

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Births Reported—

Clarence is the name of a baby boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bear of North Salem, at the Deaconess hospital June 27. Mr. Bear is a foreman at the paper mill here. The mother and child will be taken home Sunday or Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Sanders of Chemawa are receiving congratulations on the arrival of Robert, June 30. Mr. Sanders is a painter at the Salem Indian school.

No Mail Deliveries—

With no mail deliveries being made Friday, and only sufficient clerks on hand to take care of the incoming and outgoing mail, the Salem postoffice was a deserted place yesterday.

Improve the Summer Months—

By taking some useful studies at the Capital Business College. New class in shorthand Monday, July 7. Office open Saturday. Let us talk it over.

Mrs. Smith Recovering—

Reports from the Deaconess hospital are to the effect that Mrs. Homer H. Smith, who received a fracture of several bones in her foot while alighting from an automobile last week, is recovering rapidly and is expected to leave the hospital the latter part of next week.

Work on Park Sign—

Taking advantage of a short vacation, F. Ray Felker, local commercial artist, is working on a map of the Salem district for the Lions club sign at the automobile camp grounds. The club placed the sign in position several weeks ago and last week added the ornamental top, bearing the insignia of the organization.

Lunches Served—

Picnic lunches put up, box lunches at all hours. Bake-Rite Bakery.

Automobile Turns Over—

In a collision between automobiles driven by F. S. Howell and J. P. Callahan, both of Portland, at Center and Commercial Friday, the Howell car was overturned. It was reported to the police. No one was injured. According to Howell he was driving south and the other machine was coming from the east, striking his rear wheel. Callahan claims that he had just passed another automobile and did not see Howell coming on his left.

Don't Like Berry Fields—

Because pickers can make but an average of $2 a day in the loganberry and raspberry fields, there is a great shortage of labor in this part of the fruit industry, according to Sim Phillips, who has charge of the United States employment bureau at the YMCA. Cherry pickers have been making from $4 to $7 a day, he said.

Attempted Burglary—

Some time Thursday night or early Friday morning prowlers attempted to gain entrance to the People's Market at 155 North Liberty. A window was jimmied at the rear of the building but evidently the prowlers were frightened away and left their job unfinished. The police, who investigated, are of the opinion that the work was done by amateurs.

Cherrians Meet Tuesday—

An important meeting of the Cherrians has been called for Tuesday night by King Bing Al Pierce. Among matters that will be taken up is the question of having a good turnout for the trip to Woodburn Thursday night. It is planned to make several other visits to towns in the county during the summer. The band will give a concert and the Cherrians put on stunts to "show their stuff" at these out of town visits.

Pay Your Irrigation Bill—

Flat irrigation bills now due. Ten per cent discount if paid on or before July 10.

Many Picnics Staged—

In addition to numerous "family" picnics and small groups spending the day along the river and in the parks, there were several large picnics held in various places in the district yesterday. The West Salem Methodist church held their annual picnic in Polk county while a large number of the membership of the First Presbyterian church spent the day at Albany where the annual Willamette Presbytery picnic was held in Bryant park. Members of the Evangelical church Sunday school left for the A. J. Hagar's grove, three miles southeast of Salem, early Friday morning for their annual picnic.

Another Speeder Nabbed—

While traveling down South Commercial in excess of the rate of speed allowed by law, Ellis Hurst was arrested between Mill and Ferry Friday afternoon by Officer Cannon. He was cited to appear in police court at 10 o'clock this morning.

Drunk Man Arrested—

An old-time celebration of the glorious Fourth of July landed Wesley Berry behind the bars at the city jail Friday afternoon. He was arrested on Liberty street by Officer Louis Olson. Berry will be given an opportunity to tell the judge all about it today.

YMCA Is Closed—

Whenever the YMCA closes its doors it is a sign that there is little activity in the city. Friday the YMCA doors were closed all day while C. A. Kells, general secretary, and R. R. Boardman, physical director, took a well-earned rest. Because of the fact that so many families were out of the city, the two Salem playgrounds, on North Fourteenth and at the Lincoln school, were closed for the day.

Few Houses Decorated—

Only in spots was the city decorated for the Fourth of July, and an occasional residence gave evidence of patriotism. No efforts was made in the business district.

FIGHTS AT PRISON
FEATURE OF FOURTH

Four-Round Matches for Various Classes Prove Popular With Inmates

Athletic events in the morning and a baseball game in the afternoon filled the day for inmates of the state prison Friday for their observance of the fourth of July.

Leading off with a 50 yard dash, won by Celestine, the events moved smoothly and rapidly within the confines of the penitentiary walls. Johnson, a huge negro with about No. 12 shoes, was second. Johnson demonstrated his agility, which was remarkable, by winning the 100 yard dash, but was disqualified for receiving the prize because he had won an award in a previous contest. Conner was second, and was awarded first prize money. In spite of his size, and feet, Johnson also participated in the high jump, which was won by Alex Breenner.

Crosby, Potter and Merkle, all members of the prison baseball team, were the winners of the three-legged race, with "Diamond" taking the broad jump, Hobson captured the half-mile race and Montpelier placing first in the sack race. Farmer, a one-legged man, took second place.

An extra bout was scheduled for the boxing feature, but was short lived. Catapang, a Filipino, met Martin in the center of the ring after the song sounded, struck one blow and Martin struck the floor. After listening to the birdies sing sweet lullabies, he was revived in a few minutes.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Shaw and Mr. and Mrs. C. Kightlinger and families will return to Salem Sunday after camping out near Gates for a few days.

John Cochran, deputy collector of internal revenue at Portland, was in Salem Friday to visit his brother, E. P. Cochran, 1757 Chemeketa. Mr. Cochran is a former deputy secretary of state.

After spending two weeks in a local hospital, J. E. Moe was returned to his home at Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Spicklin, accompanied by Nancy Spicklin and Thelma Young, left Friday morning for Pacific City to spend the remainder of the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Stock and family have returned from a trip over the McKenzie highway and a visit with old friends in Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brandt and children are spending a few days at Tillamook.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb and son Kenneth are spending the week-end at Foley Springs, in the McKenzie river country.

Ernest W. Muller, one of the owners of the Capital City Bedding company, and Mrs. Mueller, are at the beach for a few days.

Joseph C. Gibson of Lebanon was a recent visitor in the city. George Strong of Woodburn was a guest of Harry Rowe in Salem yesterday.

John Penner of Dallas has returned home after a month spent in the Deaconess hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk and Miss Florence Howe are on a 10-day vacation trip to Crater Lake and the Oregon Caves, in southern Oregon. In Brownsville they will be joined by the bother of the two women.

Spart Jordan, who was injured by an Oregon Electric train near Conser about a week ago, has recovered from his injuries and is expected to leave for his home today.

King George Will Review
Britain's Strength at Sea

LONDON, July 4. (AP.)—King George will review more than 200 warships at Spithead the end of July at what is expected to be the finest naval spectacle seen in British home waters since the war. At the last naval review at Spithead in July 1914, 220 warships were at anchor, but the navy then possessed more capital ships than it does today.

Among the big ships participating in the July review will be the Queen Elizabeth, the Barham, Malaya, Valiant, Warspite, Revenge, Royal Oak, Resolution, Royal Sovereign, Centurion, Ajax and Thunderer.

COMPLIMENTING Mrs. Warren (D. Lamport Mildred Garland) of Los Angeles, who was the house guest from Wednesday to Monday of Miss Beatrice Walton, Miss Nell Thielson was a delightful luncheon hostess at 1 o'clock Monday. Covers were placed for six, with a charming old-fashioned bouquet of mixed flowers centering the table. The guests included Mrs. Warren Dunn Lamport, Miss Beatrice Walton, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Miss Edna Symonten, Mrs. Rex Sanford and the hostess, Miss Nell Thielson.

Mrs. Lamport, who left early the same day for Lebanon, is the daughter of Senator Garland.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy O. Smith and sons, Lawrence and Robert, motored to Cascadia for the Fourth.

Miss Mary Wells of Portland is spending the week-end in Salem. While here she will be a guest at the home of Mrs. P. W. Brown at 296 North Cottage street. Miss Wells is editing the "Epworth Broadcaster," the official paper of the Oregon Epworth League conference. Miss Wells has interesting summer employment in the "Book Shop" at Gills in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Schlitz, after spending the week at the S. L. Minard home, returned yesterday morning to their home in Portland.

University of Oregon, Eugene, July 3—Miss Grace Edgington, for several years alumni secretary and editor of Old Oregon, who resigned her post this spring, will leave the campus today. She will drive to Portland and from there to Sisters, Or., where she plans to do a little ranching and some writing.

Miss Edgington, after graduating from the University of Oregon in 1916, was for three years on the faculty of the University of Washington. In 1920 she returned to her alma mater as alumni secretary and editor of Old Oregon, the alumni magazine. At that time Old Oregon was a quarterly publication, six by nine inches in size. Under Miss Grace Edgington's editorship the publication increased to three times its former size, and is now issued nine times each year.

In addition to her duties as alumni secretary and editor Miss Edgington has been a member of the faculty as an assistant professor in the English department. She was acting dean of women in the spring term of 1923.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh had as their guest the first part of the week their daughter, Mrs. Ruth Foster of Portland.

Dr. W. C. Kantner of the First Congregational church officiated at two weddings on Thursday of this week. At 9:30 o'clock in the morning he read the impressive service uniting in marriage Mrs. Nellie Blisseth of Salem and B. L. Watkins of Linn county. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage.

The second ceremony, at which Miss Bettina E. Stabenow became the bride of Walter L. Van Norden, was performed at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon. This service was held at the home of the bride's mother in Troutland. The ring ceremony was used. Mr. and Mrs. Van Norden will make their home in Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Greene and three daughters left yesterday for a week-end stay at Mount Hood.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albert and daughters, Mary Jane and Josephine, left Thursday for Portland where they will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Krause and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Seigel for a trip over the Fourth to Mount Hood.

Miss Ruth Austin, society editor on the Capital Journal, left the first of the week for a fortnight's vacation.

A Salem group spending the week-end on the upper Santiam near Mehams includes Mr. and Mrs. David Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Darby and Mr. and Mrs. Mark McCallister and children.

Mrs. W. E. Tomlinson left earlier in the week to spend the Fourth of July in Wenatchee.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hauser and children are spending the week-end at Newport.

Members of the board of the Children's Farm Home announce the dedication of the third cottage tomorrow, Sunday, July 6. The exercises will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock. Each one is asked to provide his own lunch with coffee served by the farm home committee hostesses. Considerable interest is expected in connection with the event.

The high school at Raymond, Washington, will be quite distinctly a Willamette university center the coming winter with all teachers but two coming from the local university. Miss Kathleen La Raut, Willamette's May Queen, will be dean of women and also teach music and English. Miss Mary Wells, who graduated with the class of 1924, will be head of the French department. She was senior scholar in French during her closing year in Willamette.

Miss Lucille Tucker, of the class of 1921, will go this fall to Raymond from Woodburn where she has been for the past two years. Miss Thelma Mills, of the class of 1923, will go to Raymond from Roseburg; and James Bohie to Raymond from Falls City. Shelton Sackett, of the class of 1922, will be principal of the school while Raymond Dimick will retain his place on the Raymond faculty from last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sanford are spending the fourth of July week-end at Agate beach. They will return tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. James Humphreys will return tomorrow from a week's trip to Victoria, B. C. The trip from Seattle was made by boat.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Barton and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Barton are among the many Salem people spending the fourth of July week-end at Cascadia.

Mrs. C. O. Rice, 675 Center street, who so painfully injured her arm in a recent fall, is able to notice a marked improvement in the condition of the dislocated member. The misfortune occurred toward the middle of last month.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk and Miss Florence Howe left Thursday of Crater lake and the Oregon caves. They will be accompanied on the ten day trip by the mother of Mrs. Kirk and Miss Howe.

Mrs. Ora McIntyre will arrive home this evening after a week's vacation at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Geer, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Purfrey of Portland, have motored to Crater lake for the fourth of July season.

For the pleasure of Miss Annabelle Hawley on her thirteenth birthday, Mrs. Cecil Hawley entertained at her home, 989 Oak street, for an outdoor evening on Thursday, July 3.

Guests for the affair were: Miss Velma Hunt, Miss Virginia Holt, Miss Virginia Sisson, Miss Vivian Marr, Miss Lucille White, Miss Grace Elizabeth Holman, Miss Margaret Heltzel, Miss Alta Fleming, Miss Julia Creech, and Miss Annabelle Hawley.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goulet and son, Homer, Jr., are enjoying a week-end trip at the coast. They will stop at Seaside and Bay ocean.

George W. King of Seattle arrived Thursday to spend the fourth of July holidays at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. King, at 278 North Cottage street. Mr. King since his graduation from the University of Oregon with the class of 1923.

has been connected with the George H. Burr, Conrad, and Broom Bond company in Seattle.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Relief corps will be held this afternoon in the hall.

Miss Agnes Bayne arrived from Marshfield yesterday for a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Bayne. Miss Bayne has been employed in Marshfield since early in the spring. Miss Mary Elizabeth Bayne is also home from Marysville, California, to be the guest of her parents. She has had with her a friend, Miss Florence Wharton of Roseburg.

Norman Lowe of Portland will also be a guest at the Bayne home.

Practically every store in the city, with the exception of cigar stores and the restaurant and confectionery places, closed up shop Friday while proprietors and customers alike sought the mountains or the beach resorts. While the streets were not entirely deserted, there were less persons and automobiles to be seen than on Sundays.

Only one celebration was observed in Salem, that at the state prison. Those who did not spend the day, or are away from the city for the remainder of the week on an outing trip, were in attendance at one of the several celebrations in the district. Station, Independence, Dallas and Canby each claimed its share of the population.

It was a big day at the penitentiary and the escape of three men the night before did not affect the program. The prison band gave a short concert in the morning, with John L. Brady, of The Statesman, making the principal address. Mr. Brady stressed
