

STATESMAN PAGE OF LIVE SPORT NEWS FROM EVERYWHERE

SWINE BREEDERS WHO MAKE IT PAY

A Farm Very Near to Salem Run Like a Business; All Family Workers

The Slogan man last night asked for the phone number of R. W. Hogg & Sons to ask Mr. Hogg if swine breeding here in the Salem district is a paying industry.

Ronald Hogg answered the phone. He said he would like a little time in which to make proper answer, if he was to be quoted. But there was no time.

So this is in the nature of an interview, right off the wire, with no time to revise or read proof.

It Does Pay Mr. Hogg said swine breeding does pay here in the Salem district. They raise Polan Chinas; pure bred; 125 to 150 a year of them. They use six to 12 sows; average about 10. They raise corn, wheat, oats. They sow some barley for a cover crop in their orchards, and pasture their hogs on this in the rainy season.

They work about 300 acres of land. They keep registered goats, Hampshire sheep, White Rock chickens. They grow walnuts, cherries, peaches, prunes, pears, apples, strawberries, etc.

They finish off the hogs on corn in season, and on wheat and oats. They sell a good many as breeders, cull close, and market the others.

To Use Up Waste Mr. Hogg thinks every farmer should have some swine, otherwise a lot of stuff that can be turned into cash products will go to waste.

R. W. Hogg & Sons is the firm name here. It is a family concern, conducted as a business. The sons are Ronald and Glenn. There is a sister, Margaret, and the mother and father. They all work together. Their place fronts on the west side Pacific highway, about two miles above West Salem.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

They are also bee keepers; keep 50 or 40 stands, and extract the honey and sell it under their own name.

brand. They are close to the Willamette river, and the bees have a wide range, feeding on wild blackberry blossoms, white and alsike clover, etc., when the abundant spring bee pasture is gone.

They also do some dairying, using Jerseys. They expect to extend this line somewhat.

Here is a family where all work together, make a business of farming, and conduct their operations along business lines, and make a success of it. They furnish an example that should be more generally followed in the Salem district.

ALBANY CITIZEN ACCIDENT VICTIM

H. Bryant, Father of Deputy State Treasurer, Killed By Auto

LAGRANDE, Ore., July 9.—H. Bryant, 76, of Albany, Ore., was almost instantly killed today when his neck was broken in an automobile accident near Parry, four miles from here.

Bryant and John Elichman, also of Albany, were returning to Albany from Union, Ore., where they had been visiting, when the automobile, driven by Elichman, plunged over a 20-foot embankment. Bryant died before he could be taken to a hospital. Elichman was also injured.

There will be no inquest, it was announced.

Mr. Bryant was graduated from one of the early classes at Willamette university and was the father of John Bryant, chief deputy in the office of the state treasurer. He was born near Scio, Linn county. Mr. Bryant was the donor of the municipal park at Albany, formed by the peninsula between the Willamette and Callapooa rivers, which bears his name. His son left yesterday for La Grande.

FUNERAL HELD FOR CALVIN JR. IN WASH.

(Continued from page 1)

lot where the president's mother and sister lie and tomorrow night those who made the journey will return to the capitol.

The services this afternoon were of short duration but the emotions of many of those who filled the East Room could not be concealed. As a quartet sang "O, Love That Will Not Let Me Go," there were moist eyes and broken sobs came from several parts of the chamber.

Then the Reverend Jason Noble Pierce of the First Congregational church, the president's pastor, prayed God "to use the precious memory to make the family strong and love enduring."

"They love comprehends our sorrows," he continued, "and we thank Thee for Thy divine comfort. And make us to live that when our time comes we may have his bravery, courageousness and soldier fortitude."

It was prayer for divine comfort and it was a tribute to the memory of the youth.

Opening the service, the pastor read the 23rd Psalm and then other verses of scripture.

Suffers Worst Fire Season. SPOKANE, Wash., July 9.—The U. S., particularly the west, is suffering its worst fire season in 10 or 15 years, Col. W. B. Greeley, national head of the forest service, declared in a talk before fifty forest service men and timber land owners here today.

You can't really inherit "nerves" but you can inherit money enough to afford them.

AMATEUR BOBBY JONES, AND PRO MELHORN WHO TIED FOR EARLY LEAD IN OPEN GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

When this photograph was taken at Detroit it looked as though Jones, the defending champion, would come through again. He was tied with William Melhorn, the St. Louis professional at 147. Jones's play was sensational but after making 147 in the first day's play he took a 75 and a 78 for a total of 200, finishing 3 strokes behind Cyril Walker, Englewood.

COAST AND MAJOR LEAGUE GAMES

Seattle 5, Frisco 6. SEATTLE, Wash., July 9.—San Francisco gained a stronger hold on first place here today by defeating Seattle, 6 to 5. A double play by the Seals in the seventh with the bases loaded and one out saved the contest for relief hurler F. Griffin. Ellison and Rohwer both hit homers, Rohwer's coming with two on. The Seals now top Seattle by one game and a half for first place.

Score— R. H. E. San Francisco . . . . . 6 8 1 Seattle . . . . . 5 7 3 Shea, Griffin and Agnew; Sutherland and Tobin.

Oakland 6, Sacramento 4. OAKLAND, Cal., July 9.—Defeat of Sacramento today by a score of 6 to 4 raised the Oaks to fifth place from the next to the cellar position in the standing of the Pacific Coast league teams. Oakland brought in two in the first, another in the third and put the game on ice in the sixth when three more crossed the plate. The Senators were easy for Mails until the eighth, when a single, a base on balls, and then a home run by M. Shea gave the Senators three runs. Outfielder Smith and Pitcher Hall were sent to the clubhouse by the umpires for disputing close decisions.

Score— R. H. E. Sacramento . . . . . 4 9 0 Oakland . . . . . 6 10 1 Hughes and Koehler; Mails and Baker.

Angels 8, Portland 7. PORTLAND, Ore., July 9.—Los Angeles won another today from Portland after using three pitchers and two pinch hitters by the score of 8 to 7. Terrible base running by the Beavers in the seventh when they had two on and no outs cost them heavily. One of the base runners, Poole, ran half way to third base with the ball in Pitcher Weinert's hand. The unusual spectacle was presented of a pitching leaving his box, running down Poole and getting the putout.

Score— R. H. E. Los Angeles . . . . . 8 12 2 Portland . . . . . 7 10 1 Hughes, Ramsay, Weinert and Jenkins; Eckert, Bedient and Cochrane.

Vernon 7, Salt Lake 4. LOS ANGELES, July 9.—Vernon defeated Salt Lake today, 7 to 4.

Score— R. H. E. Salt Lake . . . . . 4 9 0 Vernon . . . . . 7 11 2 Ponder, Thomas, McCabe, Coumbe and Peters; Penner and D. Murphy.

J. W. DAVIS HAS UNUSUAL RECORD AS OFFICIAL (Continued from page 1)

from the house to accept that office. In the summer of 1918, Mr. Davis went to Europe as a member of the committee of three Americans to treat with Germany as to the exchange of prisoners of war. He was in Berne on this mission when, upon the resignation of Walter Hines Page, Mr. Wilson made Mr. Davis the American ambassador to Great Britain.

Mr. Davis returned to this country for a conference with the president and took up his work in London in November, just as the war came to an end. In his capacity as ambassador he was present in Versailles during the peace conference.

Mr. Davis' name as a candidate for president was placed before the Democratic national convention in San Francisco in 1920 by Governor John J. Cornwell of West Virginia. He received a vote which reached a maximum at 76 on the 39th ballot. Mr. Davis at that time was busy as an ambassador in London.

After returning from the dip-

Boston 6, Pittsburgh 3. PITTSBURGH, July 9.—(National)—Boston checked Pittsburgh's winning streak of four straight games by taking today's game 6 to 3.

Score— R. H. E. Boston . . . . . 6 12 0 Pittsburgh . . . . . 3 9 0 Genewich and O'Neill; Kremer, Stone, Cooper and Gooch.

Cincinnati 6, Philadelphia 3. CINCINNATI, July 9.—(National)—After Philadelphia had taken a two run lead in their half of the eighth inning today on singles by Henline and Mitchell and a triple by Harper, the Reds came back in their half of the round and scored five earned runs on seven hits off Mitchell, Betts and Pinio, winning the game, 6 to 3.

Score— R. H. E. Philadelphia . . . . . 3 8 0 Cincinnati . . . . . 6 12 0 Mitchell, Betts, Pinio and Henline, Wendell; Mays and Hargrave.

Brooklyn at Chicago; rain. New York at St. Louis; rain.

omatic service in 1921 Mr. Davis began the practice of law in New York in association with the firm of Stetson, Jennings, Russell and Davis.

Mr. Davis was married in 1899 to Miss Julia T. McDonald of Jefferson county, West Virginia. After her death he married Miss Ellen G. Bassel, daughter of John Bassel, a West Virginia attorney. He has one child, Mrs. Wm. MacMillan Adams, who lives in Copenhagen.

Three years ago Mr. Davis bought from A. C. Bedford, chairman of the board of the Standard Oil company of New York, a country home near Locust Valley, Long Island, where he now lives. Mrs. Davis votes in Locust Valley, but Mr. Davis still casts his ballots in Clarksburg.

OLYMPIC STANDINGS

OLYMPIC STADIUM, Colombes, France, July 9.—When dusk settled over the fourth day of the stirring competition the U. S. had taken a commanding lead. With 12 events, nearly half the program completed, the wearers of the shield had amassed a total of 135 points, nearly twice as many as Finland, which was in second place with 73. Great Britain trailed third with 34 1/2.

First place laurels also rest with the Americans, who have taken six events, while the Finns have captured four, and Great Britain two.

It will be a great loss to posterity if Dawes doesn't get a chance to express himself to the senate.

stuck it out through all the conflict to win victory at last, though tired and weary were frantic with joy. All about them hollow-eyed men and women, worn with the long struggle, forgot their fatigue in generous salute to the new leader of the democracy.

Upon the speaker's platform

Detroit 5-2, Washington 2-4. WASHINGTON, D. C., July 9.—(American)—Washington broke even with Detroit in today's double header, losing the first game 5 to 2 and winning the second 4 to 2.

Score (1st game)— R. H. E. Detroit . . . . . 5 11 2 Washington . . . . . 2 7 1 Wells and Woodall; Mogridge, Russell, Speece and Ruel.

Score (2nd game)— R. H. E. Detroit . . . . . 2 6 2 Washington . . . . . 4 6 1 Collins, Johnson and Bassler; Ogdin, Russell and Tate, Ruel.

Cleveland 3-6, Philadelphia 1-3. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 9.—(American)—Cleveland took both ends of a double header from Philadelphia, winning the first game, 3 to 1, and the second, 6 to 2.

Score (1st game)— R. H. E. Cleveland . . . . . 3 11 0 Philadelphia . . . . . 1 6 2 Smith and Wyatt; Baumgartner and Perkins.

Score (2nd game)— R. H. E. Cleveland . . . . . 6 11 1 Philadelphia . . . . . 3 6 1 Dawson, Roy, Clark, Metevier and Myatt; Rommell, Burns and Bruggs, Perkins.

Boston 7-5, St. Louis 4-0. BOSTON, Mass., July 9.—(American)—Boston took both games from St. Louis today, 5 to 4 and 5 to 0. In the second game Fuhr, back in the game after an attack of jaundice, pitched admirably.

Score (1st game)— R. H. E. St. Louis . . . . . 4 10 3 Boston . . . . . 5 10 1 Van Gilder, Pruett and Collins; Piery, Quinn, Ferguson and Pielich.

Score (2nd game)— R. H. E. St. Louis . . . . . 0 6 1 Boston . . . . . 5 9 0 Davis, Bayne and Severeid; Fuhr and Ewing.

Chicago 8, New York 6. NEW YORK, July 9.—(American)—Ineffective pitching by Markle and Gaston gave the Chicago Americans another victory from New York today, 8 to 6.

Score— R. H. E. Chicago . . . . . 8 11 0 New York . . . . . 6 10 1 Faber, Connolly and Schalk; Markle, Gaston and Schang.

JOHN W. DAVIS NAMED BY THE DEMOCRATS

(Continued from page 1)

stuck it out through all the conflict to win victory at last, though tired and weary were frantic with joy. All about them hollow-eyed men and women, worn with the long struggle, forgot their fatigue in generous salute to the new leader of the democracy.

Upon the speaker's platform

the figure of Senator Walsh, the center of wild scenes of past nights and days as he fought to keep proceedings in orderly channels, to stifle harsh outbursts and rule with reason and fairness to all, loomed above the swaying crowd below.

"Walsh for vice president; Walsh, Walsh," was shouted up at him as the parade of standards filed by below. Sometimes it came from a southern group, sometimes from an eastern group, or again from his own western colleagues. Again and again the Montana senator waved for silence, but the shouting would not down.

"Walsh, Walsh, Walsh," came roaring up to him from the floor, from east and south and north and west alike. The sound of it grew and grew in volume until it seemed certain that the convention would have its way despite every restraint and force the vice presidential nomination upon him by acclamation. Only his own serious determination that it should not be blocked such a result.

The convention listened respectfully to what Senator Walsh said, but met his concluding words with renewed cries of "Walsh, Walsh, Walsh." The senator put the motion and the thin chorus of ayes was almost utterly lost in the general din and babel of sound on the floor. Then he called for the ayes and a roaring murmur of dissent came back. But crash came the gavel amid the confusion and uproar.

"The convention stands adjourned until 8:30 o'clock tonight," the senator shouted down into the din. Then he turned swiftly away from any possible questioning of his action and lost himself in the platform crowd.

DAVIS ADVISES PARTY CHIEFS OF HIS WISHES (Continued from page 1)

when I look at the banners displayed throughout this hall and reflect that they are not the standards of a phantom army, but that they represent an army of millions of Democrats ready as they always have been to battle for liberty and righteousness.

"We are a national party and it must be, I believe, because we profess a national creed. The great principles of the Democratic party—honesty, that public office is a public trust, equal rights to all men and special privilege to none, fair and equal taxation, an open door of opportunity to the humblest citizens in all the land, liberty at home and courage and honor and helpfulness abroad—these principles are as dear to the east as to the west and revered by the north and by the south."

"And this great army is ready to do battle again to any who challenge any part of it. On this platform, all progressives can stand, to this banner all liberals can rally, and for this cause all Democrats can, and I know, will stand united."

"I know this convention has had its difficulties, but all these things were but the thunderstorm that cleared the clouds away and left shining on us the sun of coming victory and success."

"When I am duly advised of the nomination it will be my duty to speak on these and kindred themes. I shall therefore do no more at the moment than to express my appreciation and my confidence."

The program calls it the original New York chorus, but even a hick knows Class A legs.

Don't make the mistake of looking for the silver lining in a bubble.

3 NUMBERS FEATURE LEGION SHOW TODAY

"King D," Police Dog, Rose Festival Pictures and Lon Chaney Shown

Sponsored by Capital Post No. 9, American Legion, to which one half of the profits are to go, three big numbers are to be offered at the Liberty theater today and tomorrow in an unusual program that bids fair to keep the theater filled to capacity.

King "D" the big Belgian police dog known throughout the moving picture world as the double for Strongheart and Rin-Tin-Tin, dog stars of the screen, in their fighting and other hazardous scenes, is to be the feature of the program. With his owner, J. J. Duane, King "D" arrived in the city last night and will be seen at each performance at the Liberty.

Another strong local attraction of the program will be the showing of the Portland Rose Festival parade in which the Salem Cheriars and the local legion post, with its life and drum corps, were prominent units.

The picture number on the bill will be "White Paris Sleeps," starring Lon Chaney in the role of a sculptor in love with his beautiful model who attempts to do away with his American rival for her affections.

Great effort has been expended in order to reproduce actual scenes, and entire buildings and streets have been constructed. One of the features is a reproduction of a Mardi Gras Carnival, in which all the color, gaiety and atmosphere of a real French fete have been faithfully depicted.

Critics and authors who have witnessed a pre-release showing of the film are unanimous in declaring it to be one of the finest expositions of Parisian life ever depicted on the silver sheet.

Doll Day Is Order at Playground Saturday

Dolls, rag dolls, new dolls, walking dolls and talking dolls, in fact dolls of every sort and description are wanted for the Lincoln playground Saturday afternoon, when Doll day will be observed. It was announced last night by Miss Danta Robbins, supervisor. All little girls in Salem are invited to come, bringing their mothers and their dolls.

Features on the program will include a big doll parade, a doll carriage race and various other races for both boys and girls. Several prizes will be awarded in the doll contest.

More than 100 youngsters were on the playground Tuesday, with nearly that many yesterday, Miss Robbins said. The two Shetland ponies were available yesterday and will be at the playground again Friday.

Oregon Pulp and Paper Co. Salem, Oregon MANUFACTURERS

Sulphite, and Manila Wrappings, also Butchers Wrappings, Adding Machine Paper, Greaseproof, Glassine, Drug Bond, Tissue Screenings and Specialties.

Don't make the mistake of looking for the silver lining in a bubble.

We have noted with pleasure that congress arranged to get some nice rains for the farmer.

Silvertown means— highest quality, low cost, long service, —and finally— Tremendous satisfaction. . . . . Goodrich Silvertown CORD

Parker & Co. Ira Jorgenson Salem Vulcanizing Works W. H. Trumm Lone Star Service Station V. E. Newcomb C. M. Robinson

"BEST IN THE LONG RUN"

Oregon Pulp and Paper Co.

Salem, Oregon MANUFACTURERS Sulphite, and Manila Wrappings, also Butchers Wrappings, Adding Machine Paper, Greaseproof, Glassine, Drug Bond, Tissue Screenings and Specialties.

Don't make the mistake of looking for the silver lining in a bubble.

Advertisement for Buick cars. It features a large illustration of a Buick Six car with a man in a suit and hat standing next to it. The text reads: "that new Buick six is a wonder! you better see it for yourself".

Advertisement for Columbia Beer. It features a large illustration of a glass of beer with a label that says "COLUMBIA BEER". The text reads: "Thousands of breweries produced good beer, but only a few have been able to brew a near-beer that continues to meet popular favor. We'll stake our reputation on STAR BOTTLING WORKS Salem, Oregon WEINHARD'S Columbia Brew HENRY WEINHARD PLANT Portland, Oregon".

Advertisement for a scene from the play "Beau Brummel". It features a large illustration of a man in a top hat and a woman in a dress. The text reads: "Scene from 'Beau Brummel' showing at the Oregon today."