number of weeks at the E. M. Huldon home at Blaycock, in eastern Oregon.

Remember the dates—July 16 to 23. No Sunday programs.

Chautauqua is the one big, bright anticipation of the whole year for a large number of home people. That's why a few are willing to get behind it and insure its coming.

The program this year looks like a winner. The management assures us it is one of the best.

Several of the guarantors have almost sold their quota of tickets already. This will not sell the quotas of the others, however, and others should not forget that.

Watch for announcement of reserved seat sales. Full and fair notice will be given.

The committee is studying details to make Chautauqua more enjoyable. They hope to locate the tent this year so the seats will incline upward from the stage back so those behind will not be prevented from seeing by those in front. This will be arranged if possible without removing the tent too far from its original location.

Kids, if you want to go, see Mrs. Vandervort, 435 North Winter street, Jolly Junior sign in the window. She has a scheme to help you out, also prizes for the hustlers. There'll be big doin's for the kids.

Plans to bring the Chautauqua back with a bang in 1925 are being discussed. Guarantors are realizing what it means to hundreds of Salem people and as a civic influence and are glad they are guarantors.

Next to the honor of being a guarantor will be the honor of being a backer of a guarantor. A great many can be backers. Want to know how? Want to be one of the real pullers to bring Chautauqua back next year? Ten or eleven years has proven the qualities of Chautauqua. It's good, all right, and we can't afford to do without it. You can help and you'll be proud of it. Get busy with your asker and you'll learn how.

Get ready for the big ticket boom after the Fourth. Get your tickets early and be at the tent a little ahead of time if you want a good seat this year. Fair warning.
