Much of Prune Crop May

Be Sold as Green Fruit

Statements from buyers of fruit who are here purchasing cherries and berries indicate that a good part of the prune crop of this year may be sold in the shape of green fruit. Although the buynouncements of what their firms will buy, many have declared that the purchase of large lots is un-

Kenneth Graham of the Marion apartments hard a small boy on the opposite bank calling for help. At first he thought the youngster was merely seeking to divert his attention. Though the river was extremely rapid at this point Graham decided to make the attempt to cross to the other side. There he found a boy, about 11 years old, floating face down in the water. He dragged the youngster to the shore and in a short time had him revived. The lad failed to give his name, and apparently was little the worse for his narrow escape though badly frightened. Upon learning that he had gone into the river and had stepped into a deep hole and was unable to swim, Graham give him a severe lecture upon this practice, and urged him to confine his cooling off processes at the playground or some

Petitions Allowed for Union High Distric where where older persons were Petitions for the organization of a union high school district for the north end of the county were allowed at a meeting of the Marion county boundary board yesterday. Districts included in the union district are Woodburn, Belle Passi, Donald, White, Hubbard, Hall, Union and the Marion county portions of Aurora and Butteville. The hearing of re monstances will be held at the court house at 10 o'clock, Wednesday, July 30. Notices are now being posted calling attention to the meeting.

An election is almost certain for it is expected that at least one remonstrance will be filed. Woodburn and Hubbard, which already have high schools, will be required to vote upon the new district whether any remonstrances are filed or not. If the organization is approved, the new school would be located at Woodburn. If Woodburn or Hubbard fail to vote in favor of the proposed district it is automatically lost.
