

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Asks $2035 Damages—

In answer to a complaint by the Willamette Valley Flea & Hemp Growers' association against the First National bank of Sheridan the defendant yesterday filed a complete denial of the allegations. A sum of $2035 owing to the bank by the association was asked as an additional action.

Final Settlements Made—

Orders for the acceptance of the final statements of the administrators of the estates of Emma Morgan, Ellen Little, J. B. Barnes and Josephine Wood were granted yesterday by County Judge W. H. Downing. Calvin Morgan, Henry Little, Theresa Barnes and Pearl Wood were the administrators respectively of the estates.

Fordson Tractor—

Ready to use, $250. Vick Bros., Trade street at High. j22

Dismissal of Contest Asked—

Goldie Starr, Grace Garior and H. E. Williams have filed a petition seeking to have the contest of Elizabeth L. Williams to the will of W. H. Williams dismissed. The petitioners are children of the deceased and Mrs. Williams a second wife.

Marriage License Issued—

A marriage license was issued from the county clerk's office Monday to Alexander Rankin of Alberta, Canada, and Jessie Brown of Salem.

Divorce Granted—

Divorces were awarded to Olive Beardsley from H. J. Beardsley, and to Luella Hornbuckle from Robert Hornbuckle, by circuit court yesterday. Mrs. Beardsley was granted $250 alimony and $30 per month for the care of three children. Both actions were on the grounds of desertion.

Phone Changed, Call 52—

(Kiggins & Cooley) for H. M. Buell, the Painter. jly23*

Pastors Offer Blood—

Rev. Alfred Bates, pastor of the Pine Grove Methodist Episcopal church, Hood River, will have another blood transfusion at the Good Samaritan hospital on Wednesday. Dr. Earl Elce of Portland will have charge of the operation and four of the Portland pastors have willingly offered to be donors on this and future occasions. The present donors are Rev. J. C. Spencer, pastor of the Rose city Park church; Rev. C. P. Johnson, pastor of the Montavilla church;

Rev. F. R. Sibley of the Lincoln church, and Rev. W. J. Warren from the Lents church. Rev. Mr. Bates has been ill for the past four months.

One Dollar—

Puts a Free sewing machine in your home. Then small monthly payments. C. S. Hamilton, furniture, 340 Court street. j23

Prominent Man Coming—

Walter Squires of New York city, who is attending the Presbyterian synod at Eugene, will be in Salem Thursday night to attend a prayer meeting at the Presbyterian church. He will also be present at the meeting of the Salem Council of Religious Education.

Will Take Fingerprints—

All suspicious character picked up by the police will be taken to the station and fingerprinted, it was announced Monday. In addition a general description will be taken and placed on file. In cities where this plan has been adopted it is reported to have met with great success, as far as the police are concerned. The fingerprints will be compared with those kept in other places and it is expected that the new system will be the means of identifying men with criminal records.

Rebuilt Tractors—

Will run as good as new. Reasonable prices. See Vick Bros. j22

Large Crowd at Park—

Another large crowd attended the open air union services in Willson park Sunday afternoon. Dr. William S. Klein of New York City, one of the main speakers at the Presbyterian synod in Eugene, delivered the principal address. Rev. E. L. Putnam of the Court street Christian church read the scriptures and gave the invocation. Miss Lena Bell Tarver was the soloist of the day, with Jack Vinson leading the singing by the gathering.

Fine American and Imported—

China dinnerware. All open stock patterns. Buy as few or as many pieces as you desire. $1 places a full set in your home, then pay the balance in weekly or monthly payments. Hamilton's—j23

Many Attend Meeting—

Nearly 40 members of the Willamette Valley Typographical association attended the conference in the labor hall here Sunday morning. This was followed by a picnic at Brookside park, 9 miles north of Salem. Included in the group was Jerry Wyant, prominent Salem printer, who has been on the sick list for several months. The next meeting will be held in Eugene some time in October.

Wanted Mazzard Seedling—

Cherries. Both black and red Mazzards. Percy Bros., 237 State street. j24

Auto Park Filled—

Six new tent houses are being added to the tent colony at the Salem auto camp, bringing the total number up to 16, according to Superintendent Albert, who has charge of the camp grounds. Attendance is averaging about 100 machines a night, with an average of four to a machine, he said. Sunday night there were 114 in the camp grounds, about one-half of which were new arrivals, the others remaining over. Tourists

TEETHING AND HOT WEATHER are very hard on the little ones. Summer disorders of stomach and bowels, weakening diarrhoea, cholera infantum, quickly controlled by CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY. Helps children and older persons too.

TERMINAL TAXI SERVICE
Cars for hire without drivers.
PHONE 2020
Day and Night Service

Popular Priced
Tailored Suits $25 to $45
Men's and Young Men's
D. H. MOSHER
TAILOR

Promotes Good Health
GREENWOOD
Cottage Cheese
One-Third Cream
H. E. RIDEOUT, Proprietor

LADD & BUSH
BANKERS
Established 1868
General Banking Business

from the north Sunday clamored for the tent, houses, as their equipment had been soaked in the rain. These remained over Monday morning to dry, out their tents.

Chinaware—

On the "pay as you use it plan." This is a good opportunity to have new dishes with a small outlay of money. Hamilton's. j23

Many at Reunion—

Descendants of Cornelius Hill, an old pioneer, met at Jasper, about 12 miles south of Eugene today, for the annual reunion. The meeting was held at the present Hill place near Jasper. Members of the family were present from nearly all parts of the Willamette valley, including McMinnville and Monmouth. Among Salem people attending were Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Keeney.

Railroad Party Here—

Prominent officials of the Great Northern railroad stopped in Salem Monday for a tour of the district and a call upon J. W. Ritchie, local representative for the Oregon Electric. Included in the party were L. C. Gilman, vice president of the Great Northern; G. R. Martin, second vice president; M. L. Countryman, vice president and general counsel, all of St. Paul, Minn.; G. E. Votaw, general superintendent of Portland, and H. W. Shields, traveling freight agent, of Salem, who assisted in the entertaining and introductions to local business men.

Every Free—

Sewing machine sent from our store goes out with the factory guarantee. One dollar enters your name on our contract and delivers the machine to your home. C. S. Hamilton, 240 Court street.—j23.

Wins Honor at Camp—

First Class marksmanship award was won by Stanley Waters, who attended the boys' citizenship training camp. In addition he passed the senior lifesaving tests which were given under the direction of the Red Cross officials.

Poultry Is Stolen—

Hen roosts belonging to state institutions are being relieved of their inmates, according to reports made by Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the state hospital, and Warden A. M. Dalrymple of the state prison. At the former place more than 100 hens have been stolen in two different raids and 25 from the penitentiary roosts. In addition a calf is missing from the cottage farm, south of Salem.

Inmate Is Returned—

James Hamilton, who escaped from the feeble minded school late Saturday night, was picked up Center street by Officer Olson. He was returned to the institution.

Giving Help and Advice—

T. J. Felix Moran, factory representative for the Kerr Glass Manufacturing company, is at the Pickens & Haynes grocery today giving help and assistance to housewives who are having trouble canning fruits.

Seeks New District—

Establishment of a separate school district to include Garthwick and Waverly Heights and a part of the Milwaukie district brought a delegation of Clackamas county people to the office of J. A. Churchill, superintendent of the public instruction, Monday. The delegation sought to appeal the

DIED

McDOWELL—At the home, Route 2, Salem, Ore., July 20, 1924. Raymond Landon McDowell, age 1 year, 1 month, 1 day, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy McDowell. Funeral services were held from the Terwilliger home Monday at 2 p. m., Rev. Mr. Kantner officiating; committal services at City View.

HOLLEY—At a local hospital. Richard H. Holley, age 55 years. Remains were forwarded to Portland by the Terwilliger home for services and interment.

FOWLE—Hayward Fowle died at a local hospital Sunday July 21st at the age of 24 years. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Wm. P. Fowle, two brothers, Charles D. of Salem, Harold G. of San Francisco, Cal.; one sister, Miss Teresa Fowle, of Salem. Funeral announcements will be made later. Webbs funeral parlors in charge.

WEBB'S FUNERAL PARLORS
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Expert Embalming
205 E. Church—Phone 135

RIGDON & SON'S MORTUARY
Unequaled Service
211 E. 1st—Phone 135

ruling of their local boundary board, which denied them the right of a new district. According to the delegation, children at present are forced to walk a mile to school and to cross a railroad track that has no safety crossing. These objections will be removed by the creation of a new district, it is held.

Signs May Remain—

There is nothing in the statutes to compel candidates to remove signs and placards from poles, fences or buildings near polling booths prior to election, according to a legal opinion handed down today by Attorney General Van Winkle. The opinion was asked by Governor Pierce.

Had No License Plates—

Just because they neglected to pay for the necessary license plates before operating their automobiles Arthur Gilmore was fined $20 and D. B. Miller $40 in justice court Monday. They were arrested by State Traffic Officer Griffith. The difference in the amount of fines occurred because of the registration of the vehicles under the state traffic laws.

Claims He Drank Tonic—

Perhaps it was as he said, that he had been taking a "tonic," but nevertheless E. McNeal paid $50 in justice court Monday after he had been arrested on a charge of driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Injury Proves Serious—

When the 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Reid received a slight bruise on her head from a fall Sunday morning, little was thought of the accident. Later she became unconscious and was in a serious condition Monday.

Dance Tonight, Derby Hall—

Best music; all welcome. j24*

Packard Dealer Moves—

The MacDonald Automobile Co. moved yesterday from their temporary location on Ferry street to the new garage building on the corner of Cottage and Ferry streets. This garage, which will be the permanent location of the company, is one of the most modern garages in the city.

Births Are Reported—

Birth reports received at the office of the city health officer Monday announce the arrivals of Donald Everett, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. McCall of route 8, July 14; Delores May, to Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Donaldson, 1344 Madison, July 14; Edna May, to Mr. and Mrs. Dana J. Poulin, at the Court Street Christian church maternity home, July 18; Alfred Ray Baird, Jr., to Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Baird, 1745 Fir, July 19, and a girl to Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Labahn, 1095 North Twentieth, July 21.

Speeder Contributes—

J. Gee was "stepping on it" over the week-end, and for the privilege of speeding paid $40 in justice court yesterday. Of this amount $35 was for the fine and $5 for costs.

Prune Growers Meet—

Explanation of the new Northwest Prune exchange and preliminary steps for organization of a local unit, was made at a large gathering of prune growers in Dallas last night.

Shell Will Cooperate—

General practical cooperation of big corporations with the forest service department of agriculture in preventing forest fires was inaugurated today by the Shell company of California, which began work on repainting its twelve-foot yellow and red dial signs, on highways all along the Pacific coast, with posters urging motorists to help prevent fires.

Several Speeders Fined—

Several speeders were fined in the police court Monday. Frank Durbin evidently was in too great a hurry to get home from the "40 & 8" ceremonial at Silverton early Sunday morning and paid $5. A similar fine was assessed against Kenneth Goss, 1055 South Thirteenth. Lucien Jeamin, who deposited $10 bail Friday, failed to appear and his bail was forfeited.

Get Building Permit—

Mrs. Gamble was issued a building permit Monday for the construction of a small dwelling at 1145 Market. The dwelling will cost $760.

Reports Coupe Stolen—

While attending chaquetaqua Saturday night, someone stole his coupe, A. E. Ullman, 645 Marion, reported to the police.

Hobo Succumbs—

Late Saturday night Officer Victor found a sick hobo at the hobo camp in South Salem. The man was taken to the Deaconess hospital, where he died Sunday.

Drunk Man Is Fined—

Andrew Munson was fined $10 for being drunk when he appeared before Judge Marten Poulsen in the police court yesterday. Munson was arrested near State and Commercial Sunday by Officer James.

Camp Plans Progressing—

Interest in Marion county and Salem boys' camp to be held on the Trask river July 29 to August 12 is being promoted by R. E.

AUCTION SALE

Thursday, 1:30 P. M.
317 N. Liberty St.

Furniture, Range, Over-stuffed Davenport, Bed Davenport, Sewing Machine, Beds, Rugs, etc. See particulars in tomorrow's paper.

F. N. WOODRY, Auctioneer

the YMCA, and Edwin Socolofsky, Marion county YMCA secretary, who is spending the remainder of the week visiting various towns in the county. The boys will leave Salem for Tillamook about 7 o'clock next Tuesday morning. While it is impossible to ascertain the number who will attend at this time, it is believed that the camp this year will exceed that of last year, when 60 boys were in attendance. Each succeeding camp is larger than the previous camp, according to Mr. Boardman.

Walterville Has Fire—

While the inhabitants of Walterville, a small community up the McKenzie river, were absent from the town during a baptism ceremony at the river Sunday, fire destroyed two dwellings. It was only through the efforts of tourists on the main road that further destruction of property was averted, according to Mr. and Mrs. James Smart, who motored up the McKenzie river for an outing. The town has about 20 dwellings.

Excavation Under Way—

Six teams are busy with scrapers at the corner of State and Church in excavation for the new Elks temple that is to be erected. The work is being rushed as rapidly as possible so as to have the basement completed before the rains set in later in the season.

Board Visits Portland—

Governor Pierce and other members of the state board of control spent Monday in Portland investigating the state institution for adult blind.

Will Inspect Railroads—

An inspection trip over the O. W. R. & N. and the S. P. & S. railroads will be made soon by a party from the bureau of valuations of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the public service commission has been advised. The party will be in charge of C. H. Spencer and J. C. Baye. The date of the trip will be set later.

Probing Water Supply—

Rhea Luper, state engineer, is in Bend this week investigating the water of Tumale creek which is being sought as a possible source of municipal water supply for Bend.

Auxiliary Takes Vacation—

The American legion auxiliary will not meet during the month of August. The next meeting of the auxiliary will be September 4 at the chamber of commerce. This was decided at a meeting last night.

Will Leave for Coast—

A. N. Patrick and family are leaving early this week for Netarts where they will spend two weeks. Mr. Patrick is with the Willamette Valley Prune association.

Florist Quite Ill—

D. Frank Schultz, former Salem florist and now florist at the state hospital grounds, is seriously ill at the Deaconess hospital. His daughter, Mrs. J. Dexter, of Dubuque, Iowa, is here with him.

Fix Flag Poles—

Workmen have been busy for the past few days past fixing up

OREGON

STARTS SATURDAY

It goes around the world and makes the world go round

WARNER BROS. present
The MARRIAGE CIRCLE
ERNEST LUBITSCH PRODUCTION
FLORENCE WENON MARY PREVOCT
MONTE BLU ADOLPHE WENON
HARRY MYERS CREDITON HALE

A drama of yesterday, today and tomorrow, of any time and all times, so long as there will be infatuated men and jealous women — which means as long as the world shall last.

An Older Organization naturally reaches a high degree of perfection, for time is a most valuable element in development.

It is for this reason that we are so very sure that we can offer to those we serve a degree of perfection that is second to none. Since 1879 we have been striving to make the name of Webb stand for the very best in mortuary service.

WEBB'S FUNERAL PARLORS
"Superior Funeral Service"
205 So. Church Street
Phone 120

the flag poles on the various school grounds of the city. The brass knobs at the top were polished and the poles painted white.

BEER IS FAVORED
VANCOUVER, B. C., July 21.—Sale of beer by the glass was favored by a majority of 53, it was announced here today after tabulation of the absentee vote of a plebiscite held last week.

SUMMER COLDS
are lingering and annoying.
The very first night apply
VICKS VAPORUB
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

Sacks for Sale
Grain Sacks Potato Sacks Onion Sacks
GOOD AND CHEAP
Capital Bargain House
215 CENTER STREET

Good Morning!—
Remember Today to Order from Your Grocer
DIXIE Health Bread
Rich in Vitamines
Good for the Children—and You
MADE WITH HONEY
Ask Your Grocer—
Or Phone 954—Salem Baking, 439 Court St.

OUT THEY GO!

Trunks, Bags, Suit Cases, Auto Luggage, Boston Bags, Matting Cases, Telescopes, Brief Cases

For a short time only to make more room and for a general clean up I am going to offer

Vacation Luggage
Very Cheap, Indeed

It will pay you to visit this store and partake of some of my real Luggage Bargains before the assortment is all broken up.

MAX O. BUREN
174 North Commercial Street Salem, Oregon

Notice

Larmer Transfer & Storage Co. will be located at 143 South Liberty st. next to Traber Bros. Plumbing Shop after July 1st. We would appreciate your patronage at our new location more than ever.

Larmer Transfer & Storage Co.
Phone 939