Gresham Berries Here— Gresham berries are finding their way into the Salem markets, and approximately 100 tons of red raspberries have been received at the Northwest Fruit Products plant here. Other heavy shipments are being made to Vancouver. The quality of the fruit is given as fair and the crop about 60 per cent under that of last year, due to the dry weather. The berries are all being shipped by trucks to the various plants.

Staging Benefit Dance— The Ancient Order of United Workmen will hold a benefit dance at Derby hall tonight. All friends and members of the lodge are invited to attend.

Boys are Registering— Between 50 and 60 boys are expected to attend the annual YMCA camp on the Trask river July 29 to August 16 and registrations are coming in now. It was announced Thursday by R. R. Boardman, physical director at the YMCA. The camp will draw boys from both Marion and Polk counties, who will comprise one large party. A.

E. Yount, state boys secretary, will have general charge, with Mr. Boardman and Edwin Socolofsky, Marion county YMCA secretary, assisting. Several young collegemen have been obtained to act as group leaders. There was not a single case of illness nor an accident to mar the summer camp last year.

Dance Every Saturday— Night at Stayton Community club. Open air pavilion. Best orchestra music obtainable. 112

No One Missing— As no one was reported missing in the city yesterday, it is believed that the report that someone had drowned near Riverside park across the river Wednesday afternoon is without foundation. Mrs. M. Whitmore reported that she thought she heard someone call for help, and upon going to the bank of the river, saw what she believed to be a pair of feet disappear beneath the water.

Not All Dry— June was not totally devoid of moisture, for a trace was noticeable on three different days, the greatest amount being .17 inch on June 17, with a total of .22 inches for the month, according to the official weather report. Fifteen of the days were clear, nine partly cloudy and six cloudy. Cool, warm and hot was recorded, with a maximum temperature of 98 degrees on June 29, and a minimum of 45 degrees on June 4, 5, and 6. The greatest daily range was 42 degrees, on June 9. The mean maximum temperature was 78 degrees and the mean minimum temperature 52 degrees. The mean temperature was 65 degrees.

"The World Crisis"— As foretold in Bible; free lecture. Derby hall, Sunday, 8 p. m. 112*

Hops Will Be Light— Hops will be light this year owing to the long dry spell and the prevalence of the red spider, according to H. L. Percy, of Percy Brothers, who has spent considerable time in the yards in the district this last week. Several growers will not attempt to harvest their crop this year, he said. Yards in the highland districts have been hit the hardest by the drought as well as the spider, and though several owners are not aware of the existence of the red spider, these are present. The pest is being developed rapidly by the hot weather. Mr. Percy said.

Births Are Reported— A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Miles T. Bradford, of Route 1, at the Court Street Christian Maternity home July 9, according to a report filed with the city health officer. Mr. and Mrs. Claude L. Carson are the parents of James Woodford, born at the Salem hospital on June 30.

Blind School Visited— Superintendent and Mrs. S. M. Green of the Missouri school for the blind at St. Louis, visited yesterday at the local blind school. Superintendent and Mrs. Green are touring the Pacific coast from southern California to British Columbia. Mr. Green, who has been with the Missouri school for 34 years, is one of the best authorities in the country on the education of the blind.

Easterners are Arriving— At last the vanguard of eastern tourists is being noted at the Salem auto camp grounds. This week visitors from Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Texas, Massachusetts, Connecticut and New York were registered, a majority remaining.

WOW Attention— Regular meeting of the Woodman of the World Friday night, July 11, and a special meeting Saturday night, July 12, at which time Prospect camp No. 140, WOW of Portland, will put on all work. Please be present both nights, by order of C. C. Wolz, consul commander. L. S. Geer, clerk. 111

Will Resume Traffic— The public service commission yesterday issued an order requiring the Portland Electric Power company, on September 1, or as soon thereafter as the Oregon City-Canemah highway shall be open for travel, to resume the operation of its interurban cars between Oregon City and the end of its line at Canemah.

Situation is Bad— The light and power situation at Canyon City and John Day is unbearable, according to a complaint reaching the public service commission from the Canyon City Bottling works, which claims to represent the public of the two vicinities. An investigation by the commission is asked.

Were In Wreck— Thomas K. Campbell and Newton McCoy, members of the public service commission, and B. F. Forbes, a reporter for the commission, were passengers on the west-bound SP&S train that collided with an eastbound train near Avon yesterday. Neither was injured, according to information reaching here. They were on their way to Astoria for a hearing.

Have Surplus Water— N. G. Kennard, watermaster for district No. 1, with headquarters at Vale, has informed Rhea Luper, state engineer, that a surplus of water is being held in the Warm Springs reservoir. The amount is about 75,000 acre feet. With the demand for July, August and September based on the amount used in 1922 and 1923 it is said that only about 65,000 will be needed.

Fischer Piano Must Be Sold— We have a dandy good Fischer piano left with us to be sold. Looks almost like new. Easy terms. Geo. C. Will, 432 State St.

filed his final account with the county clerk. August 12 was set by Judge W. H. Downing as the date of hearing final objections.

Judgment is Sought— Judgment of $1418 for legal services alleged to have been performed for J. P. Fellers and others is sought in the circuit court by L. H. McMahan.

Auto Reported Stolen— When John H. Crawford, of Route 2, parked his automobile on Court street near North Summer about 8 o'clock Thursday morning, he dismissed the machine from his mind until noon when he found that the car had been stolen. Portland and Roseburg were notified to be on the lookout for the machine.

Three Building Permits— After a period of inactivity, building apparently is revived, and on top of several permits issued this week, three were issued from the city recorder's office Thursday. They were to G. Spence, dwelling, 920 Highland, to cost $4000; J. P. Harrison, dwelling, 1480 North Seventeenth, $2000 and to Mrs. Hunt dwelling, 890 Gaines, to cost $1500.

Presbyterians Gather— The quarterly preparatory service of the First Presbyterian church was held last night. A large number of the congregation were present to welcome the new members. Communion services will be held next Sunday.

Speeher is Cited— Merl Ash will appear in the police court today to explain to the judge why it was necessary for him to travel 40 miles an hour down South Liberty Thursday afternoon. Ash was arrested by Officer Cannon.

Spoons Interrupted— Four minors, two boys and two girls, were brought to the police station shortly before midnight last night after they had been found in an automobile parked on Mission with all the lights out. One of the girls claimed to have had her mother's permission to stay with the other, but did not know whether or not that included the parking on Mission. She was taken home and turned over to her mother by Mrs. Myra Shanks, police matron. One of the boys became quite "funny," and almost spent the night in the city jail.

Patent is Sued— Charles Bryant, an inmate of the state hospital for the insane, and who was kept at the Cottage farm, committed suicide some time Wednesday night by hanging himself with cords made from his bed. He was committed from Benton county about a year ago, was a transient, and as far as known had no relatives. He was 42 years old.

YMCA Board Meets— Routine business and various reports occupied the board of directors at the monthly meeting at the YMCA Thursday noon.

Plan Sacred Concert— A sacred concert by the chorus which furnished the music for the Demarest revival meetings will feature the open air Sunday services in Willson park. The singing will begin a half-hour prior to the regular opening of the service. Approximately 70 men and women have promised to sing in the choir, which will be under the leadership of E. A. Kenney. Dr. Levi T. Pennington, president of the Pacific college at Newberg, will deliver the sermon at 4 o'clock.

Knox Files Complaint— W. J. Knox, in a complaint filed in the county clerks office Thursday, requests that C. L. Ozle set forth his claims to certain property located near Woodburn.

Dance Lively at Station— June 12; good time assured to all. 112*

One License Issued— Jacob Aloysius Kaiser and Henrietta S. Berning, a teacher, both of Mt. Angel, were granted a marriage license Thursday.

Judge Charles A. Johns to Return Soon to Philippines

Judge Charles A. Johns, a member of the supreme court of the Philippine islands, who was a delegate from the islands to the national Republican convention, and who has been visiting in Salem and other Oregon cities since his return from Cleveland, will leave here today, and soon will return to the Philippines. He is accompanied by Mrs. Johns. Judge Johns was formerly a member of the Oregon supreme court, and resigned that position to accept an appointment to the Philippine post.

having been approved by the finance committee were ordered paid by warrants drawn on the treasurer. Bonds of J. Bach for conducting pool halls in the city were presented with checks for the license fees, and as these were accepted the licenses were ordered issued. A request of the secretary of the public library for a refund of the dance license fee was presented and granted less the cost of issuing the license. A list of owners of property where there are no sidewalks is to be obtained by the chief of police, according to a decision made by the council. On receipt of the list the city recorder will notify owners to build walks. No further business arising the meeting adjourned.

Daughter Born— A daughter was born on July 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Miles T. Bradford of Polk county at the Court Street Christian Maternity hospital.

Harmon & Wilson Receive Contract at Silverton
SILVERTON, Ore., July 10.—(Special to The Statesman).—At the July meeting of the Silverton council three bids for the improvement of East Oak street were opened and passed upon. The contract was awarded to Harmon & Wilson as their bid of $6398 was the lowest. The other two were: Lloyd Moser, $6925, and L. C. Herrold, $6854. The bills for the month of June some day; and it may be most any day. The gold and silver and lead and copper and zinc are there, in all but unlimited quantities; and in such formations as will pay big in getting them all out.

The candidates for vice president this year will be both seen and heard. They will have the center of the stage; taking the lime light and the speaking parts.

Clarence Blakeley says a hick town is one whose inhabitants can scratch when and where they please.

The postoffice receipts at Los Angeles were 10 per cent greater for June of this year than for the same month of 1923, and the exports from Los Angeles harbor were 30 per cent greater for this June than for June of last year. The foot and mouth disease slowed things down a bit in that part of California, but they are not likely to stay slowed down for long.
