Lutz Is Winner Sunday In Tennis Championship

The junior tennis championship of Salem was won Sunday afternoon by Francis Lutz when he defeated Ivan White in a hard fought match 6-2, 3-6, 7-5. The doubles championship was won by White and Lutz as a result of their victory over Matthis and John Varley by a score of 6-2,

In the singles Lutz won the first set easily with White showing superior form in the second with his lobes and drives and winning 6-3. In the third set both players were showing the effects of the pace set in the first two sets. With the score 5-2, Lutz looked an easy winner. White again showed a flash of his form exhibited in the second match and evened the score 5-all, only to find that he could not keep up the pace and to lose the set and John Creech won the consolation match by defeating Virgil Holley 6-0, 6-1.

A proposal to allow the Oregon Electric to put gravel over their tracks on North Broadway street where the new paving is being laid, in lieu of paving, was defeated by a 6 to 6 vote of the council. An objection from property owners to permitting the Southern Pacific railway the same privilege on its Winter street car line was also heard. A petition of property owners for the pavings of Church street from Howard to Lafelle street was filed.

Decision was reached to authorze City Attorney Smith to draft a charter amendment to go on the ballot at the November election governing the covering of mill
