Officer Nelson Must Be Reinstated, Says Court

O. Nelson, who was dismissed from the Portland police force by Mayor George L. Baker in January, 1923, after he had served 25 years, must be reinstated by the mayor, the supreme court held yesterday in reversing Judge George G. Bingham, who conducted the case in Multnomah county. The case was a mandamus action brought by Nelson against the mayor and the board of city commissioners. Samuel Director of Clackamas county, who was found guilty of arson on a charge of burning a store owned by Jacob Peters at Wilsonville and a dwelling owned by A. D. Aden, lost his appeal to the supreme court. The offense carries a penitentiary sentence of from 10 to 20 years. Other opinions handed down were: State of Oregon vs. Con Fitzgerald, appellant, appealed from Lake county appeal from a conviction for larceny of a cow and sentenced to the penitentiary; opinion by Chief Justice McBridge; Judge J. M. Batchelder reversed and case remanded. Aaron Wade vs. L. C. Johnson, appellant, appeal from Walla Walla county; action for money; opinion by Justice McCourt; Judge J. W. Knowles affirmed. E. C. Maddock, appellant, vs. W. G. McDonald et al, appeal from Gilliam county; action to recover money; opinion by Justice Rand; Judge D. R. Parker affirmed. R. M. Carrey vs. J. F. Haun, et al, appellant, appeal from Walla Walla county; suit for an accounting; opinion by Justice Burnett; Judge Walter H. Evans reversed. The Intelligence of the lower animals is sometimes remarkable. We once knew a writer of popular songs who could stand on his hind legs.
