Draws Many Delegates SILVERTON, Or., July 11 .-- sidered.

Special to The Statesman .-About 60 delegates and visitors were reported to have come last night to the Luher League convenion now being held in the St. John's church of Silverton. This said to be only a few of the otal number expected. The convention which will continue until Sunday afternoon is attracting vistors from many points of Oregon and Washington. Rev. Sarl Foss of Seattle, president of the North Pacific district, is present as is also Rev. Ylvisaker, executive secretary of the national league. Rev. Mr. Ylvisaker will be present for convention in the middle west the next week, which makes it necessary for him to leave earlier than

A reception was held for the guests last night in the church parlors of the St. John's church and an interesting program ren-
