Election Is Called on Woodburn School Issue

The district boundary board of the county yesterday authorized the calling of an election for the purpose of voting on the question of the formation of a Woodburn Union High school district. The election was set for Wednesday August 6, at 2 p. m. The action of the board came as the result of remonstrances which were filed against such action being taken.

The law requires that in event of remonstrances the boundary board must call for an election on the question. The proposed district would include nine units in Marion county, seven complete districts in Marion county and the Marion county portion of two joint districts. The old union district included second and third class districts. The law does not provide for such a union and the courts declared the arrangement invalid.

Supreme Court Reverses Itself on Estate Case

Reversing one of its former opinions the supreme court today reinstated an appeal in the case of Roy Adams et al vs. William Kennard, defendant-appellant. The controversy is over the settlement of an estate. The appeal is from Multnomah county.

When the case was first appealed it was dismissed in an opinion by Justice Coshaw. The appellants then filed a petition for rehearing, which the court denied. They followed this by a motion to reconsider, which was granted, and this was followed yesterday by an opinion, written by Justice Burnett, reinstating the appeal. Justice Coshaw dissented.

Other opinions were: Nicholas Bonifacchi et al vs. W. O. Cummings, appellant; appeal from Grant county; suit to enjoin the defendant from interfering with plaintiff's use of water from a stream in Grant county; opinion by Justice Bean; Judge Dalton Biggs affirmed.

Hilario Barber et al, appellants, vs. S. A. Jetmore, et al; appeal from Lake county; suit to set aside promissory note; opinion by Chief Justice McBride; Judge H. H. Belt affirmed.

Pierce Asks Punishment For Murderers of Negro

Governor Pierce yesterday wrote to Sheriff E. P. Ellingsen of Coos county and District Attorney Ben S. Fisher, requesting them to do all in their power to bring to justice the murderers of Timothy F. Pettis, a Marshfield negro.

"Those who committed this dastardly crime must be apprehended and properly tried in the courts of law," says the governor's letter. "Do everything in your power to secure evidence against the guilty ones. If I can aid you in any way let me know. I am using every agency in the state given me by law to discover the criminals."

WITH THE FIRST COPIES arriving yesterday, "Boating Song" the beautiful composition written by Miss Bruce Putnam, and published by the Schirmer Music House of New York, is now on display at Moore's Music House on Court street.

Miss Putnam has done a distinctive thing in winning a place with such an establishment as the Schirmer Music Publishing house. The Schirmer company is known universally for its musical composition of merit. Miss Putnam's name, it is interesting to observe, appears at the top of the new music calendar for June, 1924, with such composers as Krogman, Bauer, Dalton and Bach.

A lilting melody, indescribably sweet, appears in every measure with substantial harmony and singability back of it all. The cover of the attractive publication is simple with blue and white the only color motifs. A tranquil moonlight scene announces the nature of the song.

Miss Putnam, theater musician at the "Bob White" in Portland, has a pronounced musical gift. Her work is delightfully familiar in Salem. The new song is dedicated to the Salem Apollo club, the group having already featured it in one of their concerts. Miss Putnam has been composing since she was 12 years of age, and critics have taken considerable notice of her work.

Julia Knight has written the words and they, perhaps, will show the dreamful spirit of the lovely composition:

"Floating on the quiet lake,
 Just my love and I,
 Silver moon rides over-head,
 Whispering winds drift by.

Hark the mourning dove doth call
 To her absent mate,
 Saying all I fain would tell,
 Questioning her fate.

Silver moon so high above
 Clothes my love with light,
 Heart of mine how canst thou bear
 Radiance so bright?

Heart of mine, how canst thou bear
 The radiance so bright, so bright?

O mourning dove within the wood,
 Turn her heart to me,
 Tell her love is prisoned there,
 Will she set it free?"

Prof. and Mrs. Florian Von Eschen have as their guest the mother of Mrs. Von Eschen, Mrs. Sarah Schindler of Rock Island, Ill. Mrs. Schindler, making her first trip west, came especially to attend the graduation exercises at Willamette university last month, at which time Mrs. Von Eschen received her degree and election into the Alpha Kappa Nu honorary scholarship society.

Guests last week were Prof. and Mrs. Frederick McMillan and small son, who were in Pocatello, Idaho, last winter. Professor McMillan being an instructor in the Inter-Mountain school. They were on their way to Roseburg for a visit, making the trip by motor.

Miss Glenna Testers was also a recent guest at the Von Eschen home.

Dr. and Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger and Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton enjoyed a motor trip over the week-end up the Santiam as far as Crabtree fork. The party hiked to the summit of Snow Peak mountain.

Mrs. John Palmer, Miss Phyllis Palmer and Fred Patton left Monday for Alsea to visit with Mr. Palmer, who is engaged in highway employment. They motored over.
