Rubber Garden Hose— At H. L. Stiff Furniture Store. j-13.

Will Is Set Aside— The will of Lucinda Briggs Martin, deceased, was yesterday set aside by order of County Judge Downing. It appeared in the case that the will which was filed and probated by the widow, Samuel M. Martin was written under duress and bodily fear by the deceased. The court, therefore, declared that it was void and appointed Anna Entzinger, H. D. Briggs and other petitioners to be the heirs of the deceased and entitled to share in the estate as provided under the laws of Oregon.

Demurs From Contempt Charge— C. H. Blanchard yesterday filed a demur from contempt proceedings in the case of Mamie Blanchard vs. G. H. Blanchard for failing to obey a court order for the payment of $25 per month alimony. Blanchard contends that the plaintiff has not shown that he failed to obey the order.

Law Actions number 65— The quarterly report of County Clerk Boyer which is just complete, reveals the fact that there have been more than 65 law actions filed in circuit court during the past three months ending June 30. There were 62 equity cases, other than divorce, and 17 divorce cases filed. Twelve criminal cases were filed. There were 25 civil actions tried before juries; one criminal action before a jury, and the cost of the petit jury for the period was $1287, while the cost of the grand jury was $88.40. Bailiffs costs were $237 and witness costs $297.20. Forty-one estates were filed in probate, one will contest; 10 guardianships and three adoptions.

The meeting closed last night. Dr. H. P. Cunningham of Vancouver, B. C., was elected president and his home town selected as the site for the 1925 convention.

Attending YMCA Meeting— Edwin D. Socolofsky, Marion county YMCA secretary, is attending a conference of a group of boys' work executives from the entire northwest in Portland. The party is now at Spirit lake, in the Columbia national forest, where they will confer on boys' problems at the summer camp of the Portland YMCA. The executives are known as the "pioneer commission" of the three states. A study will be made of the pioneer boys' program as promoted in churches by the YMCA.

STOP and THINK! This Means You!
Before you enroll in any other school, get the facts. No matter what you are or where you live, you can be a big success. The best part of it all is that any man, woman, boy or girl, who is able to read, write and think can make good. All the secrets of success can be summed up into one word—try—If you have the backbone to try, let us use you out of the "dub" class. The Harvard Tutoring School is a modern Home Study Institute on scientific basis, conducted exclusively by Harvard men. Our modern and concentrated College, Business, technical, and industrial courses start you up higher and move you up faster. We will prepare you conscientiously to hold your own where competition is keen. You will not lose a single working hour, just let us bring you up during your spare time and you will not get a blind "alley" where you will have to drudge away at poor pay throughout a long lifetime. It costs you nothing but a stamp to inquire. Do it today. It is the shortest and surest way to success.

DELIGHTFULLY CONSPICUOUS is the woman whose clothes and accessories are immaculate.

Women, even quicker than men, notice other women's clothes—"Faultlessly Clean" is the highest compliment one woman can pay to another.

And why? Because to say of a woman that her appearance is spotless is to attribute to her the superlative refinements in taste and person.

The surest way to retain the charm of freshness in suit, coat, skirt and frock is to have them regularly cleaned, pressed, dyed or pleated.

ODORLESS CLEANING

We have new modern machinery that will enable us to deliver your suits without the usual gasoline odor.
