

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Convict is Received—

William Biggs was received at the state prison yesterday to serve four years for a statutory offense. He was sent up from Columbia county. This is the first prisoner to be received since July 2.

"The World Crisis"—

As foretold in Bible; free lecture. Derby hall, Sunday, 8 p. m. 112*

Doll Parade Today—

Dolls will predominate the Lincoln playground this afternoon, when races and prize entrants will be featured. Mothers of the youngsters have been invited to spend the afternoon at the grounds by Miss Danta Robbins, supervisor. Other games will be staged for the benefit of the boys. The girls are asked to bring their favorite dolls. The two Shetland ponies were on the ground yesterday and were greatly enjoyed by the youngsters.

Appeals Court Decision—

The Lower Columbia Fire Relief association is preparing to appeal the decision of the lower court which upheld the plaintiff, W. W. Rosebraugh. The suit arose from a fire at the Rosebraugh foundry a couple of years ago.

Births are Reported—

Two births were reported to the office of Dr. William B. Mott, city health officer, Friday. These were Ruth Barbara, to Mr. and Mrs. Gustav A. Ostrin, 476 North Nineteenth, at the Salem hospital on July 3 and Martha, to Mr. and Mrs. Saji Saito, of Lake Labish, on July 6.

Utah Man Held—

Clarence Howkes, who has been running a restaurant at Woodburn, was brought to Salem and lodged in the county jail Friday by Deputy Sheriff Sam Burkhart and Bert Smith. Howkes is wanted on a non-support charge in Salt Lake City and is being held for the Utah authorities.

Another Auto Stolen—

That his coupe had been stolen from 755 North Summer was the report made to the police Friday morning by W. J. Busick. The machine was stolen some time Thursday night. Word was received from the auto theft department of the Portland police that the automobile belonging to John H. Crawford, of Route 2, had been recovered. It was found abandoned.

Construction of a one-story concrete building at 360 North Commercial is under way by O. F. Franklin, who yesterday obtained a building permit. The building will cost $2000.

Speeder Arrested—

Anton Jaeger, of Route 3, was making 35 miles an hour on South Commercial when he was overtaken by Officer Cannon. His machine was held until he was able to furnish $10 bail.

New Brand Appears—

Oregon Italian prunes put into general markets this year will be packed in Cream Rose brand cartons by the Drager Fruit company. This is a new prune brand and will be packed in five pound cartons, it having been found that the two-pound cartons are finding less favor. The company will continue to feature the Red Rose brand prunes.

Stockings Prove Strength—

Chiffon hose look thin and weak, but their appearance belies their textile strength. In order to prove this the Miller Mercantile company has arranged an interesting display in one of the Liberty street display windows. One stocking is shown supporting a Ford motor block weighing nearly 200 pounds.

Granted Divorce—

A divorce decree was granted to Mary L. Larkin in a suit brought against Guy C. Larkin in circuit court yesterday. The plaintiff was granted the right to use her former name, Mary L. Stewart, and was awarded a judgment of $1491.98 by Judge George G. Bingham. The couple was married in March, 1923. Cruel and inhuman treatment was charged.

Land Title Cleared—

Frank Kahut was declared owner of a tract of property in Marion county as the result of action concluded yesterday against the unknown heirs of Josetta McKay. A clear title was obtained by default since none of the defendants appeared.

Damages Awarded—

William C. Reasoner, administrator of the estate of Parson Gleason, yesterday was awarded a judgment of $7890 damages against Bud Thompson for timber cut on Clackamas county property in 1920-22.

Fails to Pay Alimony—

C. H. Blanchard was ordered yesterday to appear in court before Judge George Bingham and show why he should not be punished for contempt of a court order instructing him to pay $25 a month alimony to his former wife. Blanchard has failed to make proper payment.

Trial Date Changed—

The date for the trial of divorce proceedings brought by Irene Nash against Herbert Nash has been changed from July 18 to July 19 at 1:30 p. m.

Appraisers Appointed—

John McNary, W. Fullerton and Harry Weidmer were yesterday appointed by County Judge Downing to serve as appraisers for the estate of Mrs. Ida Miller, deceased. W. E. Miller is administrator.

Dr. Steeves in Pulpit—

Dr. B. L. Steeves will be the speaker at the 11 o'clock service tomorrow at the First Methodist church in the absence of Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, the pastor, who left Wednesday on a two weeks' vacation. Dr. Steeves will take the "General Conference" as his theme, basing his speech on the convention in Springfield, Mass., which he attended as a delegate in May. Dr. Steeves is also a member of the "World Service" committee, spending an additional month in the east to familiarize himself with the work.

Heat Affects Crops—

Oregon grain crop prospects have been cut to about 50 per cent of the normal yields by the continuous dry weather, according to a report received from R. L. Kent, statistician of the United States department of agriculture, of Portland. He estimated that the Oregon winter wheat crop at 13,000,000 bushels, or about 51 per cent of normal, and the spring crop at 1,656,000 bushels, about 45 per cent of the normal yield. Oats, barley, hay and potatoes will also be much below normal, according to his calculations.

West Salem Church Services—

Tomorrow at 9:45 will commence a bright, profitable Sunday school period. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Special music. The song service will be led by Mrs. H. J. Morris at 7 p. m. Everybody welcome to come. Join in cheerful song. Junior league pleasant hour, 3 p. m. Intermediates meet at same time.

Accidents Total 487—

A total of 487 accidents, of which one was fatal, were reported to the state industrial accident commission for the week ending July 10. The fatal case was that of Claude Brown, a logger of Sheridan. Of the total number of accidents reported 422 were subject to the provisions of the workmen's compensation act, 62 were from firms and corporations that have rejected the act and three were from public utility corporations not subject to the act.

May Abandon Station—

The Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation company has petitioned the public service commission for relief from maintaining less than carload freight station at Rieth, Or.

Woodshed Catches Fire—

A woodshed fire at 2055 D called out the fire department about 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. The blaze was extinguished before much damage was done. The fire had started outside and near the floor and only one side of the building was burned.

Church Nears Completion—

Work on the Unitarian church, Chemeketa and Cottage, is well under way and the building is expected to be completed about the middle of August. Because necessary material has been delayed, the construction has been rather slow. The new church will cost $35,000. It is located on the site of the previous building, which was destroyed by fire nearly two years ago.

Many Attend Revival—

Many Salem people are spending the week at the Christian church missionary societies of Oregon annual convention now in session at the Turner tabernacle. They are camping on the grounds during the entire week, with the husbands of families coming to Salem for work each day. A musical cantata has been prepared for the final session of the convention Sunday night. Many people have attended the convention to hear Harry Shields, tenor. Nearly all of the churches in western Oregon are represented at the meeting. A similar convention for the churches of eastern Oregon was held about a month ago.

Leaders Brennan and Taggart, White, Cox's 1920 Manager, and Baruch at Democratic Convention

The upper photograph shows George E. Brennan of Chicago (at left) and Thomas Taggart of Indiana, Democratic chiefs of their home states, conferring during the national convention in New York City. Below are George White of Marietta, O., (at left) and Bernard M. Baruch of New York City. White was a member of the Democratic National Committee in 1920 and was campaign manager for Gov. Cox when he ran for president against Warren G. Harding. Baruch is a nationally known figure, having served during the Wilson administration as a member of the Advisory Commission of the Council of National Defense.

Many Study Chemistry—

Chemistry classes at the summer session of Willamette university have an enrollment of 30 students, according to Prof. F. Von Eschen, head of the department.

Tonight! Tonight! Tonight!—

The dance of the valley at Dreamland. That wonderful ten piece, "The Valley Orchestra," going over big. Ladies free. Don't miss this. 112

Former Druggist Visits—

On his first visit to Salem in a quarter of a century, G. L. Baskett, of Elk City, Idaho, is here visiting Mrs. Otto Headrick, a relative. Mr. Baskett was proprietor of a drug store across the street from the present Dan J. Fry store 25 years ago. Since leaving the city he has conducted a hotel and drug store in Elk City.

Californians Finest—

V. L. Dee and C. S. White, California tourists, were racing to win the city limits Friday afternoon when Newell Williams, state traffic officer, entered the race and was declared to be the winner when the three appeared before P. J. Kuntz, justice of the peace. Dee was fined $15 and White $10. Both were traveling in excess to 35 miles an hour.

Lions Have Picnic—

Lions, accompanied by their wives and families, journeyed to the grove on the ranch of Lloyd T. Reynolds, about two miles north of Salem on the Pacific highway last night for their annual picnic. The special program was in charge of Rufe White, who raked in plenty of small change in fines in his official capacity as "Talltwater," with the minstrels again called into action. On account of the picnic, the club did not hold its regular luncheon at the Marion hotel at noon.

PERSONALS

Grant Catterlin, of San Francisco, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. James A. Godfrey. He is accompanied by Jay Gover, also of San Francisco. The young men will return home by way of the Yellowstone park.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Welch, Miss Mildred and Miss Alice Welch and Miss Cora Nist will leave today for a short vacation at Newport.

Among Salem druggists attending the state convention in Eugene this week were Dan J. Fry, Sr., Dan J. Fry, Jr., J. C. Perry, Harry Weiss and Z. J. Riggs.

Mrs. William Gahlsdorf, of 1235 North Cottage, underwent a minor operation at the Salem hospital Friday. She is expected to be able to return home in a few days.

Major Carr Weller, USA, spent Friday in Albany assisting in the selection of a site for a new rifle range.

Charles Huddelson, turnkey at the state prison, returned to Salem Friday after spending the night with friends in Woodburn.

Mrs. L. E. Smith, of West Linn, was in Salem Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Cunningham, of Roseburg, are expected to arrive in Salem today to spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bohmstedt. Before her recent and other leaders, but probably will not make a choice until next week.

Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the navy; Geo. Brennan, Chicago leader; David Hunter Miller, a member of the legal advisory staff of the peace commission; Herbert C. Pell, New York state chairman; Hollings Randolph, chairman of the Georgia convention delegation; John S. Cohan, Georgia national committeeman, and publisher of the Atlanta Journal, and J. B. Cotton, a son of Mr. McAdoo's law partner, were others who paid more than perfunctory visits to Mr. Davis.

After selecting a national chairman and arranging for the notification ceremony, Mr. Davis hopes to be able to turn the majority of the party affairs over to his manager long enough to take a vacation of perhaps two weeks.

change the name "Mistland" to "Wonderland," the latter name already having been appropriated for walnuts.

Units are to be organized at once in Salem, Dallas, Yamhill, Forest Grove, two in Douglas county and one in Lane county. It will be necessary for Dallas to reorganize the association it formed two weeks ago because it failed to get 75 per cent of the crop.

Associations have already been formed at Dundee, Scotts Mills, Spring Brook and in Clarke county, Wash.

The units are urged to form at once. While it is desirable for them to have warehouses, they are advised to rent these buildings and not wait to build them.

The Portland Chamber of Commerce, through its marketing department, managed by R. H. Kipp, is cooperating and paying the expenses so far incurred, so that the organization may get on its feet in time to take care of the 1924 crop.

Kenneth Miller, formerly president of the Oregon Growers Cooperative association, attended the meeting and participated actively in the action taken.

"BITS" FOR BREAKFAST

The pullers are pulling—

And they are putting the backbone into the linen industry here, which is on the eve of getting to going, and will soon be going strong, and will double Salem's population in the next five years—and double it over and over again the years to come.

"Bobbie," the great Silverton dog, is to be at the Bligh Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Bobbie found his way home after he was lost, traveling nearly 3000 miles, making the greatest display of animal instinct of any dog in the world.

Tomatoes were once called love apples, which, declares a Salem grocer, may be why they are best taken with a grain of salt.

Salem garage worker says the man who gives the right of way to a woman is not only chivalrous but prudent.

Same g. w. says if used to be that a man who drove with one hand landed at the altar; now he lands in the hospital.

The prune men are going to be organized. But this thing must not stop with the men who are full of prunes. It must go down the line, with the cherry men, the loganberry growers and all the rest. Our whole fruit industry must be stabilized, and nothing on earth will do it but organization.

The flax crop will be short. But it will not be anything like as short as some joy killers have imagined. There will be a lot of flax, and a lot of that as fine as was ever produced anywhere in the world.
