LIKE THE HEARTS OF THE LILIES

The golden lilies are in bloom over the play pools: On the drooping branch above I have hung a lantern; It gives me pleasure to look at them.
Reflected in the water they rival the gold fish, The one gold called Camilla and the other two With spots, like the hearts of the lilies.
M.B., 1919.

son, Mrs. Brazier-Small, Miss Marie Churchill, the honor guest, Miss McCleay, and the hostess, Miss Beryl Holt.

Mr. and Mrs. Linn Gleason and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Inman are among those enjoying the day at Cascadia.

Miss Helen Arpke and Miss Pauline Knowland were hostesses Thursday evening at one of the most delightful affairs of the summer among the younger set, entertaining with a lawn party at the Arpke home on Fairmount hill. The lawn was decked with Japanese lanterns, with the same motif in use throughout the evening. A basement dance added the chief interest to the evening.

Those present for this delightful affair of dancing and music were Miss Charlotte Zerber, Miss Vivian Eiker, Miss Maureen Styles, Miss Florence Power, Miss Elva Franklin, Miss Mary Breitenstein, Miss Mamie Wood of Albany, Miss Virginia Dorcas, Miss Lois Moorhead, Miss Helen Roberts, Miss Uinta Kirk, Miss Lucille Pettyjohn, Miss Louise Pierson, Miss Mary Cupper, Miss Elizabeth Taft, Miss Eugenia Zeiber, Miss Margaret Stolz, Miss Helen Pollock, Miss Florence Busch, Miss Neva Millard, Miss Doris Nye, Miss Mildred Pugh, Miss Helen Arpke, Miss Pauline Knowland, James Hays of Berkeley, Walter Fuhrer, Jack Spong, Charles Coffey, Kola McClellan, Wayne Harris, Dick Schel, Buster Brown, Howard Post Benoit McCroskey, Dow Lowell, Jerome Hansen, Arthur Hamilton, Stewart Kibbe, Grant Fallon, Burton Randall and Gerald Mero.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kenney entertained at dinner Thursday evening two interesting honor guests, Miss Ada Roach and Miss Ruth Freeman, the charming Chautauqua entertainers of the day. It is in connection with Mrs. Kenney's mother in Chicago that Miss Roach remembers from the time she was a little girl the latter's Scottish dances.

On Friday a number in Salem had the pleasure of renewing earlier acquaintance with another Chautauqua artist, this time Ernest Gamble. Mr. Gamble and R. R. Boardman of the YMCA knew each other personally overseas. Prof. T. S. Roberts had also met Mr. Gamble before, the occasion being some informal reception held at the home of one of the university professors several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kurtz and Mr. and Mrs. U. Scott Page left by motor this morning for Cascadia where they will spend the day.

Mrs. Frank E. Churchill has as her house guest Mrs. H. F. Abrams of Minneapolis. Mrs. Abrams is leaving soon for Portland where she will spend the week as the guest of her mother and brother. A number of informal things have been planned for Mrs. Abrams' pleasure. On Saturday Mrs. Abrams will return from Portland to be a guest at another anticipated affair.

Forty members of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the First Christian church and 14 guests, with delegates from both Jefferson and Silverton, met on Friday afternoon for the regular monthly meeting, at which time Mrs. John L. Brady presented in an informing manner the place of migrant work in the vicinity. The program of the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. E. C. Case's division; the devotions in charge of Mrs. D. B. Simpson's division, with the group of which Mrs. Reed is chairman in charge of refreshments. The new officers of the society, elected last month, presided for the first time on Friday.

Mrs. Harry Styles, the retiring president, was made the recipient of a lovely Rockwood vase, filled with the most beautiful of the summer flowers, in token of the faithfulness with which she has held her office for five consecutive years.

In presenting the subject of migrant labor, Mrs. Brady introduced her subject with an ingenious paraphrase, carrying her idea immediately to its relation to the industrial gypsy who with his family seeks employment in yard, field and orchard, according to the season. It is toward the vital well-being of these unattached families that the entire movement is directed. The work points particularly to the children of families so employed. Of such children it is estimated that there are no less than 20,000 in California alone. The number of such children in Oregon has never been established, but it is significant.

In answer to the question, "what is to be done?" Mrs. Brady outlined carefully many possibilities along hygienic, recreational and educational lines, relating to both the adults and the young. Mention was made particularly of the project as it has so successfully worked itself out at the Horst ranch.

Salem has already become heading quarters for a successful movement along this line. Miss Louise Shields of Portland has already consented to assume the responsibility of field executive. The central office has further guaranteed $500 toward the salary of such an individual. For the completion of such plans as have been made by the local interdenominational committee in earlier sessions a meeting has been called for July 28, at which time Miss Shields will arrive to meet with the group.

Congressman and Mrs. W. C. Hawley, having arrived from Washington, D. C., the first of the week, will be at home during the summer at their home on Oak street. Congressman and Mrs. Hawley made the trip west via the Canadian Pacific.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Purvine are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son, Wednesday, July 16, at the Court Street Christian Maternity home, to be named Richard Ward. Mrs. Purvine whose home is on 16th street was before her marriage Frances Ward.

A Kensington tea was the delightful social motif chosen by Mrs. Ray L. Smith in entertaining on Friday afternoon for the pleasure of Mrs. Paul R. Smith of St. Monica, California; Mrs. R. W. Walton of Boston, Massachusetts, and Mrs. Ralph Reeves of Lebanon. A pink color scheme was used, with decorations in pastel-shaded sweet peas. Mrs. A. M. Reeves presided at the coffee urn assisted in the serving by Mrs. Walton and Mrs. Ralph Reeves.

Guests meeting at the invitation of Mrs. Smith included: Miss Helen Pearce, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. T. S. Roberts, Mrs.

Charles E. Bellinger, Mrs. Richard Barton, Mrs. P. S. Barton, Mrs. W. M. Hamilton, Mrs. C. A. Downs, Mrs. F. H. Thompson, Mrs. C. E. Bates, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. Asel Fisher, Mrs. Merrill Ohlberg, Mrs. Charles Sherman, Mrs. Lola Belle Bellinger, Mrs. Robald Glover, Miss Inez Goltz, Miss Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. W. D. Smith, Mrs. Paul R. Smith, Mrs. R. W. Walton, Mrs. Ralph Reeves, Mrs. A. M. Reeves, and the hostess Mrs. Smith.

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Wanner celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary yesterday at dinner. Out-of-town guests included: Mrs. A. R. O'Brien and Miss Florence O'Brien of Portland. Mrs. O'Brien and Miss O'Brien will be house-guests of Mrs. Wanner until the middle of the week.

Miss Elaine Oberg of Portland is a guest over the week end of Miss Hollis Vick. Miss Oberg is a first cousin of Miss Ada Roach who appeared on Thursday's Chautauqua program.

A week-end outing at Taylor's Grove is being enjoyed by a group from the Yomareo class of the First Methodist church of which Col. Carl Abrams is the teacher. The class has had many enjoyable social gatherings throughout the year.

For the picnic this week-end the following are making up the group: Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Glover, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Foley, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stewart and children, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Van Orsdol and daughter, Pauline; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swafford, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Millard, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Abrams, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Barton and son, Junior; Mr. and Mrs. H. R. White, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Downs, Mrs. Belle Hawley, Mrs. MacKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Minier and daughter, Jewell.

Mrs. W. H. Dolman invited a group of friends on Thursday afternoon for informal tea, the group gathering to meet Mrs. Lorenzo D. Innskeep of Berkeley, California. The floral arrangement for the afternoon was unusually lovely with delphinium, phlox, acachiosa, larkspur, clarkia, and day lilies combined in baskets. Mrs. Innskeep is the interesting house guest of Mrs. Dolman.

Mrs. Charles Elgin left on Friday for Tacoma, Washington, where she will be the house guest of her daughter, Mrs. William Doherly. Mrs. Elgin will also visit in Seattle, planning to be gone about two weeks.

Miss Virginia Byrd who has been spending a part of her vacation as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Byrd returned to her home in Portland yesterday.

The sacred musicale this evening at the First Presbyterian church will interest a large number of church friends who are in town for the summer. The program will be rendered by a talented double quartet, the personnel including: Mrs. R. H. Robertson, Miss Gusale Niles, Mrs. Merle Rosecrans, Mrs. Guy L. Rathbun, R. H. Robertson, E. H. Leach, P. S. Barton and A. B. Hansen, ably assisted by Miss Dorothy Pearce, piano; Byron D. Arnold, organ; and Maurice Williams, violin.

The program for the evening, beginning at 8 o'clock, follows: Organ Prelude—"Marche Nuptiale".....Wachs

A Word To Those Who Sent In Slogans To Kafoury Bros. Store

THE judges of the Pacific Coast Merchant Economist, San Francisco, Cal., in their letter of July 12 suggest that we run another slogan campaign. To be perfectly frank, they did not think any of the slogans especially good. They feel it would seem better to have no slogan at all than to adopt one which does not stand out from the average slogan. Therefore, upon their advice we are opening another campaign which will close Wednesday, at 6 p. m., October 22, 1924.

A Cash Prize of $25.00 will be paid to the one selected by the judges in San Francisco

We ask all who took part in the former campaign not to be discouraged; to send in another slogan.
